KENTUCKY RANKS 12TH IN USO CAMPAIGN, IS WORD

Kentucky ranks twelfth in the nation in its USO campaign, with $191,300, representing 86 percent of its current quota reported raised, Dr. Raymond F. McLain, campaign chairman, announced.

Urging all counties, now campaigning, to continue until their individual goals are reached, the chairman gave special praise to those thirty counties which are over 100 percent, as well as to those which have continued to campaign in the face of industrial stoppages.

"The perseverance with which the counties have continued their efforts on behalf of the one and a half million men still under arms, the two hundred thousand veterans in hospital here and abroad, and the teen-age group now entering service, is an inspiration," Dr. McLain said.

Pointing out that USO represents the combined work of Protestant, Catholic, and Jew to the youth of the Nation in occupied territory and in America, and to hospitalized veterans, the chairman declared that the USO drive will continue until every area of the State has completed its drive.

USO represents the federated services of the Young Men's Christian Associations, National Catholic Community Service, the Salvation Army, Young Women's Christian Associations, National Jewish Welfare Board, and National Travelers Aid Association.

"The national USO advises us that the war commitment of the USO and its member agencies has not yet been discharged," Dr. McLain said, "and that it cannot be sooner than the end of 1947. In conscience we MUST not fail; in reason we DARE not."

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Kelly and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Kelly, of Florence were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kelly.

REVENUE MAN TO VISIT BURLINGTON

AND WALTON DURING JANUARY —WILL ASSIST FARMERS IN PREPARING THEIR JANUARY 15TH DECLARATION.

Collector of Internal Revenue, S. R. Glenn, announces that a deputy from his office will visit Walton January 10th and Burlington January 13 and 14th, 1947 for the purpose of assisting farmers in preparing their January 15th declaration or final income tax returns, also taxpayers who would be required to file amended declaration returns or would be privileged to file final returns by January 15th.

Mr. Glenn says that the new Revenue Act is in many particulars different from the laws previously in effect and that the many changes made can not be explained in a short notice, but that his deputy is familiar with the laws and is being sent here to be of service to the taxpaying public. The service is absolutely free. Collector Glenn urges the taxpayers of this county to see the deputy and let him help them with their income tax problems.

SIX-HUNDRED X-RAYS MADE

AT CLINIC HELD DECEMBER 18, 19 AND 20 AT FLORENCE—SEAL AND BOND SALES PROMOTE SUCH CLINICS.

Six hunderd and six X-rays were made at the clinic held at Florence December 18, 19 and 20th. Teachers, students and lunchroom workers came from all county schools, excepting Petersburg and it is regrettable that all schools could not avail themselves of this opportunity.

Practically all of the direct contacts with known cases in the county attended. A report of findings will be mailed to everyone X-rayed and where necessary persons will be referred to their own physician and a report sent to him.

The X-ray technicians remarked they did not often receive as fine cooperation as Boone County gave, and that the high schol students were the best behaved they had anywhere.

Members of Boone County Tuberculosis Association who assisted with the clinic were Mrs. Mabel Stansifer, Mrs. Iline Conner, Walton; Mrs. Garnett Tolin, Burlington; Mrs. Justin Dolph, Petersburg and Mrs. Louis Houston, Florence. These ladies had a hard job doing all the recording, but they completed the task in fine shape.

Those sponsoring the clinic feel deeply indebted to Florence for the conveniently located and comfortable Town Hall in which the clinic was conducted.

The sale of Christmas seals and bonds promotes such clinics, as well as take care of those who have tuberculosis.

No Change Made In Sugar Rations

The recent announcement relative to future issuance of sugar ration books has been misinterpreted by many consumers, L. A. Cassidy, OPA District Information Executive, said recently.

Hundreds of letters have arrived at the office of Walter L. Kallbreier, Director, Sugar Branch Office, requesting new books. There is no "new" sugar ration book being issued. Books are being issued only for new babies, persons returning from military service and for the replacement of lost or destroyed books.

There has been no change in consumer sugar rations, Cassidy said.

Local Youth Injured In Fall Sunday

Ivan Cason, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Z. Cason, Burlington, suffered minor cuts and bruises on his head and arms when he fell from the barn loft late Sunday afternoon while doing the evening chores.

According to Ivan, he was descending the loft steps when he lost his footing and fell to the lower floor. A loose 40-pound boulder gave way and fell with him, striking him on the head and arms.

He was brought to Dr. M. A. Yelton for examination which revealed only minor cuts and bruises on the head and arms.

156,457 Pupils In Kentucky Cooperated In National School Lunch Program

During the week of December 9-13 a total of 156,457 pupils in Kentucky schools participated in the cooperative National School Lunch program, G. S. Dudley, Acting State Director of the Production and Marketing Administration, said recently.

During the first two weeks of December four additional schools were approved for participation in the lunch program, bringing the total Kentucky schools participating to 992. The number of pupils now receiving lunches under the program is approximately 30,000 more than last year.

The program is operated locally under the supervision of the Kentucky State Department of Education. By agreement with the State Department of Education the U. S. Department of Agriculture pays a part of the cost of each lunch served and also distributes supplies currently abundant foods for use in the program.

The peak of participation in the lunch program is normally reached in January or February each year, Dudley said. After that, he pointed out, participation usually declines because of school closings in rural areas.

About 75 percent of the schools participating in the school lunch program in the State serve complete lunches. The remaining 25 percent serve milk and other foods to supplement lunches the children bring from home.

Schools taking part in the lunch program buy most of their foods locally, then make claims for reimbursement to cover that part of the cost not paid by the schools. The maximum rate of reimbursement from Federal funds is 9 cents for each complete lunch. Federal funds used must be matched dollar for dollar by State funds.

The program is operating this year under permanent school lunch legislation enacted by the last Congress. It has operated on a year-to-year basis in Kentucky since 1943.

Stickers Will Be Offered By County Clerk Jan. 2nd

The sale of automobile "stickers" which will be substituted during 1947 for the license tag, will open January 2, according to C. D. Benson, County Clerk.

Mr. Benson requests car owners to bring their license receipt of 1946. The present tag will be retained on the car and the sticker placed on the windshield.

Under the new state law, trucks will be licensed according with the weight of the truck plus the loading capacity. Truck owners will be required under the new law to produce a certificate as to the weights when purchasing the license.

Jeeps which were licensed as trucks in 1946 will be classified as pleasure cars, and owners will be required to surrender their present truck license and purchase the pleasure car tag.

NEW TRIAL FOR CHARLES WILLIAMS

AFTER JURY FAILS TO AGREE IN ATTACK CASE—WAS SECOND OFFENSE ON SIMILAR CHARGE SINCE 1944.

Charles Williams, 22, 1109 Greenup Street, Covington, charged with criminally attacking a 49-year-old Latonia woman, will be tried again at the April term of Boone Circuit Court, after a 12-man jury were unable to a reach a verdict.

The jury was dismissed late Wednesday, December 18th after reporting to Judge Yager that it could not reach a verdict. Eight of the jurors voted for acquittal and four for conviction after three hours' deliberation.

The Covington woman told the court that she was attacked after Williams forced her to drive her automobile off the Dixie Highway on Chambers Road near Walton. The attack allegedly occurred last October 10th.

This is the second such offense for Williams, having been charged in Covington Court in 1944 for a similar charge.

According to Covington police records, Williams was charged with rape, assault and battery and AWOL and was arrested February 21, 1944, upon a complaint from Miss Loretta Ann Rogers, age 21, residing at 2507 Kemper Lane Ave., Cincinnati, Ohio. Upon assurance from naval officials that Williams would receive his just punishment by trial by court martial, he was released by civil authorities and returned to the Navy for trial by court martial.

According to authorities he was dishonorably discharged from the Navy prior to the attack charge placed against him in Boone Circuit Court in December.

The December term of Boone Circuit Court was adjourned immediately following the trial of Williams.

MOTHER'S COOKING
Remember when the "relatives" gathered for a holiday dinner? They all said that Mother was a wonderful cook, and then proceeded to prove it by consuming enough food to sink a Liberty Ship. No one counted their calories in those days—just let their belts out another notch. Remember?

SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

THE WORD MADE FLESH

LESSON TEXT—John 1:1-18.
MEMORY SELECTION—No man hath seen God at any time; the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.—John 1:18.

A new year always carries with it a deep sense of responsibility and at the same time a thrill of expectancy.

That is why we need to begin this new year—and continue it—in the study of God's Word, so that we may know his will. You will find it to be a joy and blessing to you, not only as you study it by yourself, but also in the fellowship of those in the Sunday school and church.

Our lessons for the next three months are of unusual interest, for they take up the Gospel of John which was "written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name" (John 20:31).

Jesus Christ is here presented as the Word (Logos), and he is indeed the living Word come to reveal God to us.

I. The Living Word Is the Light of Men (vv. 1-5).

Men ask questions about Christ. They want to know whether he is to be regarded as a good man and a great leader, or must we recognize him as being God?

The answer is here. He "was" in the beginning (Gen. 1:1), which means that he pre-existed from all eternity, and he "was God" even as he was "with God." This eternal, living, divine Word was the "express image" of God (Heb. 1:3), and so perfectly revealed the Father (v. 18).

He is the Creator (v. 3) and giver of life both natural and spiritual.

This eternal Word became (as he was) the light of men. He came to shine into the darkness of a sinful world with the only light of redemption. We say again, "This is the Lord!"

II. The Living Word Is a Divider of Men (vv. 6-13).

The darkness of sin was so deep, and still is so deep that the glorious light of God is not received with gladness, nor accepted at all. We see that in the close of verse 5.

Now the question comes, Does it make any difference how a man regards Jesus Christ?

The answer is clear. You must decide what you will do with him. You cannot avoid that decision or evade that light which shines. You must either accept or reject, and a failure to accept is a rejection.

God has witnesses to the Light. John was such a witness and he, like all true witnesses for Christ, directed attention to him. John's great testimony was just a lesser light to point men to the true Light. That true Light is shed abroad for all men (v. 9).

As they face Christ, men divide into two groups. His own people, and his own creation rejected him when he came (v. 11). How utterly tragic! And yet the same thing goes on today. Men hear the gospel, are made acquainted with Christ and his claims, yet fail to accept his proffered salvation, and are eternally lost (John 3:19; Eph. 2:1).

But, thank God, there are those who receive him (v. 12), and to them he gives the power, the right or authority, to be the sons of God.

This change is expressly declared to be (1) not by reason of family or heredity—"not of blood"; (2) not by natural instinct or development—not "of the will of the flesh"; and (3) not by human volition or by man's will power—not "of the will of man."

III. The Living Word Is a Revealer of God (vv. 14-18).

The eternal Word, the Lord Jesus Christ, laid aside his place of honor in heaven, came to earth and took upon himself our flesh that he might redeem us from sin. What infinite condescension, what unfathomable love!

He dwelt among men and showed forth the grace and truth of God, for he was full of these heavenly attributes. But it was in his giving of himself as Redeemer and Saviour of mankind that he fully revealed God in all his gracious love for us.

Notice the antithesis here. "Law" is set over against "grace"; "given" stands in contrast with "came," and "Moses" with "Jesus Christ."

The law was a schoolmaster to bring us to Christ (Gal. 3:24), but it could not save anyone; but grace—oh, it is by grace that we are saved (Eph. 2:8).

Moses was God's honored servant, but Jesus was the Son in the household (Heb. 3:5, 6). It was this Son of God who came to reveal the Father and to declare his grace in salvation.

The law was sent through a messenger, but no messenger, no matter how great or worthy, would do to bring the gospel of the grace of God. That message of "grace and truth came by Jesus Christ" (v. 17).

CONSERVATION CONVERSATION

By J. C. Acree

Carl Schmidt, on the Verona-Walton Road, two years ago wanted to build a pond that would cost him about two hundred dollars. After a farm plan was made, it was found by [illegible] his present water supply was sufficient and it was suggested that he spend the two hundred dollars in reclaiming some land by leveling off with the bulldozer and afterwards building some terraces. People in the Walton vicinity remember this—reclaimed land as it was used for the city dump. Mr. Schmidt is so well pleased with the results of this work that he expects to reclaim more land and build more terraces in '47.

L. Nies of the Springlake Stud Farm has a fine sod on his entire farm but he is interested in a heavier growth. After soil tests are rechecked again, he plans to supply the deficient element to make this extra growth. Mr. Nies has also purchased the small goat farm adjoining his home place and he has leveled the entire area, limed and phosphated and seeded it to a mixture of grasses. He plans also to beautify the space in front of his home between the highway and the railroad.

D. J. Mahaney, who owns a farm on the Union-Big Bone Road, is building a large reservoir this week, that by adjusting fences will furnish water to three fields. He plans on developing a spring to furnish water to two other fields.

Farmers who have asked for farm plans to be made on their farms this week are Larry Rich, Union, Ky.; Bert Powell, Verona, and Thomas Huey, Union, Ky.

Why Suffer With Your Feet?

N. TULCH

Foot Comfort Specialist at—
PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE
814-816 Madison, Covington

Our years of research have proven that foot comfort depends on foot balance.

For years men have been guessing about foot balance, putting steel supports under feet and elastic bands around feet, all sizes and shapes corn pads, plasters, callous plasters, etc. Yet people continue to suffer with their feet, legs, back and with various other aches and pains, resulting from feet in numerous cases because they never had their body weight properly balanced on their feet with shoes.

Your feet may look regular to you, but, naturally you cannot detect weakness or have any way of testing for unbalance. But remember: "fat on the ribs" is by no means an adequate criterion of physical well being.

Don't take chances. If you are suffering with leg pains, knee pains, stiffness, backaches or severe headaches, or sleep poorly and are always tired, your feet may be the cause.—Adv.

CREW ORGANIZATION SAVES TOBACCO WORK

A new leaflet of the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture and Home Economics giving time-saving and labor-saving ways of taking down, bulking, stripping and pressing burley tobacco tells how a crew of four workers stripped 880 pounds in eight hours, or an average of 220 pounds per worker.

"More tobacco was stripped per day," the leaflet states, "by placing the fastest and most experienced workers at the bench to strip and place the tied hands on sticks. A worker who was less experienced in stripping but knew all grades, kept the workers supplied with tobacco from the bulk, placed the sticks of tied hands of tobacco in the press, carried out the stripped stalks, and kept a supply of empty sticks near each worker. He also stripped or picked up and tied up leaves whenever a worker at the bench was unable to keep up.

"Crew organization of this type allows each worker to specialize in one phase of the stripping work with the result that he becomes especially skilled."

Recommendations given in the leaflet are based on records of crews at work on farms in Central Kentucky. The leaflet is called "Preparing Housed Burley Tobacco for Market."

ESTABLISHED 1875

VOLUME 71 — BURLINGTON, KENTUCKY THURSDAY, JANUARY 9, 1947 — NUMBER 27

C. L. HEMPFLING CORN CHAMPION

OF BOONE COUNTY 1946—133.6 BUSHELS PRODUCED ON ACRE OF GROUND—CONFIRMATION RECEIVED LAST WEEK.

Charles L. Hempfling of Taylorsport produced an average of 133.8 bushels of corn on five acres and has been declared the 1946 Boone County Corn Champion by the County-State Corn Derby checking committee. Lloyd Siekman of Petersburg produced 126 bushels per acre on a one-acre plot and was winner in the one acre class. The official confirmation of these reports was received the past week by the County Agent's office.

Hempfling produced his corn on fertile river bottom land that had been built up over a period of years. The corn was drilled 8 inches apart in rows 38 inches wide, on May 23nd. The land was fertilized with 400 pounds of 4-12-6 fertilizer drilled in the row and 125 pounds Ammonium Nitrate per acre broadcast. The land has been in continuous corn, seeded to a winter cover crop of crimson clover, vetch and rye in 1944 and rye and crimson clover in 1945. Manure has been liberally applied to the winter cover crop each year. The variety of corn was Ky. U. S. 13. Mr. Hempfling, the past year, raised 150 acres of corn and the five-acre plot was a part of a 50-acre field. The plot averaged 11,492 stalks per acre and tested 21 percent moisture when the check plot was harvested.

Lloyd Siekman produced 126 bushels of Kentucky 103 Hybrid on one acre of bottom land. The land was in sod last year, manured heavily with 400 pounds of 6-8-6 fertilizer per acre. The rows were 38 inches apart and the average 11,492 stalks per acre. The corn tested 21 percent moisture at harvesting time.

Both of the above farmers are entrants in the Kentucky Corn Derby and will receive State Farm Bureau medals for producing 100 bushels or more per acre in 1946. The purpose of the State Corn Derby is to encourage more efficient soil improvement and corn production practices. The practices of the most successful growers will be studied to find better methods of production.

March Of Dimes Drive Begins January 15th And Closes January 30

The annual March of Dimes, appealing to the people for funds to fight infantile paralysis on all fronts, will be held from January 15 to 30, it was announced by Mr. John O. McEvoy for Boone County.

According to Mr. McEvoy, expenditures of the Kentucky Chapter for care of victims in all parts of the State, are now amounting to between $13,000.00 and $15,000.00 per month. It is therefore obvious that a generous response from all people is necessary if this good work is to continue.

CHARLES WILLIAMS ARRESTED TUESDAY BY OHIO OFFICIALS

ON CHARGE OF ATTEMPTED ASSAULT—WAS RELEASED ON $3,000 BOND IN BOONE CIRCUIT COURT AFTER JURY FAILS TO REACH VERDICT IN DECEMBER TERM—NEW TRIAL WAS SET FOR APRIL.

Charles Williams, 22, 1109 Greenup street Covington, recently tried in Boone Circuit Court on a charge of criminally attacking a 49-year-old Latonia grandmother on Chambers Road, near Walton, October 10th, was arrested Tuesday by Cincinnati police on a charge of attempted criminal attack.

The youth denied the attempted attack but admitted to police that he was under indictment in Boone County, Kentucky on a similar charge. Miss Lois Mobley, 20, 1331 Clay St., who works at the A. & A. Furniture Store, 1215 Main St., told police that Williams entered the store when she was alone and asked to be shown some chairs situated in the back part of the store. When they walked to the back of the store, the girl said Williams seized her, dragged her to a washroom and tried to assault her. When she resisted, she said, he struck her. She related that she then "talked fice" to him and that she agreed to date with him for Friday night.

At that point, Mrs. Alice Wright, 1111 Broadway and Mrs. Virginia Hansford, 400 Reading Rd., entered the store. Miss Mobley screamed and her assailant ran from the store. Mrs. Wright, trailing the suspect, called police when he entered a cafe at 1408 Elm St. When police arrived she pointed out Williams as the man she had followed.

Miss Mobley and Mrs. Hansford identified Williams at detective headquarters.

Miss Mobley was removed to General Hospital for severe bruises on her forehead and arms.

According to records against Williams, this is his third offense having been arrested prior to the Boone County incident by Covington police on a charge of rape, assault and battery and AWOL, on a complaint filed by Miss Loretta Ann Rogers, of 2507 Kemper Lane Ave., Cincinnati, Ohio.

Williams was arrested in Boone County by Deputy Sheriff Wendell Easton, after an attack charge was placed against him by a Latonia grandmother, who stated he forced her to drive her car to Chambers Lane a sparcely populated section near walton, attacking her.

He was brought to Burlington and held for grand jury action and tried in the December term of Circuit Court. After a jury of twelve men were unable to reach a verdict he was placed under $3,000 bond until April term of court when he was to receive a new trial.

When materials are available, the local telephone company plans to install a complete dial telephone system for the entire county. This system has already been installed in the Hebron exchange and has met with the approval of all patrons.

Laibly-Newman

Miss Norma Louis Laibly, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman William Laibley and Mr. John Daniel Newman, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond K. Newman, were united in marriage at 3:30 Saturday afternoon at the Union Baptist Church, with Rev. Henry Beach, pastor, officiating.

The church was decorated with white chrysanthemums in tall standards, flanked by palms and ferns to form a lovely background for the candlelight service. Mrs. Harold Martin presided at the organ to provide music prior to and during the ceremony, with Miss Marie Johnson as voice soloist.

Miss Emma Frances Barlow was the maid of honor, and the bride's two sisters, Mrs. Donald Seymour Tanner and Mrs. Albert Surface Barlow, were matrons of honor; her niece and nephew, Janice Arleen Tanner and Gary Allen Barlow were flower girl and escort for the bride, with Gene Paul Newman brother of the groom, as ring bearer. Mr. Allen C. Newman, brother of the groom, was his best man, and Messrs. Robert Huey Smith and George Kearns, ushers. Junior ushers were Miss Mary Glen Newman, sisters of the groom; Miss Jean Anderson, and Messrs. Chas. Norman Laibley, brother of the bride, and Norman Glen Weaver.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was in a heavy ivory satin gown fashioned with a heart shaped neckline, and trimmed with many tiny satin-covered buttons. The full skirt draped in the back, fell into a rounded train. Her coronet was of imported French net, with orange blossom trim. She carried white chrysanthemums and orchids. The gown of the flower girl duplicated that of the bride in every detail.

The bride's attendants wore gowns of rainbow hues, with matching feather bandeaux and carried flower cascades of corresponding colors.

A reception was held at Idle Brook Farm, home of the bride's parents at Union, following the ceremony, where a buffet supper was served 90 guests.

For her bridal trip to Mammoth Cave the bride donned a brown pin stripe suite with gold and brown accessories and top coat.

The bride and groom plan to make their home in Chicago for the next two years in order that Mr. Newman may complete his education in that city.

Miss Ida Mae Fleek and Mrs. Russell Smith spent from Monday until Tuesday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Fleek and son Arnold.

NEW OFFICES TO BE OPENED

BY COVINGTON OFFICE OF SOCIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATION—ERLANGER TO HAVE OFFICE.

A new schedule of service visits for this area was announced today by Marjan P. Staniec, manager of the Covington office of the Social Security Administration. This office serves the counties of Boone, Bracken, Carroll, Campbell, Gallatin, Grant, Kenton and Pendleton.

The change of schedule is due to the opening of new itinerant stations in the Bellevue, Erlanger and Ft. Thomas Post Offices. The increase of social security business and the Administration's objective of bringing its service closer to each locality has effected this expansion.

Effective January, service hours will be maintained in the Post Offices of the following cities, each month as specified: Bellevue, 11 to 12 and Ft. Thomas, 1:30 to 2:30, second Tuesday; Brooksville, 11 to 12, second Wednesday; Falmouth, 11 to 12 second Thursday; Warsaw, 11 to 12 and Carrollton, 12:30 to 1:30 (CST), third Tuesday; and Erlanger, 10 to 11 and Williamstown, 1 to 2, third Thursday.

All items of social security business can be transacted at these points, advised Staniec. Claims can be filed, social security cards issued, free pamphlets and information can be obtained, as at the home office in Covington. Persons who are not able to come to either the home office or these itinerant points, because of illness or other reasons are urged not to delay but to contact the office in Covington or their local Postmaster to arrange for a special appointment.

The Covington office is located in Room 18 of the Post Office Building, telephone HEmlock 5274.

Time And Energy Savers Training Class Held

Is ironing your bug-a-boo? Does it leave you completely worn out? Miss. Ida C. Hagman, home management specialist from the University of Kentucky, showed leaders from each Homemaker's club how to make this task easier. The training class was held at Florence, Town Hall, January 3rd. Miss Hagman discussed and demonstrated the kinds of equipment to use and their arrangement, the best method of sprinkling, and the method of ironing to best conserve energy and obtain good results.

Equipment and procedures to save time and energy in dishwashing were also demonstrated, according to Mrs. Anne F. Caudill, Assistant Home Demonstration Agent. All the leaders present plan to make a time study to see if they can improve their own efficiency. At Homemakers' clubs in January they will give demonstrations and pass on to members all the pointers they have learned.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Roy McNeely were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Scroggin and son, Thursday night.

BREEDING ASS'N. OPERATION BEGUN

DECEMBER 30TH IN BOONE COUNTY ACCORDING TO HERMAN DECKER, SECRETARY-TREASURER.

The Boone County Artificial Breeding Association started operation on last Monday week, December 30th, according to Herman Decker, secretary-treasurer. Services are now available for 112 farmers who have signed up 1072 cows.

Meier Taylor, Phone Walton 582, has been employed as County Inseminator. He has been busy since the first day and is taking care of the calls. Telephone service with the Walton number is the greatest handicap at the present time. It is hoped this problem can be worked out more satisfactorily in the near future.

Dairymen who are confronted with special problems are urged to contact the Inseminator, officers of the association or County Agent's office. Every attempt will be made to make the service satisfactory. Unless the association knows about these problems necessary improvement can not be made.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Goodridge entertained with a dinner New Year's evening for Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Goodridge, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Goodridge, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Dolwick and children.

It all depends on what the Mrs. is to verify the statement that blonds are no dumber than brunettes.

VOLUME 71 BURLINGTON, KENTUCKY, THURSDAY, JANUARY 16, 1947

NEW AIRPORT IN FULL OPERATION

WITH FIRST PLANE LANDING ON FIELD AT 9:18 FRIDAY MORNING — SEVERAL 4-MOTORED PLANES IN USE.

The new airport located in Boone County and known as the Greater Cincinnati Airport officially opened for operation at 9:18 a. m. Friday morning when an American DC-3, piloted by Capt. B. W. Robinson, Cleveland, made the first scheduled landing of a commerical airliner.

Several thousand residents of Northern Kentucky visited the field during the day, viewing the beautiful administration building, and the ease with which traffic was handled.

Following arrival of the American airline by a few minutes was a DC-3 of Delta Airlines, piloted by Capt. Charles Williams.

At 11:05 a. m. a four-motored DC-4, used in long hauling carrier service arrived. Planes of this type have not been used in this area due to unsuitable landing facilities. It is believed that many of the planes will now be put into operation from this field.

During the first day of operation there were 51 landings and 51 take-offs from the field. Operations at Lunken were approximately forty.

Visitors at the new airport Sunday were numerous, with a constant flow of automobiles arriving and leaving throughout the day.

Veterans Should Report For Physicial Examinations

P. Miller, Chief Medical Officer. He said re-examinations are scheduled periodically until it becomes apparent that no further improvement in the veterans' disabilities can be expected.

Dr. Miller also pointed out that veterans who have applied for disability compensation must report for physical examinations when they are scheduled, otherwise adjudication of their claims may be delayed indefinitely.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Smith, of Latonia, spent Saturday night with his father George Smith, and called on Mr. and Mrs. Luther Smith and family Sunday afternoon.

PLANS MADE FOR NEW LEGION HOME

AT FLORENCE—WILL BE KNOWN AS BOONE COUNTY WAR MEMORIAL—WILL BE AVAILABLE FOR PUBLIC PURPOSES.

The Boone County American Legion Post No. 4 is making plans and preparations for the erecting of a new Legion home at Florence, Ky. This has been the result of the City of Florence granting the Boone County American Legion permission to erect said building on a lot which was dedicated for the Town of Florence.

The following is a transcription of a meeting of the Florence Board of Trustees held December 10th, 1946:

"A committee representing the American Legion asked the privilege of erecting a War Memorial in the form of a building to be known as "The Boone County War Memorial" in Center Park which was dedicated to the Town by Eldora and W. S. Cole. The delegation from the Legion stated that the building to be erected would be available for all public and civic purposes and that it would be an asset to the City of Florence and the County of Boone. It was further explained that the building would be under the control of a Board of Governors, one of whom would be appointed by the Board of Trustees of the City of Florence. After a full discussion it was moved by Mr. Fitzgerald, seconded by Mr. Scott that this permission be granted and that City Atty. Ervin L. Bramlage be instructed to prepare and present at the next meeting of the Board of Trustees an Ordinance carrying out these objectives. Carried by roll call vote with each member of the Board voting 'yea.'"

Two Boone Countians Prove Eager To Make Ironing Task Easier

Mrs. Virgil Kelly, of Gunpowder Homemakers and Mrs. Earl Morehead, of Taylorsport Homemakers wasted no time in applying what they learned at the leader's training class. On January 3, Miss Ida Hagman, of the University of Kentucky showed Homemaker leaders how to save time and especially strength while ironing, by using a lap table instead of an ironing board. Sitting down to iron saves energy—and it's easy to sit down and iron on a lap table. In less than a week Mrs. Kelly and Mrs. Morehead reported they had their lap tables ready for use, according to Mrs. Anna F. Caudill, Assistant Home Agent.

Many other homemakers who will see ironing demonstrations this month will become convinced, too, that these inexpensive lap tables are a must on their list of equipment.

Eligible Survivors Urged To File For Security Benefits

Very few survivors of qualified World War II veterans have filed application for social security benefits, Marjan P. Staniec, manager of the Covington Social Security office, reported today. He urged the immediate filing of application by all survivors who may be eligible. A recent veterans' amendment to the Social Security Act provides for payments to survivors of certain qualified World War II veterans who died after discharge.

Mr. Staniec expressed the belief that there are a number of persons in the Covington area who should contact the Covington office as soon as possible. Eligible survivors have until midnight February 10, 1947, to file application without the possible loss of benefits. The office is located in the Post Office Building, 7th and Scott Streets, Covington, Ky. Any survivors of World War II veterans, whether or not they are now receiving social security payments, should contact the Covington office to learn if they are entitled to a payment under the Veterans' amendment.

Miss Charlotte Benson was ill several days last week.

MILE OF DIMES CAMPAIGN OPENS

WILL BE YOUR INSURANCE AGAINST INFANTILE PARALYSIS—PRECINCT CHAIRMEN NAMED.

The March of Dimes Campaign this year began January 15 and will end January 30. These sixteen days will mean a lot to the unfortunate victims of this dreadful disease, "Polio."

It is seldom that a nation is forewarned of catastrophe to come. Seldom do we find ourselves with months to prepare for unhappy events that face us in the future. Yet today we have an almost certain knowledge that somewhere in the United States tragedy will strike in the summer of 1947. We know from the tragic events of the past that some communities will be forced to receive that most unwelcome visitor—infantile paralysis.

When polio strikes, there is no time to ask who will shoulder the financial burden—no time for personal questions—there is no time only to act. Your County Chapter assumes financial responsibility first—asks questions later. This is your money which has been entrusted to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis and never is it necessary for a family's standard of living to be jeopardized because a member has fallen victim to the disease. The March of Dimes contribution is your insurance against infantile paralysis.

In your own community the organization dedicated to the eradication of infantile paralysis from the face of the earth is your local Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. Thru that Chapter your own child may secure the prompt help that is so necessary when polio strikes.

Join the March of Dimes. Your dimes and dollars are needed now.

The following is a list of the precinct chairmen who will organize and conduct the campaign throughout the County:

W. Easton, Burlington.

Mrs. Joe Woods, Beaver and Richwood.

Leo Regenbogen, Constance.

Mrs. Geo. Morith, Florence.

Miss Lucinda Burcham, Grant.

Mrs. Howard Acra and Mrs. Chas. Engle, Hebron and Bullittsville.

Mrs. Oleva Dolph, Petersburg.

Mrs. Elizabeth Morehead, Taylorsport.

Mrs. Shirley Ferguson, Union.

Mrs. Clayton Renaker, Verona.

Mrs. W. K. Grubbs, Walton.

COMMUNITY MEETINGS SET

The schedule of meetings planned todate are as follows:

Petersburg—School building 7:30 p. m. Thursday, Jan. 16th.

Grant—School building 7:30 p. m., Friday, Jan. 17th.

New Haven—School building 7:30 P. m., Monday, Jan. 20th.

Hamilton—School building, 7:30 Tuesday, January 21st.

THE GREAT TOE

N. TULCH

Foot Comfort Specialist at—
PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE
814-816 Madison, Covington

Do you know that the great toe supports the entire weight of the body for an instant, in the last act of walking?

The foot muscles acting upon the four lesser toes preserve the balance of the body by causing the toe to grip in the shoe and in the last act of walking to give the final spring, or "take off." By their attachment the toes flex at their first (hologel) points and extend at their second and third joints, so that the ends of the toes are pressed upon and grip in standing so as to form powerful propelling levers as the body swings forward upon the toes.

Now, take off your shoes—and look at the bottom of your toes. In every case (there are few exceptions) you will see where the fleshy tissue on the bottom ends of the toes come to a point, from being forced tight together and in many cases the toes themselves lap over one another. This is positive evidence of ill fitted and ill shaped shoes. This continued distortion of toes in many cases leads to bunions, Hommar toes and other toe defects.

Lack of balance will cause you to walk incorrectly and create strain in other parts of the body, inducing fatigue, pain and more misery, NOT ONLY in the feet, but even in the back of the neck and headaches. Resolve right now to correct this condition.

It costs you nothing for a thorough analysis of your foot problems and difficulties. Remember you can be HAPPY with UN-HAPPY FEET.—Adv.

Someone tried to explain why children destroy things—we suppose one reason is as good as another. The wife says—"just a chip off the old block."

The best way to find the buried treasure is to plant the seeds today.

CONSERVATION CONVERSATION

By J. C. Acree

E. Y. Randall states that it pays to crop on the level or on the contour. He says he is certain that he had several bushels more corn this year because he planted and cultivated his corn on the contour. Guide lines were staked out by the Soil Conservation Service. He states also that he had no noticeable erosion and he also sowed his cover crop with the rows.

Mentor Martin, grocer, Florence, Ky., has a farm on the Hebron-Petersburg Road. Mr. Martin is to be congratulated on his improvements. During the last month he has landscaped the yard, put in a pit gate, constructed two large reservoirs and the stock will drink from troughs below. He also has had several acres cleared and stumps removed from several acres so he will be able to mow the larger part of his farm next year. Mr. Martin plans on liming and phosphating several acres this year. His farm plan will show him the approximate number of tons of limestone and pounds of phosphate he should apply per acre.

Dr. Hafer wants the old home farm to look better and be more productive—so a bulldozer will clear several acres and level eroded places. This area will be treated next spring and seeded to a mixture of grasses.

Mr. Charles Hempfling made the conservation office a call last week and he really is a firm believer in fertilizing. Ask him about his corn yields this year.

Applications for farm plans this week are: Ed Conrad, Limaburg; Wesler near Duck Head and Faulkner and Judy who have recently purchased the Cartney Kenton farm on East Bend Road.

An article by W. C. Loudermilk suggests that if Moses had foreseen the waste of land and normal resources that has taken place since his time, he might have written an eleventh Psalm which should have read somewhat as follows: Thou shalt inherit the holy earth as a faithful steward, conserving its resources and productivity from generation to generation. Thou shalt safeguard thy field from soil erosion, thy living water from drying up, thy forests from desolation and protect thy hills from overgrazing of thy herds so that they descendants may have abundance forever.

VOLUME 71 — BURLINGTON, KENTUCKY, THURSDAY, JANUARY 23, 1947

TRUCK OWNERS GIVEN WARNING

BY BOONE FISCAL COURT—LOAD LIMITS MUST BE OBSERVED OVER BOONE COUNTY MAINTAINED ROADS.

The Boone County Fiscal Court issued a warning to all truck operators this week, to load trucks not in excess of three tons, where trucks will be operated over the roads maintained by the Boone County Road Department. The order issued by the court follows:

In order to protect and save the roads of Boone County during the winter months, the Boone County Fiscal Court feels that it will be necessary to set a weight limit on loads carried by trucks over these roads during the wet winter months, and the load limit has been set at a weight not to exceed three tons over and above the weight of the truck.

It is, therefore, ordered by the Court that no truck shall carry a load in excess of three tons over and above the weight of the truck on any of the roads maintained by the Boone County Road Department during wet and soft times from this date to April 15, 1947.

The above restriction applies to all rural blacktop roads and other county roads, but does not apply to State or Federal highways in the County.

SERVICES GIVEN TWENTY-FIVE

DURING PAST THREE WEEKS BY BOONE COUNTY ARTIFICIAL DAIRY BREEDING ASSOCIATION.

The Boone County Artificial Dairy Breeding Association has serviced 25 farmers the past three weeks, according to Meiner Taylor, County Inseminator. Fifty-five cows so far have been included in the work.

Operations so far have been successful in all details except telephone service. Faulty telephone service several days prevented a few calls coming through. The telephone operators have been cooperative and the Walton operator will set down a list of names of parties unable to get W. W. King, Walton 582, at whose home Meiner Taylor lives. The telephone operator can take no more information than the name of the party calling. The Inseminator will personally contact these calls.

Farmers who are unable to get the Walton operator may temporarily leave their names at the County Agent's office before 10:00 a. m. and every attempt will be made to contact the Inseminator.

W. W. Walker, field agent in dairying from the College, advises the local association that the State Bull Stud now has some of the best bulls obtainable.

Praise Given Deceased Seabee By Commanding Officer James H. Rives

The following letter was received by Mrs. Calvin Cress from James E. Rives, Commanding Officer of Companw C of the Seabees:

"Dear Mrs. Cress,

"It is indeed a shock to me to learn Everett is gone and I feel I have lost a friend and the world has lost a mighty fine man. Yes, I was in service with him, with the 6th Battalion of Seabees in New Caledonia for a year or more. At that time I happened to be commanding Company 'C' which was his company and I grew to admire and like Everett very much.

"We all knew him affectionately as "Red" and I know personally that every man in the company liked and admired him. He worked hard and for a while just about ran our Battalion metal working shop lone handed; he also was able to put together and get remarkable production from a makeshift sawmill which he just about was solely responsible for. You remember those were the days when the Seabees had nothing to do with except their hands and their courage and it took good men with real sense to get things done. Of course I remember Luke Dodd well and I've often heard Luke tell how much "Red" did up on the "Canal," (that was before I joined the battalion), when the boys had to live and work under a rain of 14-inch Jap shells. In New Caledonia toward the last the men had been out in the islands over two years and they had earned a rest in the United States which looked like would never come even for another three years. This made them feel badly and morale got pretty low and men's nerves got bitter and morose, but I'll never forget Everett through those days, he always could muster a smile and keep an even keel and by his example he did more for the Company than any one I can think of. His back hurt him then and he seemed to have a touch of malaria too, but he never gave up and that was one of the reasons we all loved him so much.

"As I write this to you, on the table in my living room right in front of me is an ash tray made from an 88mm French shell casing with various small caliber shells brazed onto it, the whole making a pretty tray for cigarettes. This was largely made by Everett in his metal shop and given to me by him unsolicited so that I might have a present to send to my home on Christmas. Needless to say I prize it highly and because of its presence Everett is often in my thoughts. Just recently I had thought that I might get into Kentucky soon and would be sure to stop and see my friend "Red" Cress, so it does sadden me to realize that he has gone on. But we must remember that God's ways are above men's understanding, and content ourselves with the memory of a fine man who was an example to others in courage, application to duty, and possessed a sunny disposition which made this a better world to live in for many including myself. I shall always remember him and be glad I knew him.

"If at any time I can be of service to his mother, please feel free to call upon me Mrs. Cress."

REVENUE EXPERT TO VISIT COUNTY

FEBRUARY 19 THROUGH FEBRUARY 27 FOR PURPOSE OF ASSISTING TAXPAYERS IN FILING 1947 RETURNS.

Collector of Internal Revenue, S. R. Glenn, announces that a deputy from his office will visit Walton February 19 through February 21, and Burlington, Feb. 24 through February 27, for the purpose of assisting taxpayers in filing their final 1946 returns and their estimated returns for the year 1947. Their returns should be filed by March 15, 1947.

Mr. Glenn says that the new Revenue Act is in many particulars different from the laws previously in effect and that the many changes made can not be explained in a short notice, but that his deputy is familiar with the laws and is being sent here to be of service to the taxpaying public. The service is absolutely free. Collector Glenn urges the taxpayers of this county to see the deputy and let him help them with their income tax problems.

NOTICE TO TRUCK OPERATORS
LOAD LIMITS

In order to protect and save the roads of Boone County during the winter months, the Boone County Fiscal Court feels that it will be necessary to set a weight limit on loads carried by trucks over these roads during the wet winter months, and the load limit has been set at a weight not to exceed three tons over, and above, the weight of the truck.

It is, therefore, ordered by the Court that no truck shall carry a load in excess of three tons over and above the weight of the truck on any of the roads maintained by the Boone County Road Department during wet and soft times from this date to April 15, 1947.

The above restriction applies to all Rural Blacktop Roads and other County Roads, but does not apply to State or Federal Highways in the County.

We sang our new hymn for the year "The Voice of Jesus," and repeated our new watchword, "Go ye and make disciples of all nations." Matt. 28:19.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Sam Hogan.

The song, "Blessed Assurance" was sung by the group.

After the program the president took charge of the business meeting. The minutes were read and approved. The roll was called with ten members present. Several visitors met with us.

Mrs. Kenneth Aylor offered prayer for the shutins.

The meeting was dismissed with prayer by Mrs. Olive Gruelle.

Mrs. Orin Edwards. Reporter.

PETERSBURG HOMEMAKERS

The Petersburg Homemakers met at the home of Mrs. Charles Klopp, Jan. 9, with twelve members and two visitors present. During the morning the lesson "Time and Energy Savers" was given by our president, Mrs. Eva Mae Montgomery, who demonstrated the method of ironing to best conserve energy and obtain good results. After lunch Mrs. Montgomery demonstrated the equipment and procedures to save time and energy in dish washing.

The business session was held the latter part of the afternoon. Roll call was answered by "What I Intend to Get Done This Year." Chairman of committee gave a report with very interesting readings. We adjourned to meet next month with Gladys Klopp.

One editorial suggested that the parents and children situation should be turned around occassionally. For what reason—we're not sure—maybe so the parents can hit back without comment

FORD'S OUT FRONT AGAIN

PRICES ON ALL FORD CARS REDUCED AS FORD MOTOR COMPANY TAKES THE LEAD IN SEEKING A RETURN TO SAFE AND SOUND ECONOMY

In an effort to halt the "insane spiral of mounting costs and rising prices," Mr. Henry Ford II, President of the Ford Motor Company, has announced a reduction in prices of all Ford cars.

Despite the fact that there are more than one million customers now awaiting delivery of Ford cars at present prices, Mr. Ford believes that industry must assume a leading role in working for a continued high level of production and employment in the months ahead by reducing prices wherever possible.

In a statement which again proves him an unselfish citizen more interested in the welfare of the country and the American public than increased profits, Mr. Ford said, in part:

> "The un-American spiral of mounting costs and rising prices has hurt everybody—some groups more than others. Many have not benefited from post-war wage increases, but have had to share the burden of resulting higher prices. Already millions of American families are unable to buy the things, which, in normal times, make up their standard of living.
>
> "The Ford Motor Company therefore proposes to accept its losses since V-J day as an item of the cost of a great and victorious war. We are closing our books on that phase of our production history. We have decided that now is the time for us to make an investment in the future.
>
> "We hope, as we move forward, that we will be able to reduce prices further."

Joseph A. Kuehle & Co. is in full accord with the policy expressed by Mr. Ford and pledges full cooperation in his efforts to return the country to a sound economy through lower prices, full employment and increased production.

We are proud of our affiliation with the Ford Motor Company, the first automotive company in America to reduce prices since the war.

A net reduction of $1,152,733.50 annually in utility rates in Kentucky was effected and the construction of 8,212 miles of additional electric distribution lines was authorized by the Public Service Commission in 1946, according to a report to Governor Willis by Charles E. Whittle, Chairman of the Commission.

Of the new construction authorized 31 miles are in Boone County, according to the report.

All of the seven reductions reported were for electric service and affected 142,291 customers, of whom 86 percent were domestic customers. The average annual saving to each customer was $8.35.

"The 8,212 miles of new construction authorized extends in 114 counties and is designed to serve approximately 50,000 new customers to whom no existing electric distribution system is accessible," the reports set forth. Waste Fats Still Short Of Needs

Used fat collections in Kentucky fat salvage program were up in December but still short of needs, M. D. Royse, State Director of the Production and Marketing Administration, said today.

Collections so far reported by renderers total 42,368 pounds for December, Royse said. Collections during the previous two months were: October, 28,425 pounds; and November, 25,889 pounds.

Royse pointed out that the waste facts are needed in the manufacture of soaps, woolens, tires, automobiles, iron, and many other consumer needs.

SUGAR CONTROLS URGED BY WILSON

PRESIDENT OF CALIFORNIA AND HAWAIIAN SUGAR REFINING CORPORATION—CONTROL TO KEEP PRICES DOWN.

With estimated 1947 sugar supplies in this country at least 1,000,000 tons short of public requirements, it is imperative that government controls over sugar be extended through 1947, if we are to avoid repetition of the severe shortages and skyrocketing prices which followed abrupt decontrol of sugar after World War I.

This warning has been issued by Earl B. Wilson, President of California and Hawaiian Sugar Refining Corporation, Ltd., and former director of the Sugar Branch of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, who states that certain uninformed interests are campaigning for precipitate action in decontrolling sugar. It is Mr. Wilson's belief that lifting of controls may lead to a repetition of occurences following World War I, when uncontrolled sugar prices rose to 40c a pound retail, while shortages became increasingly acute working severe hardships on individual consumers, food manufacturers and the sugar industry in general.

Supporting Mr. Wilson's stand in urging gradual rather than sudden decontrol of sugar, are such organizations as the California Retail Grocers and Merchants Association representing grocers throughout California, The Canners League of California, representing the majority of the State's food canners, and others either directly or indirectly concerned with the distribution and consumption of sugar.

Mr. Wilson states that his company and the sugar industry as a whole are anxious for a return of the sugar business to a free market status, but want it accomplished in such a manner as to assure reasonable stability of prices and equitable distribution during the decontrol period. To that end Mr. Wilson is urging that Congress immediately enact such legislation as is necessary to extend sugar controls through December 31, 1947, at the same time directing the Department of Agriculture to carry out the program of orderly, gradual decontrol which it has already undertaken in conjunction with the sugar industry. Widespread public approval and support of these recommendations is already indicated, C and H officials state.

Kentucky To Observe Conservation Pledge Day February 5th

The observance of "Conservation Pledge Day" on February 5, as proclaimed by Governor Simeon Willis, marks a nationwide movement to intensify the conservation of our natural resources through a universal pledge. A national contest conducted by Outdoor Life Magazine resulted in the adoption of the conservation pledge—similar in intent to the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

Earl Wallace, Director of the Division of Game and Fish, expressed the hope that, in observance of "Conservation Day" schools all over the State would plan special activities and programs appropriate to the occasion.

The pledge which will be taken by school children throughout the county follows:

"I give my pledge as an American to save and faithfully to defend from waste the natural resources of my country—its soil and minerals, its forests, waters, and wildlife."

Mrs. Carl Middendorf is spending this week with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Combs and baby son, of Latonia.

Schools To Receive 33 Carloads Of Foods

The potatoes, purchased in the price support program administered by the Department, may be distributed to any school serving school lunches. The tomato and orange juices will be distributed only to schools participating in the cooperative National School Lunch Program. This program is operated locally through the Kentucky State Department of Education.

Schools participating in the lunch program in Kentucky agreement between the U. S. Department of Agriculture and the State Department of Education now number 1,006. More than 150,000 pupils are fed in their lunchrooms.

Impetigo Prevalent In Schools, According To Report Of Doctors

Impetigo, a skin infection is prevalent in the various schools of the county, according to reports of county physicians. Following is a report on the disease from the Red Cross:

Do you know what impetigo contagiosa is? a. skin infection; b. a germicide; c. a botanical term; d. form of sore throat.

Herpes simplex is? a. scalp infection; b gum infection; c. fever blister.

Impetigo contagiosa is the clinical term for a highly infectious skin disease, commonly found on the face and hands but sometimes widely scattered over the body.

Susceptibility is general, especially among children and debilitated persons. Particularly prevalent in summer, it frequently breaks out in children's institutions and summer camps. Its spread may be rapid if personal hygiene measures are neglected or if scratching produces skin lesions.

A stubborn infection requiring careful and presistent care, the disease is transmitted directly by contact with the moist discharged from skin lesions and indirectly by articles recently soiled by these discharges.

Only measures recommended by the doctor should be used in caring for a patient. There is no immunization and reinfection may continue as long as conditions conducive to it exist. Cleanliness and sterilization of articles worn or handled by the patient are important and other members of the family should be watched closely. Persons with skin lesions should be kept from even indirect contact with newborn babies.

Herpes Simplex is the clinical term for a cold sore or "fever blister."

Usually they appear on the lip, but are often found on the nose or cheek. Sores may accompany a cold, pneumonia or other diseases which cause fever or they may appear where there is no apparent ailment.

Cold sores may be transmitted by direct contact of one person with another or by using a handkerchief or towel previously used by a victim of cold sores. Again, cleanliness and caution are important.

Although a blister is disfiguring and uncomfortable in itself, the danger lies in the possible introduction of other germs and infection through scratching or picking with the fingers.

The best treatment is to leave it alone. It will heal of its accord. Sometimes a simple drying agent such as camphor ice will speed the healing process.

Twenty Years From Now

N. TULCH

Foot Comfort Specialist at—
PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE
814-816 Madison, Covington

Will they thank you for good strong feet?

Oh, you mother of a child—you want his manners to be nice, you want his brain to be quick, you want his hands to be agile—but don't you want his feet to be sturdy and true, well-shaped and graceful? Are those of your daughter?

You mother of a child, twenty years from now his feet will be walking up to get a diploma, or confidently marching in to get a job, maybe walking up to an old church altar to meet a bride in white. (Or it may be the bride herself). Your child may never thank you for good strong feet, he'll take them as a matter of fact. But what will he think if they're not good strong feet? Sure he'll still love you—but "why didn't mother make sure I was growing up right?"

It is a responsibility, just one of the many a mother takes on when she brings a child into the world. —Adv.

IN LOVING MEMORY

Of our beloved mother, Anna Ryle, who passed away January 31, 1946

It seems like only yesterday,
You smiled your very last;
We can not seem to realize
That one long year has passed.
In our hearts your memory lingers,
Sweetly tender, fond and true,
There is not a day dear mother,
That we do not think of you.

CONSERVATION CONVERSATION

By J. C. Acree

Boone County From the Air

In March 1937 aerial photographs were made of Boone County to be used in the Agricultural Conservation program. By inspecting the maps carefully, one could determine how each field was being used or abused. Eroded areas stood out like a sore thumb.

It would be interesting to have pictures of Boone County today and compare with the '37 pictures. From the air today Boone County is beautiful with hundreds of lakes grassed pastures, and some reclusion yet unprotected. The beauty of looking down, one does not see the shabby and scrubby brush on the hills.

Ten years from now, it is our prediction that one will be able to see distinct lines between protected woodland and pasture land; also eroded areas covered with some form of vegetation, still more lakes, with less bare crop land showing, well kept roads and roadways meandering through the valleys and a greenish hue over the entire area even in January.

The Boone County Soil Conservation supervisors held their regular monthly meeting on Wednesday afternoon, January 15. Those present were William Presser, C. Liston Hempfling and H. E. White. The supervisors were sorry to have to accept the resignation of Mr. Grover Ransom, whose extra duties hinder him from attending the meetings. Mr. Ransom has been Secretary-Treasurer of the Boone County Soil Conservation district since its beginnings. He is one of the two supervisors appointed by the State Soil Conservation Committee, the other three being elected by ballot within the county.

Grover has done much for the soil conservation program, he being the one, while in the General Assembly, at Frankfort, to introduce the bill that permits farmers to organize and supervise Soil Conservation districts in Kentucky.

After a lengthy discussion, the committee sent a letter to the State committee asking that Joe Hizer, Walton, Ky., be appointed to fill the remainder of Mr. Ransom's term as supervisor.

Information Program Launched By NSLI Feb.

The Veterans Administration Regional Office Monday launched an intensive National Service Life Insurance information program designed to assist 266,616 Kentucky veterans of World War II in retaining or reinstating G. I. insurance. Of this number, 63 per cent have permitted the insurance to lapse.

Harry W. Farmer, Regional Manager, said the state plan is being coordinated with a nation-wide drive to bring NSLI information to the 14,000,000 veterans of World War II. Only 4,000,000 still retain G. I. insurance.

"The VA feels that the majority of veterans who have let their NSLI lapse are not familiar with the privileges and economic security that this insurance affords them," Mr. Farmer said. "We believe that NSLI will provide protection against privations and heartaches that enter the lives of veterans' families who are left without security for the future."

The VA official emphasized that cost of NSLI is low "because Uncle Sam pays all overhead expenses out of the national treasure."

Mr. Farmer urged veterans to continue NSLI or to insurance during their readjustment to civilian life, and to convert only after they have become reestablished and know what their financial capabilities and insurance needs will be.

After term insurance has been in effect for one year, it may be converted in whole or in part to one or more of the following permanent forms of insurance: Ordinary life, 30-payment life, 20-payment life, endowment at age 65, endowment at age 60, and 20-year endowment.

Complete NSLI information is available at all VA offices in Kentucky and insurance collection units have been established at Ashland, Corbin, Covington, Hopkinsville, Lexington and Louisville. Premiums also may be mailed to the Collections Division, Veterans Administration Branch Office No. 6, 52 South Starling Street, Columbus, 8, Ohio.

When paying premiums or in submitting inquiries, it is of utmost importance to include complete information, specifically: full name, present mailing address, "N" or "V" insurance certificate numbers, service serial number date of discharge from service, and date of birth.

TUESDAY BY SCORE OF 50-32—ST. HENRY DEFEATS NEW HAVEN—FLORENCE GRIFFINS DEFEAT AT HANDS OF TIGERS.

The Burlington High School Eagles were defeated by the Walton Bearcats at the latter's gym last Tuesday night by a 50-30 score. The Bearcats lead throughout the game with Vest and Roberts showing most of the offensive with 16 and 14 points. Ryle and Kelly for the locals had seven points each.

The Burlington Reserves won by a 22-17 score with Cropper and E. Ryle leading the way with 15 points between them. Cheesman scored 12 for the losers.

St. Henry's Crusaders defeated the New Haven Tigers Tuesday night of this week 40-32. Periesttti hit the hoop for 17 points for the Erlanger quint and Knox had nine for the Boone five.

The Tigers were extended to the limit last Friday night in defeating the Florence Knights at New Haven gym by a 41-38 count. The Knights lead during most of the contest but fell before their rangler opponents during the last four minutes of the game.

The Hebron Cardinals were idle last week as their regular scheduled game with Owenton was cancelled. The Owenton team, coached by Boyd Mahan, was engaged in the finals of the Penogran conference tournament at Crittenden, where they lost to the Corinth Braves.

The Burlington Eagles will play the St. Henry Crusaders on the Burlington floor Friday night, February 7 with the first game between the reserve team beginning at 7:30.

THOMAS A. EDISON
Feb. 11, 1847 - Oct. 18, 1931
Invented the phonograph, 1877; incandescent lamp, 1879; discovered the Edison Effect, 1883; motion pictures, 1889; fluroscope and fluorescent light, 1896. Built the first complete central station electric system at Pearl Street, New York City, 1882. Patented 1,097 inventions during his lifetime, of which 356 dealt with electric lighting and power distribution.

SINCE Edison's death in 1931, Americans have become more and more appreciative of the benefits that have resulted from the manifold achievements of the "Wizard of Menlo Park." Besides the incandescent lamp, phonograph, motion pictures and his other better-known inventions, Edison was also the discoverer of the so-called "Edison Effect," which launched the science of electronics and ultimately gave the world radio, television and even radar. Every day in countless ways every family benefits from the genius of this great American. To him the entire world owes a debt of gratitude it can never repay.

VOLUME 71 — BURLINGTON, KENTUCKY THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 1947 — NUMBER 28

FORKNER RESIGNS BOONE CO. POST

AS COUNTY AGENT—ACCEPTS APPOINTMENT IN WOODFORD COUNTY—HAD BEEN IN COUNTY FOR 22 YEARS.

H. R. Forkner, Boone County Agent handed his resignation to Judge C. L. Cropper Saturday, after serving Boone County for twenty-two years in the capacity of County Agent. He has accepted a position as agent of Woodford County, succeeding Frank L. Satterwhite, who resigned.

Mr. Forkner's resignation was a complete surprise to the entire county, inasmuch as Mr. Forkner had made his home here for so many years and is a property owner in the town of Burlington.

He has been instrumental in many county and community improvements, and was largely responsible for the 4-H and Utopia Club fair grounds project. His efforts and advice to farmers throughout the county have been timely, which no doubt has been of great value to entire rural section.

During the past 22 years, Mr. Forkner has become a fixture, and many farmers believed that he was a part of the County, never to be separated from it. He was ever willing to assist anyone in their problems, and his advice was solicited by many.

He and his family will be greatly missed in Burlington and Boone County. However, his many friends wish him much success in his new field.

He is a native of Winchester, attended the University of Kentucky, whom whose College of Agriculture he was graduated in 1925.

"Holly" as he was known by all his friends built a reputation as being one of the best county agents in the state, and farmers throughout this section, claim he lived up to that reputation.

Last December he was named as one of the leading agents in the United States and received the National County Agents' Award at the Chicago Stock and Farm Shows. Only one other such award was made at this time.

CALL FOR A UNITED OFFENSIVE

Many Kentuckians have expressed gratification over the selection of Mr. Paul G. Blaer of Ashland, Ky., as chairman of the campaign committee for a constitutional convention. Mr. Blaer is one of the state's highly respected business men who senses the need of bringing up to date the antiquate document which is now the basic law of this commonwealth. The voters will decide in 1947 whether they want a constitutional convention which will mean the selection of delegates to be named to draft such an instrument. Considerable misapprehension exists with reference to the demand for a new constitution. Those favoring such a forward step propose to advocate retention of the many good provisions in the present constitution but will recommend elimination of certain restrictions which are forcing the state to remain in the horse and buggy class. Every Kentuckian who has the capacity to observe conditions must realize the need of a new constitution if there is to be substantial progress made on the industrial front. It is everybody's concern and the question must be approached with a total absence of partizan politics. Leading citizens in every community shoud inaugurate a campaign seeking support of voters to approve a constitutional convention. It is presumed Mr. Blaer is thoroughly conversant with the task ahead. It requires a fine working organization to obtain approval of any plans contemplating constitutional revision. The present document was adopted 54 years ago. We need a new constitution to improve our school system and make certain of agricultural, commercial and cultural development. If we fail in the 1947 general election, Kentucky will take its place among the backwoods units in this country.—Covington, Ky., Times-Star, Tuesday, December 17, 1846.

Roll call was answered by the name of a flower each would like to grow. Those present were Mesdames Clyde Arnold, Ann Fitzgerald, Robt. Meyer, of Florence; Virgie Kottmyer, of Constance; Norris Riddell, Harold Schneider, of Hebron and Miss Gillaspie.

The club extends an invitation to anyone wishing to attend the next meeting to be held at the Burlington courthouse Tuesday, March 4, at 1:30 p. m.

Children's Feet

N. TULCH
Foot Comfort Specialist at—
PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE
814-816 Madison, Covington

Ninety-nine out of a hundred babies are born with good feet, even if they do appear to be flat at the start. We say babies are born with flat feet because the bony masses in a new-born baby's feet are held in place by fat pads. As the baby starts to stand and walk, these fatty pads are absorbed and muscles take their place. But about the third year the arch of the foot should be pretty well defined if the child is going to have an arch. We say if, because everyone is not mean to have the same color of hair or eyes.

Perhaps when the child starts to stand he is overweight, or undernourished or has gone through a serious illness. In that event the muscles may not develop enough to produce an arch in the foot. He then grows with a natural flat foot. The condition is rarely painful. However, many cases of flat feet can be averted if the child is provided with shoes that hold the weak foot in alignment. Such shoes are usually wedged slightly under the inner border of the heel bone. This prevents tipping in of the ankles and by over correction has a tendency to cause the muscles on the inner border of the leg to shorten. These muscles are the ones which keep the foot arched.—Adv.

BIRTH OF A GREAT INVENTION

Artist's conception of scene as Edison and assistants successfully tested the first practical incandescent lamp, Menlo Park, October 21, 1879.

THIS week America pays tribute to Thomas A. Edison, "Wizard of Menlo Park," who was born February 11 one hundred years ago.

Edison's legacy to the world included such inventions as the phonograph, motion pictures and fluoroscope, but he is most famous of all for his work in the field of electric lighting and power distribution.

Edison not only invented the first practical incandescent lamp, but also created a complete central station electric system, including dynamos, conductors, meters, fuses and all other apparatus needed to make the new light commercially feasible. This was the famous Pearl Street Station in New York, forerunner of today's giant power systems, built in 1882.

A few years before Mr. Edison's death in 1931, he stated that the electrical age was still in its infancy and predicted that the power he had harnessed would constantly widen in usefulness and steadily decrease in cost, with resultant benefits to all mankind.

Today, Edison's prediction is borne out by the fact that home consumption of electricity has more than doubled since 1930, while the cost per unit has been approximately halved.

Electricity's ever-widening usefulness, interpreted in terms of lessened labor, greater production and better living at lower cost, is a true measure of Edison's great contribution to posterity, and the most enduring monument to his genius.

What made Greyhound Grow?

...giving the people good transportation...at low cost ...and lots of it!

From puppyhood, Greyhound grew on one good idea: to build a new, "American-style" travel system for THE PEOPLE.

Not mail... not freight... but PEOPLE.

The thing Greyhound knows best is how to get people to the places they want to go... at the times they want to go... at prices they can afford.

And Greyhound does this for more cities, towns, villages and corners than any other transportation system.

What's more, Greyhound makes this "American-style" travel friendly, easy, convenient... stopping in the heart of big cities... at the drug store across from the city hall... or at Pete Jones' farm, if that's where Pete wants to get off.

Why do the people like Greyhound? There's your answer: good transportation... at low cost... and lots of it.

SOLDIER WRITES FROM MANILA

T-5 Charles Eggleston writes to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charley Eggleston that he has about fifty more days to spend in Manila, then he will return to the states. He says he is in the best of health. He reports the weather is hot and dry.

The following poem was written while in Manila:

Soldier's Lament

Down in Luzon swamp lands
Manila is the spot,
Battling a terrific heat wave
In the land that God forgot.

Out in the sun with a rifle,
Down in a ditch with a pick;
Doing the work of a convict,
But always too tired to kick.

We're soldiers of the army,
Earning a meager pay;
Guarding people with millions
For a dollar sixty a day.

Down with the snakes and bugs,
Where the G. I. is really blue;
Right in the middle of nowhere,
Ten thousand miles from you.

No one knows we're living,
Until the day we return;
Back home we're soon forgotten,
We've been loaned to Uncle Sam.

We're living with only memories
And hope we will return;
They aren't living with our pals,
You can tell by the white crosses.

As the heat keeps coming in
It's more than we can stand;
We're not convicts
We're defenders of the land.

It seems more than we can stand
The part of life that we have missed;
Boys don't let the draft get you down
And for goodness sake don't enlist.

And on that day we go
For the place we all know so well
Saint Pete will say, "Come in boys from Manila
You've served your hitch in what the boys sometimes call hell."

CONSERVATION PROGRAM FUNDS ARE ALLOCATED

To aid farmers in maintaining the fertility of Kentucky soil, $7,451,000 of the proposed 1947 Agricultural Conservation Program funds have been allocated to the State this year, M. D. Royse, State Director of the Production and Marketing Administration, announced today.

As in past years, these funds will be used to repay a part of farmers' costs for approved conservation practices on their farms during the year or to furnish certain materials, such as lime and phosphate, used in carrying out these practices.

Soil conserving and soil building practices for which the funds may be used were selected from among those recommended by elected farmer committeemen in the counties.

Practices approved in this Statewide conservation program for 1947 include spreading ground limestone on farm land; applying phosphate to eligible grasses and legumes; applying potash to grasses and legumes; seeding winter cover crops; turning under green manure crops; establishing or improving permanent pasture; constructing stock-water dams and ponds; planting row crops on the contour; terracing and ditching land to reduce erosion and conserve moisture; draining wet land; planting forest trees; and harvesting needed legume seeds.

Each farmer in Kentucky will be able to qualify for assistance in carrying out any of these approved practices needed on his farm. To insure an equitable distribution of the funds, a farm allowance is set up for each farm in the State. This allowance is based on the cropland and non-crop pasture in the farm.

Specifications for each approved practice and maximum rates of payment for 1947 have already been determined and may be obtained from county ACP offices.

While farmers have carried out many soil conserving practices in the conservation programs of recent years, only a start has been made on the total job that needs to be done. According to recent estimates of soil conservationists, the following are some of Kentucky's most urgent conservation needs:

(1) A basic application of 16 million tons of lime to approximately 8 million acres of farm land. Even after this basic application, farmers would need to spread one and a half million tons of lime annually to maintain soil fertility in the State. Of the State's entire cropland acreage, all but about two million acres need lime.

(2) Application of 183,000 tons of phosphate annually. In terms of 20 percent phosphate material, this would mean an annual application of nearly a million tons.

(3) Application of approximately 90,000 tons of potash annually.

(4) Seeding of winter cover crops on approximately 2.5 million acres planted each year to cultivated crops and on about 3 million acres of lespedeza sod.

(5) Improvement of 4 million acres of pasture land by treatments such as fertilizer applications and additional seedings; and establishment of 2.5 million acres of new pasture.

(6) Construction of 180,000 farm stockwater ponds.

(7) Contour planting of more than 2 million acres of row crops annually.

(8) Terracing and ditching of more than 2.5 million acres of cropland to reduce erosion. It is estimated that only 5 percent of the terraces needed have been built.

(9) Draining of more than half a million acres of land now too wet for cropping by construction of open ditch or tile drainage systems.

(10) Planting of more than one and a quarter million acres of forest trees on land not suited for cropping.

While these points cover most of the State's major soil conservation needs, they do not cover all practices needed. In addition to the acreages listed, Kentucky needs more than a million acres of perennial hay crops, including around 250,000 acres of alfalfa, and another million acres of hay crops grown in the regular crop rotation.

In order to meet some of these conservation crop needs, Kentucky needs to produce more legume and grass seeds. To bring this about, payments are offered under the 1947 program for harvesting the following seeds: Alsike clover, crimson clover, red clover, white (Dutch) clover, biennial white or yellow sweet clover, or hairy vetch, sown alone or with a small grain support crop.

CONSERVATION CONVERSATION

By J. C. Acree

Several of the G. I. boys taking the vocational agriculture training at Hebron are having farm plans made on their farms.

W. H. Wesler, Florence, Ky., who owns a 306-acre farm off U. S. 42 is anxious to get moved to his farm. Although this is a rough old farm, Mr. Wesler plans to operate the farm according to land use, plowing only enough for tobacco and leaving the rest to meadow and pasture. Mr. Wesler, according to plans, is rearranging fences and has set as his goal to clean up one pasture field each year. Brush and loose stones will be removed, low limbed trees trimmed, land smoothed down and seed to grass. Lime and phosphate will be applied if available. Mr. Wesler is sowing a small patch of Meadow Fescue 31 and Ladino Clover. Experience is the best teacher.

Two other G. I. boys taking the training who have made applications for a farm plan are Faulkner and Judy, who purchased the Cartney Kenton farm on East Bend road. Other farm plans written this month are for Ed Conrad, Burlington; Stanley Ashcraft, Verona; and Bert Powell, Verona.

Mr. Powell is planning on rearranging his farming so he will only use a ridge field that is practically level. This ridge has a graded road to it and erosion will be cut to a minimum. Mr. Powell also expects to develop a spring that will furnish water to two fields; also rearrange his garden fence so that it will be cropped on the contour. He also, plans on spreading several tons of limestone and several hundred pounds of phosphate.

Stanley Ashcraft wants some assistance in contour lines and in building some diversion ditches.

H. C. Byrd, President, University of Maryand: "We cannot maintain our high living standards if our productive lands are allowed to disappear, while, at the same time, our people become more numerous.

IMPROVED UNIFORM, INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

By HAROLD L. LUNDQUIST, D.D., Of The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago. Released by Western Newspaper Union.

Lesson for February 16

Lesson subjects and Scripture texts selected and copyrighted by International Council of Religious Education; used by permission.

JESUS AT THE FEAST OF TABERNACLES

LESSON TEXT—John 8:12-16, 31-36; 9:1-8.
MEMORY SELECTION—I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.—John 8:12.

"The Light of the World is Jesus!" Who does not remember with what delight we as children sang, "Come to the light, 'tis shining for thee . . ." The Light of the World is Jesus. How precious was the truth that thus flooded our souls!

Has the passing of the years dimmed the beauty and glory of that light in our hearts and lives? Do we need it renewed? God is willing and ready. Jesus is the light, and just as the sunlight sheds its glory on an awakening world at dawn, so Christ sheds abroad the light of God in the hearts of believing men. The writer of these lessons pens these words with the prayer that as this portion of God's Holy Word is studied and taught, that light may break forth on many a soul lost in the bewilderment of this dark world.

Our study centers around three simple words fraught with beauty and rich in meaning.

I. Light (John 8:12-16).

The text says, "Then spake Jesus." When? Just after he had silenced the hypocritical accusers of a woman taken in sin, and had spoken the word of peace to her troubled soul. She was to "go and sin no more" because she had met him who is the light of the world. They that follow him "shall not walk in darkness"; they are the children of light, they have the very light of life.

How sad it is that with the light of the world shining in all its brightness, men loved their own darkness. The Pharisees, instead of receiving the Light, had to argue, and to do it on a low, fleshly plane. They even accused Jesus of being a liar. Think of that!

So it is that men may reject the Light of God and go on into a darkness made deeper because they have seen the light.

Now we look at our second beautiful word. How sweet it sounds as we repeat it—

II. Freedom (vv. 31-36).

Free! Four letters, but what a depth of meaning! Chains have fallen off, prison doors are open. The one who was bound is free. But here we are concerned with an even more important liberty, the freedom of the soul. Many there are who boast of their independence, but who are merely slaves. Jesus said: "Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin" (v. 34) not its master.

How shall they be freed? Note three things in these verses. (1) A condition—"If ye continue in my word." This means not only a profession of faith, but a daily appropriation and realization of his truth in life. (2) A promise—"Ye shall know the truth." The philosophies of men profess to be a seeking after truth, but how few there are who look to the one place where it can be found—in Jesus Christ. (3) A result—"The truth shall make you free." Truth always sets free.

Men are enslaved because, as in some foreign lands, they have not had the opportunity to learn the truth (we have failed to send it), or because they have rejected it.

Freedom and light can lead only to

III. Vision (John 9:1-5).

This is one of the most instructive passages in Scripture. A man born blind is seen by Jesus. His disciples note his interest and begin to theorize on a theological question. They had learned so little of the compassionate spirit of Jesus that they saw in this blighted life only an illustration of a theological problem. May God help us that we may never be so blind.

Jesus goes at once to his blessed work. He was in the world to do the works of God. He and the Father always work. Let us follow his blessed example. The King's business requires haste. Let us work "while it is day, the night cometh when no man can work."

By a loving and gracious act, Jesus stirs in the heart of the man that faith which causes him to go, to wash, and, glory to God, he sees!

Such a personal experience of the divine power of the Son of God leaves no doubt in the man's mind that the One who caused him to see "is a prophet." All of a man's doubts concerning the deity of Jesus Christ disappear when he becomes his Saviour.

Do not fail to read the remainder of the chapter and note how this man's faith was victorious in the face of trials, persecution, and even of excommunication; for outside the temple he met Jesus and took him as his Lord. As Dr. Scroggie puts it, "His excommunication was a promotion. He went from the synagogue to the Saviour."

THIEVES ENTER ANTIQUE SHOP

ON HIGHWAY 25 NEAR FLORENCE—ENTRANCE GAINED BY FORCING REAR DOOR, ACCORDING TO SHERIFF.

Thieves gained entrance to the well known "Stringtown on the Pike" antique shop, located on U. S. 25 near Florence on Saturday night, taking a number of antiques and office equipment, according to R. I. Rouse, Sheriff.

Entrance was gained by forcing a rear door of the brick building, which is occupied by the Consolidated Telephone Company for storage of trucks and equipment. Although much valuable equipment was stored in the building, nothing was taken from the Telephone Company, according to officials.

The loot from the antique shop consisted of some small valuable antique lamps and office equipment valued at $100. Nothing else in the shop was taken or in any way damaged, according to Mrs. Schrodder, owner of the shop.

HYBRID CORN FOR KENTUCKY

AS RECOMMENDED BY KENTUCKY COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE ONLY 3 YELLOW AND TWO WHITE VARIETIES.

The Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station is constantly striving to improve the superior crop varieties which have already been developed, and at the same time is developing new ones and recommending their findings on the best seeds to plant to Kentucky farmers.

It has been the policy of the College to recommend only a few of the best hybrids adapted to a wide range of conditions over the state. A large number of hybrids confuse and complicate the selection of adapted to the particular needs.

The Kentucky Seed Improvement Association certifies only hybrids recommended by the Experiment Station. The selection of these recommended hybrids is based on results of carefully supervised tests conducted in all parts of the state.

At the present time 3 yellow and 2 white hybrids are recommended by the station and are eligible for certification. They are:

Yellow—U. S. 13, Ky. 102 and Ky. 103.

White—Ky. 72B and Ky. 203.

Some of the earlier hybrids such as Ky. 69 and Ind. 844-D are still being grown to satisfy special demands.

New hybrids will be introduced when their superiority over these proven hybrids are fully established.

Local Man Attends Credit Association Conference Feb. 14-15

Directors and the secretary-treasurer of the Northern Kentucky Production Credit Association attended the group directors conference held in Lexington, Kentucky last Thursday and Friday. Other associations attending were Central Kentucky, Flemingsburg, Cumberland, and Big Sandy.

A very interesting and instructive program was presented each day. The report of progress of all asociations throughout the fourth district, which comprises Indiana, Kentucky, Ohio and Tennessee, indicated that improved services were being rendered to members of these associations.

GROWERS PLANT NEW VARIETIES

OF TOBACCO IN BOONE COUNTY ACCORDING TO AGENT—GIVE PROMISE OF BEING SUPERIOR TO WEED NOW GROWN.

L. W. Rogers of Grant, Emery Klopp and William Burns, of Petersburg have been supplied with seed of seven new Fusarium Wilt and Root Rot Resistant tobacco varieties, according to the County Agent's office. Carr and Edwin Yelton have secured Kentucky No. 24 seed, a new root rot resistant Warner type of tobacco, for planting this year. Corn Saved By Swine Sanitation

Swine sanitation or raising hogs on clean ground will save from two to three bushels of corn per pig, according to Grady Sellards, swine field agent from the College of Agriculture. Sellards addressed forty farmers and students at Burlington on last Thursday.

Hogs can usually be kept free from parasites by moving the sow before farrowing to ground on which no hogs have run the past two years. Portable farrowing houses can be moved or inexpensive houses can be constructed on this clean ground. Greater use of pasture and protein supplements were recommended as means of lowering the cost of production of pork.

The Sodium Fluoride treatment for pigs already infested with worms was recommended.

BY TROUNCING OWENTON 47-38 FRIDAY NIGHT—HEBRON WIN OVER EAGLES IN SATURDAY'S CONTEST 29-18.

Burlington high school's rejuvenated Eagle basketball team showed continued evidence of improvement during the past week-end when they handily defeated Boyd Mahan's highly favored Owenton quint present leaders of the Penogran Conference by a 47-38 count, Friday night at the home floor, and then came back Saturday night to play the Hebron Cardinals, Boone Conference champs, a 29-18 contest.

Paced by McBee and Ryle, who scored 25 points, the Eagles led Owenton practically the entire way with quarter scores of 14-9, 27-17, 38-21. Kistner and Connelly had 30 points for the losers.

The Eagle-Cardinal game Saturday night was close until the final minutes of the game when the winners forged ahead. Scores by quarters with Hebron leading were 7-5, 13-11 and 20-18. Huey with 11 points was high for the Cards with Miller and McBee leading the locals with six each.

The Eagle reserves lost to Owenton 29-14 and to Hebron 42-11.

Burlington will play their last regularly scheduled game Friday night at the local gym with Warsaw as the opposition. In an earlier season game the Gallatin County five defeated the Eagles 39 to 31.

NATIONAL 4-H CLUB WEEK MARCH 1-9

WORLD'S LARGEST RURAL YOUTH—PROGRAM TOUCHES PHYSICAL, MENTAL AND SPIRITUAL DEVELOPMENT.

National 4-H Club Week has been set for March 1 through 9. Featured during the week will be a broadcast on 4-H Club work by President Truman.

The 4-H Club is the world's largest rural youth organization. It's purpose is to reach as many rural youth as possible to help prepare them for citizenship. Its program touches physical, mental and spiritual development.

This county has drawn heavily upon its rural youth for leadership throughout the past. There is no greater opportunity for development of leaders than that presented by local 4-H clubs.

With plans being made and organization work under way in Boone County it is a good time for parents and friends of potenial 4-H club members to stand behind them and see that they get the right start.

Five organizational meetings held in Boone County to date have shown a good response with one hundred and thirty-one 4-H members enrolled. Tentative project work shows greatest interest in housekeeping, clothing, canning, poultry, gardening and tobacco.

Clubs to organize in the near future are: Florence, February 19; Hebron and Constance, February 21; Hamilton, February 26; Grant, Petersburg and New Haven, February 27.

CONSERVATION CONVERSATION

By J. C. Acree

The Boone County Soil Conservation District Supervisors held their regular monthly meeting, on Wednesday, February 12. All supervisors were present. At the next meeting March 12 supervisors from seven Northern Kentucky counties will meet with the local district [illegible] Burlington.

The district office had a letter from J. M. Macke, U. S. 42, stating he was pleased with his farm plan, but believed that he needed more land terraced than the plan called for. This and other comments make it appear that land owners are beginning to see the results of terraces and diversions.

Lessons in Snow: Driving thru the county, when snow begins to melt, you will notice that snow leaves faster in some areas than others. Of course, north hillsides retain snow sometimes for several days longer than other slopes, due mainly to not being exposed to the sun, but on other exposures you will see long narrow rows of snow up and down the hill or several big areas covered with snow and all around this area the snow has left. Drifting, of course, in the hollows is the reason for the rows of snow up and down the hill. The large areas of snow are longer melting because they are eroded cold land and the air does not get to it as fast as where the snow is held up by vegetation. In other words, a heavy snow covers up man made mistakes, but when this cover begins to melt the larger mis- [illegible]

Clearing: Another observation is that more farmers are clearing old pastures from brush and briars. This reclaiming will not only beautify the county but will furnish more grazing as the grass takes root in these areas.

Mr. Thomas G. Fallce who has purchased the Barney Franks farm Walton, Ky., has requested a farm plan. Although this farm has been treated well during Mr. Franks [illegible] it has been abused and severely eroded previous to his ownership. Mr. Fallce is constructing two ponds, clearing several fields of stumps, and plans on rearranging fences so as to have permanent tobacco and corn fields. Mr. Fallce also will have several 1,000 feet of terraces and diversion ditches constructed this year. Several tons of lime and phosphate will be spread each year until the entire farm has been treated.

This Week's Thinker: No doubt it is a good thing for farms to change hands because it gives each new owner a goal to work for. It appears that each new owner makes plans for some immediate improvements. An exception to this is where someone buys a farm and tries to mine everything out of it; (1) maybe to pay for the farm, (2) or maybe just to cash into ready money.

REMEMBER -- when you could get a good plate lunch for a quarter?

JUST a few years before the war you could get a good plate lunch almost anywhere for a quarter. Today, through no fault of the cafe owners, the same lunch may cost you up to twice as much. And what is true of cafe meals is true of most other things you buy. Almost everything has gone up—almost everything except electricity.

As a result of greatly increased use coupled with sound business management, electricity has stayed down in cost while other prices have been going up. Electricity is one of a few things you buy that still sells for pre-war prices or lower. Although your monthly bill may not be less, due to the fact that you're using more electricity, the cost per unit of electric service was never cheaper than it is today!

Just Let Me Tell You A Few Facts About Walking, So You'll Realize Just How Much It Can Do For You

N. TULCH
Foot Comfort Specialist at—
PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE
PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE
814-816 Madison, Covington

The normal heart, you know, beats about seventy-two times a minute and pumps about six ounces of blood with each beat. Now, in fast walking, or at the rate of four miles an hour—(which is how fast you should walk to do you some good)—you'll find the normal heart will INCREASE its beat ten times to the minute, pumping six ounces of blood at each beat, gives sixty ounces per minute or 3600 an hour, which is 225 pounds. You can easily see that 225 ADDITIONAL pounds of blood pumped DAILY through your veins means just that much more life to your whole body.

There's no use of my telling you to get out and walk if you are having trouble with your feet, because I know you won't do it. BUT—if I tell you how to get rid of those aching, paining feet, first—then there's nothing to keep you from walking every day and benefitting your health by this wonderful exercise.

It has also been found that millions suffer without knowing the reason why—those headaches, those leg pains, and even sleepless nights may be caused by the shoes you are wearing.—Adv.

PASTURE VALUE SET OUT AT CONVENTION

The value of good pastures came in for much discussion at the annual Farm and Home Convention at Lexington. E. J. Nesius of the Experiment Station said well-planned pastures can increase net farm returns by reducing costs or increasing livestock production, or by both, and that pastures should be one of the most profitable crops in Kentucky.

He said that experiments have shown that an acre of good pasture would produce 3,000 pounds of milk or 300 pounds of beef, or would save 18 bushels of corn and 630 pounds of supplement in feeding hogs. Good pasture reduces by 20 percent the cost of feeding laying hens during the pasture season, he said.

Mr. Nesius' suggestions for more profit from pastures were:

1. Provide a uniform and plentiful supply in the spring, summer and fall. Provide as much as possible for the winter months. The crop rotations on the farm can be arranged to provide ⅔ to two-thirds of the pasture requirements while providing a harvested crop.

2. Use the pasturage produced. Pasture not used has little cash value. The livestock program should call for a little surplus pasture in normal or better years.

3. Fertilize pastures. Experiments have shown that $5.00 spent per acre on fertilization will increase returns two to four times.

4. Build the livestock program around the main livestock on the farm.

5. Keep the crop rotations flexible for adjustment in case of emergency.

USELESS ROOSTERS SAID TO BE COSTLY

Roosters kept after the hatching season and the excessive number of male birds kept during the breeding season cost Kentucky farmers $3,000,000 a year, according to C. E. Harris of the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture and Home Economics. This is the way he figures this loss:

There are about 650,000 hens in flocks which supply hatching eggs. They call for 42,000 to 45,000 roosters, and yet there are almost 1,000,000 male birds on Kentucky farms. Each rooster eats about 80 pounds of feed a year. At 3 cents a pound this would mean a loss of $2,400,000. Add at least $500,000 for losses caused by the spoilage of fertile eggs.

The only reason for keeping roosters is to fertilize eggs for hatching, says Harris. Only farmers producing hatching eggs are justified in keeping any roosters whatever, he adds. There is no other reason whatever for having male birds in the flock.

In the days when there were no incubators or commercial hatcheries, when farmers gathered eggs from their own flocks and hatched chicks under hens, roosters were necessary, Harris admitted. But now that most farmers buy chicks from commercial hatcheries, they have no excuse for feeding a lot of heavy-eating male birds.

"Many Kentucky farmers," said Harris, "have learned that it just isn't good business to throw away feed, and they have adopted the practice of selling all male birds. It is hoped that more farmers will join the parade and help to save the greatest loss resulting from keeping surplus males. May the slogan of Kentucky farmers be, 'Swat That Rooster Now.'"

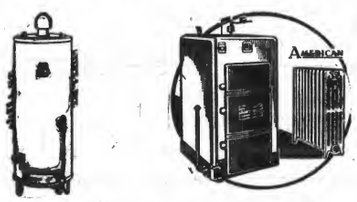
FARM, HOME MEETING ATTRACTS BIG CROWD

All but five counties were represented in the attendance at the 35th annual Farm and Home Convention at the University of Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station. Crowds were the largest in the history of this annual state meeting of farm men and women, and meeting places and other facilities of the University were overtaxed.

An incomplete registration showed an attendance of 2,075 at the farmers' sessions and 1,965 at the special sessions for homemakers.

Counties from which attendance was largest included Fayette, 410; Jefferson, 189; Greenup, 124; Harrison, 122; Pulaski, 118; Shelby, 114, and Nelson, 111.

CAKES ADD TO INCOME



Mrs. C. R. Brock of Harlan county, who averages about $100 per month in her home sewing, added more than $50 to her bank account in one month through the baking of fruit cakes. An active member of her homemakers club, Mrs. Brock also has helped the Louellan 4-H club to win top honors during the past two years, said Home Agent Roxie C. Perkins.

TRAVEL HAZARDS FAIL TO HALT CLUB LEADER

Despite a heavy rainfall preventing many homemakers club leaders from attending a training school in Leitchfield, Grayson county, Mrs. W. P. Robinson, mother of eight children, was present. Living 3½ miles from the hard road, and 15 miles from the county seat, she found it impossible to go by car. Undaunted, she rode horseback to the busline, only to find she had missed the bus. Thumbing a ride from a passerby, she arrived ta the training school in time to hear Miss Ida Hagman, University of Kentucky College of Agriculture and Home Economics, give new tricks in lightening kitchen work.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

THE GOOD SHEPHERD

LESSON TEXT—John 10:7-18.
MEMORY SELECTION—I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep.—John 10:11.

An open door! How inviting! Jesus had just been talking to the man once blind (John 9) who had been the temple door closed against him. It shut him out from all the sacred traditions of his people, but it turned him to Jesus, who presents himself in our lesson as "the door of the sheep."

I. The Door of the Sheep (vv. 7-10).

The preceding verses of chapter 10 are important, for they identify Jesus as the true Shepherd. He speaks of his people as his sheep.

Flocks were sometimes kept in the field at night, as was the case on the night when Jesus was born in Bethlehem. But ordinarily they were brought into a sheepfold, where many flocks gathered for protection. A shepherd was on guard at the door. Thieves would climb the wall to steal sheep, but the true shepherds, when they came in the morning to lead forth their flocks, entered by the door. They called out their own flock by name.

It is said that only sick sheep will follow a stranger, which may explain why so many false isms of our day appeal to the sick and lead them away from the Good Shepherd.

Do you know his blessed voice? Have you responded to his call? Will you follow him? Decide now.

Consider the beautiful figure of the shepherd as the door of the sheepfold. When the sheep enter the fold to rest, he is the door. When they are ready to go out to feed in green pastures again, he is the door.

Note that they go in and out. Belonging to Christ is not bondage. If any man enter in by Christ, the Door, he is free to go in and out, to find pasture, to live for and to serve him.

"The Door"—what a striking figure! It is a means of entry, the only way in. Every door has two sides and the side we are on determines whether we are inside or outside—saved or lost. Children often sing:

"One Door and only one,
And yet its sides are two—
Inside and outside;
On which side are you?"

Then repeating the two first lines comes the direct testimony and question,

"I am on the inside;
On which side are you?"

II. The Keeper of the Sheep (vv. 11-13).

We think of sheep as peacefully grazing on the hillside—an idyllic picture in the summer sunshine. But there were dangers to meet. It is so with Christ's sheep too, and then he is there to keep them. The wolves come out as the shadows gather. They come to kill and to scatter. Where then is the shepherd? If he is only a hireling, serving for what may "be in it" for him, he will flee.

How perfectly this pictures religious leaders, who, in spite of their swelling words and ingratiating manners, desert the flock in the hour of adversity. Fair-weather friends are they, who disappear when darkness and danger appear.

In the darkest hour Jesus is nearest at hand. He never fails. He has no fear, for has he not tasted the bitter death of Cavalry's tree for you and me? He is the Good Shepherd. He gave his life for the sheep. Those who have put their trust in him shall never be put to shame.

III. The Saviour of the Sheep (vv. 14-18).

He laid down his life for the sheep. Ah, yes, it is all too true that evil men laid wicked hands on him and crucified him. Their guilt is awful. But it is clear from Scripture that until the hour had come for Jesus to be made sin for the redemption of man, they could not touch him (see Luke 4:29, 30; John 8:59).

When the time came, Christ laid down his life in accord with "the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God" (Acts 2:23). He died for us, not as a martyr to a cause, or the victim of an accident or miscarriage of justice, but willingly, and for the glory of God.

Yes, he died for us, but he also died for every lost soul who will hear his voice. There are "other sheep" about whom the Lord is deeply concerned. Are we?

He "must bring" them—but remember, God works through yielded believers—through men and women. We ought to be eager instruments in his hands to reach these other sheep, whatever their race, creed, or condition.

Do not miss the note of unity in verse 16. "There shall be one fold." Sometimes one wonders as Christians fight one another how they will ever be brought into the unity of one fold. Only the Lord can do it—he "must bring" us together—but let us not contribute one iota to the confusion and division which must so [illegible] Father-heart.

HOMEMAKERS SPONSOR HEALTH, 4-H PROJECTS

Improvement of health conditions and sponsorship of 4-H clubs were two of the major objectives carried out by homemakers clubs during the past year, reported Mrs. J. B. Gulley, Lancaster, chairman of the citizenship committee of the Kentucky Federation of Homemakers. About 50 other projects also had a part in club programs.

In the North Blue Grass district, 125 clubs provided leaders for 4-H clubs, sponsored a youth center and planned entertainment for patients at the Veterans' Hospital.

Sponsorship of 4-H clubs was undertaken by 18 homemakers clubs in the South Blue Grass district. Another project was that of a public rest room in Lancaster, Garrard county—the result of civic cooperation. Homemakers club members made the plans and provided the furnishings; the fiscal court provided the room and fixtures, and the city council paid the salary of a full-time matron, supervised by the homemakers.

School lunches were a major project of 12 clubs in the North-Central district. In the South-Central district, 12 clubs assisted in health clinics, USO and hospital projects, and sponsored four youth recreation centers.

Chief interest of the Pennyroyal district has been the testing of wells and other water sources. Four hundred persons in 180 families now have hospitalization.

Homemakers in the Purchase district assisted in the tuberculosis mobile X-ray unit, and provided recreation programs for young people.

GO-TO-SUNDAY-SCHOOL DAY TO BE MAY 4TH

The Central Committee of the Kentucky Sunday School Association, at its recent meeting, designated Sunday, May 4, 1947, as GO-TO-SUNDAY-SCHOOL DAY in Kentucky. General promotion will begin at once.

This will be the thirty-third observance of the special Day inaugurated by the late Dr. George A. Joplin for the purpose of increasing the enrollment and attendance in the Sunday schools of Kentucky.

Sunday school leaders are urged to map out their general promotion plans at once, looking to an intensive drive during April.

The Kentucky Sunday School Association will again furnish advertising posters free of charge.

May 4th will also mark the opening of National Family Week in Kentucky and throughout the nation. The press, radio and other publicity channels will be used throughout that week to call attention to the importance of family life. Every church and community is invited to participate. Special literature is available from denominational boards, the International Council of Religious Education, Chicago, Ill., and the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, New York, N. Y.

LEXINGTON MAN RECEIVES FINE

FOR DRIVING CAR WHILE UNDER THE INFLUENCE OF ALCOHOL—TWO YOUTHS ALSO ARRESTED.

A Lexington man, giving his name as Bill Yates, age 55, was arrested Saturday night by Highway Patrolman, Robert Gordon on U. S. 25 after causing considerable disturbance.

He was arrested and brought to Burlington jail and appeared before Judge C. L. Cropper Monday morning, drawing a fine of $104.50 and his drivers license revoked for one year.

Two youths were arrested near Walton Saturday by Patrolman Bob Gordon for selling tools and parts from a car thought to be stolen. Upon investigation the car was found to be stolen property from Ohio. The youths were brought to Burlington jail and held until the F. B. I. could be notified and the case turned over to them.

They were removed from Boone County by the F. B. I. and their names were not given to local authorities. They were charged with transporting a stolen car from one state to another.

A Florence youth giving his name as Chas. Albert Durain, Jr., age 20 years was arrested Tuesday by Town Marshal Lee Shears and R. I. Rouse on a charge of breaking, entering and stealing.

He was brought before Judge C. L. Cropper late Tuesday and upon hearing the charges, he pleaded guilty to all charges. He stated that he had never been in any trouble before, but admitted that he entered the home of Ed Carpenter, Florence, and took several antiques and household articles valued at $1,000.00.

His bond was set at $3,000, but being unable procure bond, he was placed in Burlington jail until the April term of Boone Circuit Court.

The youth not only admitted the robbery, but all the stolen articles were found in his possession and have been returned to their owner according to authorities.

Burley Acreage Will Be Reduced For 1947

M. D. Royse, state director of the production and marketing administration, announced Tuesday a general reduction of 19.6 per cent in 1947 burley tobacco acreage allotments of over one acfe.

Royse said no general reduction would be made in allotments of nine-tenths acre or less.

Secretary of Agriculture Clinton P. Anderson proclaimed a 1947 burley marketing quota of 490,000,000 pounds. Purpose of the reduction is to bring production in line with demand, Royse said.

Growers voted last October to retain marketing quotas on the 1947, 1948 and 1949 crops.

HEBRON FIVE AND BURLINGTON WIN

OVER OPPONENTS IN FRIDAY NIGHT GAMES — FLORENCE SUFFERS UPSET AT HANDS OF HOLY CROSS.

Burlington High School's Eagle basketball team continued their winning ways last Friday night at the home floor when they won the third out of their last four efforts, defeating Warsaw by a 41-30 count. The Eagles, led by Kelly who scored 13 points and Scroggins with eight, took a ten to nothing lead in the first quarter and mantained a safe margin throughout. Bogardus, Warsaw forward, scored ten for the losers.

Warsaw's reserve team thoroughly trounced the local second by a 31-10 score.

Hebron, playing without the services of their star center Toadvine, defeated St. Henry's Crusaders on Friday night by a 43-31 count. Buckler and Bullock scored 25 of the winner's points, while Persutti and Roth had 23 for the losers. St. Henry's reserves won 32-25.

Holy Cross upset the Florence Knights at the former's gym in a rough and tumble affair by 45-21. Florence reserves won 33-23.

Games this week will be Warsaw at Hebron Friday, and Dry Ridge at Walton.

CHRISTIANS TO HOLD MEETING

IN COVINGTON FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 28 AT MADISON AVENUE CHRISTIAN CHURCH—EIGHT OTHERS IN STATE.

A meeting of extraordinary interest and importance to the Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) of this area will be held in the Madison Avenue Christian Church, Covington, Ky., Friday, February 28th. This assembly is one of eight being held in Kentucky, and one of sixty being held throughout the United States and Canada to impart information and inspiration for the "Crusade for a Christian World." The Crusade is the inclusive program of the Christian Churches for the period of September 1st, 1946-June 30, 1950. It originated with the International Convention of the Brotherhood and received its wholehearted approval. It includes specific goals for advance in evangelism, (90,000 new members, religious education (300,000 new pupils enrolled), Christian service (3,000 new recruits for the ministry and mission field) and stewardship. Diseases Menace Human Health

Livestock diseases are a menace to human health, according to Dr. Ross Brown, field Veterinarian from the College of Agriculture. Dr. Brown addressed seventy-five Boone County livestockmen at Burlington last Wednesday.

Mastitis, Bang's disease and T. B. are common diseases of livestock that may infect members of the farm family. Livestock diseases can and are being controlled. Greater benefit is secured where herds are kept free of diseases. Farmers need to know more about the diseases that infect their herds and ways in which they may be controlled or eliminated.

Extension leaflets 104 on Mastitis and 105 on Bang's disease control are available at the County Agent's office. Local veterinarians render valuable assistance in the identification and control practices of both Bang's and Mastitis.

All Clubs Represented At Homemakers Training Class

Representatives from fifteen homemakers clubs attended the slip cover training class last week in Burlington. Thirty-one leaders attended the all-day meeting conducted by Miss Vivian Curnutt, Home Furnishing Specialist, University of Kentucky.

The slip cover lesson will be given in local clubs in March, according to Mary Hood Gillaspie, Home Demonstration Agent.

JEAN EWBANK NAMED CHAMP

FOR OUTSTANDING 4-H WORK IN ANIMAL HUSBANDRY—WAS CHAMPION SHEEP EXHIBITOR LAST YEAR.

Miss Jean Ewbank, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ryle Ewbank, of Warsaw was named state 4-H champion for outstanding work in animal husbandry, according to an announcement made by the College of Agriculture, University of Kentucky.

Miss Ewbank, 19-year-old sophomore at University of Kentucky, is majoring in home economics. She was selected as champion exhibitor of sheep last fall in the district 4-H division, embracing nine northern Kentucky counties.

Jean's sister, Eloise, a freshman at the University, also was a prize winner in the district for her exhibits of clothing.

The Ewbank girls have been quite prominent in 4-H Club work for many years, and their awards in State and national contests are numerous.

The Ewbank family own a 584-acre farm outside Warsaw, and has raised sheep in Gallatin county since 1811.

HUNT URGES QUALITY CROP

FOR 1947—MARKET DEMANDS WILL REQUIRE HIGHER QUALITY LEAF—OUTLINES METHODS.

Russell Hunt, tobacco specialist from the College of Agriculture, urged tobacco growers to grow quality as well as quantity of tobacco per acre in 1947. Market demands for this year will require higher quality of leaf be produced.

Three things farmers can do this spring to insure a higher quality crop are:

1. Secure and use a liberal supply of a balanced fertilizer. Nitrogen will make the growth, phosphate will ripen the crop, but potash will affect the quality of the finished leaf. Muriate of potash used in excess of 60 pounds per acre is dangerous to the cured crop. It may be used up to the sixty pound limit but all potash above this amount should be of the sulphate of potash form.

2. Use a root-rot resistant variety. No farmer can tell whether or not root-rot will hit. Kentucky 16, 22, 44A or other numbered resistant varieties will all produce top quality crops.

3. Treat plant beds for leaf spot diseases and for Blue Mold. Every bed should be given the bluestone-lime treatment for the control of wildfire, angular leaf spot and other leaf spot diseases that affect both the beds and plants in the field.

Fermate is the best preventative treatment for Blue Mold. Spraying should start when the disease is first reported in Southern Kentucky or Tennessee and applied with a good sprayer twice each week or more often in rainy weather.

Housing, curing and shipping practices are to be discussed at a meeting planned for late summer.

Masons To Confer Degree

Work in the Fellowcraft degree is announced for tonight (Thursday), February 27, for Burlington Lodge No. 264, F. & A. M. All members urged to attend, and visitors from other lodges are invited.

Mrs. White, who was 72 years old, died Friday at her home. She was a native of Boone County, and had lived in Walton for the last 37 years. She was the widow of John C. White.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Georgia Stephenson and Miss Melva White, and a grandson, Donald Stephenson, all of Walton.

Chambers and Grubbs, Walton funeral directors were in charge of arrangements.

District Planning Meeting March 3rd

The North Blue Grass District of Homemakers will hold their planning meeting March 3rd. Mrs. Leo Flynn, Walton, District director, will preside at the meeting held in Lexington.

Each of the sixteen counties in the district will send their county president, any district officers and home agents. Definite plans will be made for the North Blue Grass District meeting to be held the last week in April, according to Mary Hood Gillaspie, Home Demonstration Agent.

WM. JOHNSTONE TO BE HERE WED.

WILL DISCUSS NEW PASTURE, HAY AND SOIL IMPROVEMENT CROPS WITH FARMERS OF BOONE COUNTY.

Wm. Johnstone, crops specialist from the College of Agriculture, will discuss new pasture, hay and soil improvement crops with farmers at Burlington Courthouse on Wednesday, March 5th at 1:00-3:00 p. m., according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent. All farmers are invited to attend.

Fescue 31 and Fescue 42, Ladino clover and other new crops that promise to have a marked effect on future cropping programs will be discussed. Johnstone is an authority on these crops. He will also discuss adapted hybrid corn varieties and fertilizer treatments that should pay farmers greatest returns in 1947.

Horton-Setters

Miss Goldie Horton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Horton, of Camp Ernst Road and Eugene Setters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Setters, of Burlington-Belleview Road were united in marriage at the Burlington Baptist Church last Saturday morning at 10 a. m. by Rev. R. A. Johnson in a double ring ceremony.

The bride wore light blue with pink and black accessories, and a corsage of pink roses. The groom was dressed in navy blue. Miss Thelma Setters and Jimmie Barton acted as attendants.

The bride is a graduate of Burlington high school, class of 1945 and attended Littleford-Nelson Business College, Cincinnati, and at present is employed by the Maritetta Chair and Furniture Co., Cincinnati.

The groom served with the U. S. Army approximately 4 years, and at present is employed in Cincinnati.

The Recorder joins their many friends in wishing them happiness through life together.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Feldhaus and daughter Pat and Jacqueline spent Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Hayes Feldhaus and Mrs. Daisy Presser.

IMPROVEMENTS ARE REVEALED

IN DAIRY HERDS THROUGHOUT NORTHERN KENTUCKY IN TOUR HELD TUESDAY OF LAST WEEK.

Local dairymen took part in the Northern Kentucky Dairy Herd Improvement Association tour of Campbell County herds on last Tuesday. The results of twenty-five years constructive breeding, plus the development of purebred herds started by former 4-H Calf Club members, was seen, according to the County Agent's office. This is the second of the county tours sponsored by the Northern Kentucky D. H. I. A., the first being held in Boone County last November, and the next to be held in Kenton County in April.

The Campbell county herds visited were the results of twenty-five years' operation of the Campbell County Holstein Bull Association and 4-H Purebred Dairy Calf project work. Excellent herds were seen as the results of these programs.

The Northern Kentucky Dairy Herd Improvement Association is composed of twenty dairymen in Boone, Kenton and Campbell counties who employ a full time tester and carry out a D. H. I. A. testing and breeding program.

DISTRICT TOURNEY

Basketball fans from all sections of the County are anxiously awaiting opening of the thirty-fifth district basketball tournament, which opens at the New Haven gym, Wednesday night, March 5th at 7:30 when Walton and New Haven reserves take the floor. The main event of the evening will be between the Florence Knights and Hebron.

Gatherings from the dope bucket appear to favor Hebron as the district champion, having won the conference for the season with no defeats. However, New Haven, Florence and Burlington teams have shown much improvement in the closing games, and the dope bucket could be upset. Burlington, trailing throughout the season has chalked up three victories in the last four starts, which proves that the team is greatly improved. Walton, said to be a tournament team, has always shown good form when the chips were down, and no doubt will be in there fighting for the championship this year.

Fans from all sections of the county will see some hard fought games on the New Haven floor during this tournament, and may the best team emerge with the honors.

TRUCK IS NEEDED

The Burlington Volunteer Fire Department is making plans to raise funds for the purchase of a new truck to replace truck No. 2, which is a relic of the '28's, long past its usefulness.

The firemen are contributing time and money in building a fire-fighting appartus for the protection of Burlington and vicinity, and are asking the cooperation of all citizens of this section in this new project.

From information received by the writer, the proposed new truck will carry a large supply of water, all necessary hose to reach from the fair grounds lake to practically every section in Burlington, and will greatly benefit the department in keeping fire loss to a minimum.

Let's all get behind the boys and help them and the community to have the best fire department in this section of the State. The cost will be held to a minimum.

CAPITOL COMMENTS

By David M. Porter

Politics, a word with so many meanings and so many interpretations in Kentucky—Webster's definition: "Of or pertaining to Civil Government, political, sagacious in promoting a policy; ingenious in statecraft; also, of measures, plans, etc., shrewdly contrixed, especially with regard to self-interest." That is Webster and this is Kentucky.

Last week Earl Clements officially announced his candidacy for Governor in the Democratic primary as predicted in this column. Earl, an alumnus of the University of Kentucky, a veteran of the first world war and present Congressman from the second district, officially stated that he was a candidate and that Tom Underwood, editor of the Lexington Herald, former president of the Kentucky Press Association and present secretary of the National Association of Racing Commissioners, was going to be his campaign manager. I like Earl and I like Tom, his dad was editor of my home-town paper when I was growing up. He taught me the first principles of journalism, the "Power of Truth," he also taught me volley-ball and the meaning of sportsmanship. He was not interested in power or wealth or the wielding of influence, but in the wielding of right as he saw it, and the suppression of evil as he interpreted it. I went to school under his aunt, Miss Sally Moss, the greatest teacher I have ever known. I also know Harry Lee Waterfield, Earl's opponent who is going to announce in the near future. I know and like Harry. I saw Harry and Henry Ward carry on the fight for TVA in the Kentucky House of Representatives, advocate the building of County Roads and better teachers pay. I know Harry is sincere.

These things complicate the situation for me and for a lot of voters in Kentucky. Is it going to be a campaign of Free Enterprise against Government monopoly as Earl's friends might say, or Power Trust against the TVA according to Harry's friends; and what part will the Jockey Club take and how will that affect the proposed tax on pari-mutuel betting? All of these questions will be discussed and debated over Kentucky this spring and summer, and the voters will decide and make their choice in August.

IN LOVING MEMORY

Of our beloved mother and grandmother, Bertha Lane, who passed away March 1, 1944.
Oft we think of you, dear mother,
And our hearts are said with pain;
Oh, this world would be heaven,
Could we hear your voice again.
You wore a crown of patience,
As you struggled on and on;
A faithful one, so kind and true,
Dear mother, how we long for you.

Three years have passed since that sad day,
Dear Bertha, the one I loved was called away;

But in my heart she liveth still.
And while you sleep in peaceful sleep
Dear Bertha, your memory I shall always keep.

A very interesting meeting of the Florence Homemakers was held at the hospitable home of Mrs. Geo. Morith of Burlington Road. There were 38 in attendance, including two children and several visitors.

A delicious covered dish luncheon was served at the noon hour, after which an interesting talk was presented by Mrs. Wesler on "The Vegetable Garden," touching on new varieties of vegetables, culture, fertilization, insect pests, insecticides and the control of black rot in sweet potatoes. She also spoke on poultry raising.

Another speaker of the afternoon was Mrs. Robt. Myers, who gave highlights of the Farm and Home Convention recently held in Lexington, and also touched on hat making.

The last number on the program was a Valentine party which was enjoyed by all present.

JESUS SUMS UP HIS CLAIMS

LESSON TEXT—John 12:12-16, 20-32.
MEMORY SELECTION—And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me.—John 12:32.

The last week of our Lord's ministry on earth comes before us today as we consider two events—one of which occurred on Sunday and the other on Tuesday. One sees here the attitude of men toward Christ, of God toward men, of the Father toward the Son, and the majestic drawing power of the Saviour.

I. Believing Men Honor Christ (vv. 12-16).

God says, "Him that offereth praise glorifieth me" (Ps. 50:23), and the believer recognizes that "praise is comely for the upright" (Ps. 33:1). Jesus is entirely worthy of the praise of every heart and voice.

Presenting himself as their Messiah, Jesus received the enthusiastic acclaim of his disciples and friends, who were probably joined by others drawn by the excitement.

The Pharisees did not join in (see Luke 19:39, 40), nor did the city, not even knowing who he was (Matt. 21:10, 11). So it is today; some love and praise him, some hate him, others just ignore him. Of which class are you?

He gave Jerusalem and the nation a final opportunity to receive him. It was not yet too late, but it was their last chance. Such a time comes in the life of every one of us. They rejected him. Do we?

But even though some did reject, let us not forget that there were those who shouted, "Hosanna"; who cast their garments down before him and waved palms of victory and joy. Thank God for their holy enthusiasm. Pray God that we may have a little more of it.

II. God Honors Men Who Serve Christ (vv. 20-26).

It is good to note that whatever prompted the coming of the Greeks, they wanted to see Jesus.

A man has progressed far on the road to blessing when he makes known his desire to see Jesus. Coming to him means coming to the One who has the words of eternal life.

Note that the disciples were wise enough to bring the men to Jesus. The true function of every Christian worker is to bring men to him.

The reply of our Lord to the Greeks, and to the disciples who brought them to him, seems a bit singular at first glance. Did he not wish to receive them? They had probably come to see the great religious leader, the King of the Jews—why did he talk about death?

The words of our Lord are clear. Men do not need an example, a leader, a teacher; they need a Saviour. It is as a sacrifice for sin that Christ will draw all men unto himself.

III. The Father Glorifies the Son (vv. 27-30).

The awful blackness of the burden of the world's sins which he was to bear pressed down upon our Lord in an agony of soul beyond our ability to understand. But even his troubled soul did not turn from the hour of death for us.

The question of verse 27 is essentially this: "Should I ask the Father to deliver me from this hour? No, I came to be man's Saviour." He did not look away, nor wish to turn back. He knew why he had come, and he was faithful even to death (Phil. 2:8; Heb. 2:9).

He had only one desire—that the name of God the Father should be glorified (v. 28). Do we who bear his holy name follow in his footsteps? Do we have an eye single to his glory—or do we seek our own?

Then came the voice from heaven; the Father had glorified his own name in the Son, and would do it again—yes, again and again.

Jesus knew the Father would do it, he did not need any assurance (v. 30), but for the sake of the people the witness was given. Notice the reaction of the listeners—some recognized that a heavenly message had been given; others had only heard some thunder.

May God give us grace to hear his voice when he speaks, and not consider it merely the rolling of some deep voice of thunder!

IV. The Son Draws All Men to Himself (vv. 31, 32).

Because Christ was lifted up on the cross and died, there is victory over sin and death, declared by his resurrection and ascension to the Father.

Satan is still at liberty in the world, but he is defeated (John 16: 11). Death still comes, but the sting is gone for the Christian (I Cor. 15: 55-57). The world is still fighting our Lord, but he is drawing men to himself here and there throughout the world.

One day he will come as King of kings and Lord of lords, to declare in its finality the victory which has already been won.

We should be reminded anew that it is Christ the Saviour who will draw men if we will only exalt him in our preaching and teaching. Let us do it!

Yelton-Brown

A wedding of unrivaled beauty in its simplicity was when Miss Frances Ruth Yelton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Yelton, of Florence became the bride of Mr. Donald J. Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Brown, Sr., of Erlanger.

Rev. W. E. Garriott, pastor of the Erlanger Methodist Church officiated at the double ring ceremony at the home of the bride's parents at 7:30 Friday evening, February 21. Only the immediate family was present.

An improvised altar at one end of the living room was covered with white linen and beautifully decorated with green foliage. Two six candlelabra, one at each side of the altar, and a number of single tapers throughout the house was the only lighting used for this solemn occasion.

The bride chose her sister, Mrs. John H. Pierce (Betty Yelton) as matron of honor, Miss Jean Carpenter was bridesmaid.

The groom chose for his best man, his brother, Mr. Clayton Brown Jr. Mr. John H. Pierce, brother-in-law of the bride, was groomsman. Mr. Orville Conrad was usher.

Mrs. Orville Conrad, organist, presented several selections of appropriate nuptial music.

At the first peals of Lohengrin Wedding March the wedding party entered. The bride was never lovelier than when she descended the stairs in her gown of white satin and lace, styled with a sweetheart neckline, fitted bodice and long sleeves. The full skirt, inserted with wide rows of lace, ended in a long train. She wore a fingertip veil held in place by a white crown adorned with white sequins. The bride's only jewelry was a strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. Her flowers were a bouquet of white bridal roses and baby breath, centered with a single purple throated orchid and tied with white satin ribbon.

The bride's attendants wore gowns of identical design, differing only in color. They were styled with a sweetheart neckline, tiny puffed sleeves and a fitted taffeta bodice tying in the back with a tiny bow. The full skirts were net over taffeta.

Mrs. Pierce's gown was pink and she carried a bouquet of pink roses and baby breath, tied with pink satin ribbon. Her head adornment was a halo of pink flowers. Miss Carpenter wore blue and carried a bouquet of deep red roses and baby breath, tied with blue satin ribbon. Her head adornment was like that of the matron of honor, only in blue.

The bride's mother wore a dress of aqua crepe with black accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

The groom's mother wore a blue crepe dress with black accessories. She also wore a corsage of white carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held for seventy-five guests at the spacious home of the bridegroom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Stephenson.

For her going away attire, Mrs. Brown chose a light blue dressmaker's suit with a matching blue hat, grey topcoat and black accessories. She wore a purple orchid corsage.

After their wedding trip to Colfax, Illinois and Chicago, the happy young couple will reside temporarily with the bridegroom's parents.

Robert Cornell of Bullitt county sold 28 head of grade Holstein dairy cows at an average price of $318 per head.

Corn production in Rockcastle and southern Madison counties in 1946 was 25 percent greater than in any previous year.

We hope to get private orders from the north by fall, but can take care of a few now. The freeze did a lot of damage but we're getting fruit from a grove on Merritt Island, where fruit is safe. This Indian River fruit is the best in Florida."

Utopians Test Soil At Meeting February 20

A soils testing demonstration was held by Irvin Overall, Assistant County Agent, for the benefit of the Utopians, Thursday night, February 20th.

Sterling Dickey provided the soils samples and aided in the tests. Mr. Dickey obtained samples of soil from his yard, garden and orchard.

The results of the tests clearly indicate the value of plant and animal residue as a source of land building and maintaining materials. Garden soils, which benefitted from heavy applications of manure and plant residue tested much higher in potash and phosphates than did the other soils.

A discussion which followed these tests brought out the advantages of livestock farming when care is taken of all livestock manure, the use of green manure crops in obtaining available nutrients, and the value which can be obtained by careful use of plant residues, tobacco stalks in particular.

REMEMBER--when you could buy a good white broadcloth shirt for $1.95?

BACK in 1939 you could buy a good white broadcloth shirt from almost any men's furnishings shop for $1.95. Today for a shirt of the same quality you pay approximately twice as much. And what is true of men's shirts is true of most other things you buy. Almost everything has gone up—almost everything except electricity.

As a result of greatly increased use coupled with sound business management, electricity has stayed down in cost while other prices have been going up. Electricity is one of the few things you buy that still sells for pre-war prices or lower. Although your monthly bill may not be less, due to the fact that you're using more electricity, the cost per unit of electric service was never cheaper than it is today.

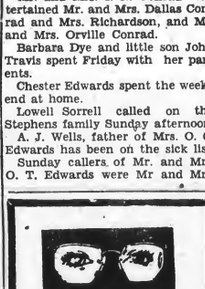
Why Suffer With Your Feet?



N. TULCH
Foot Comfort Specialist at—
PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE
PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE
814-816 Madison, Covington

Our years of research have proven that foot comfort depends on foot balance.

For years men have been guessing about foot balance putting steel supports under feet and elastic bands around feet, all sizes and shapes corn pads, plasters, callous plasters, etc. Yet people continue to suffer with their feet, legs, back and with various other aches and pains, resulting from feet in numerous cases because they never had their body weight properly balanced on their feet with shoes.

Your feet may look regular to you, but, naturally you cannot detect weakness or have any way of testing for unbalance. But remember: "fat on the ribs" is by no means an adequate criterion of physical well being.

Don't take chances. If you are suffering with leg pains, knee pains, stiffness, backaches or severe headaches, or sleep poorly and are always tired, your feet may be the cause.—Adv.

FLORENCE METHODIST CHURCH
O. W. Robinson, Minister

Church School 10:00 a. m. Carroll A. Washburn, Supt.

Morning worship service 11:00. Dr. Paul Muncy of Ft. Mitchell will deliver the address at this hour. The church is observing this service as Laymen's Day service. Dr. Muncy is an engaging speaker and will deliver a good address. This is Stewardship year in the annals of the church and the forwarding of this particular phase of the church work is being done by the layman of the church.

Dr. Robinson, the pastor will deliver the third sermon on a series to the young people. The theme will be "Mixed Marriages." Great stress is being placed by some on this debated subject. What do the protestants think about it? If you are interested hear this message.

America has become great because we had a great heritage that has been handed down to us by our Christian, Democratic forefathers. We believe in freedom of thought, actions and deeds.

RED CROSS DRIVE WELL UNDER WAY

PLANS MADE TO COMPLETE DRIVE IN TWO WEEKS—MOST OF MONEY COLLECTED TO REMAIN IN COUNTY.

Boone County's annual Red Cross drive got a good start Saturday, March 1, despite the snow which greeted the corps of workers. Mrs. Alene Conner of Walton and Sheriff Irvin Rouse of Burlington, completed their plans on Friday and it is hoped that the drive can be completed in two weeks.

Miss Abbie Brent, General Field Representative of Alexandria Virginia was in the county and conferred with Mr. W. R. Davis, Boone County Chairman. Miss Brent outlined the duties of the Red Cross to the nation, its benefits being as follows:

1. Services to the men in the armed forces.
2. Service to the veterans.
3. Community services.

Since most of the money derived county it is interesting to note the county it is interesting to note the wide coverage of assistance given to the people. The top performance is given by the county nurse to the school child. Epidemics threaten but are soon stopped by her prompt attention. School lunch rooms have improved 100 percent under the supervision of the nurse and the aid given by the government financing. Another great improvement is the care given to tuberculosis patients. Hospitalization is needed in most cases and through her efforts the patients are taken to the hospital. The county treasury pays for the board and treatment.

Going back to the nation as a whole, the Red Cross is vitally interested in the 80,000 patients in the veterans hospitals. The field directors help he boys with their claims, obtain medical evidence, affidavits, clear martial record and follow through with each case. The trust and respect felt for the Red Cross is demonstrated by the veteran when he gives the Red Cross power of attorney of his case at point of separation or discharge.

Each county chapter has the Home Service where assistance is given the veterans for filing claims, obtaining evidence, giving financial asistance and cancelling referrals to the proper agency. The peak load of veterans claims will not be reached until 1955 for World War I and not until 1975 for World War II. The Mother of the World is still a good slogan for the friend to man, The American Red Cross.

ENFORCEMENT OF NEW TRUCK LAW

WILL BE INAUGUARATED MARCH 7 — INFORMATIVE MATERIAL ON NEW LAW WIDELY DISTRIBUTED.

Rigid enforcement of the new truck weights and measures law will be inaugurated on March 7, Colonel Hayward Gilliam, Director of the Kentucky Highway Patrol said. The law which became effective January 1, provides increases in weights on certain designated highways approved by the Commissioner of Highways. The war-time limit prescribed 28,000 pounds, while, under the new law, the limit is 42,000 pounds.

"Informative material on the new law has been widely distributed and there can be no valid excuse for failure to observe its provisions," Colonel Gilliam said. "Truck operators must recognize their responsibility in connection with the law relative to using only highways designed for the heavier weights. Instructions have been forwarded to the twelve highway patrol districts to start making arrests in March. Adequate time has been allowed truck operators to familiarize themselves with the liberal provisions of this new legislation.

State highways in Kentucky have been divided into three weight classes. A limit of 42,000 pounds has been established for Class A roads; 30,000 pounds for Class B roads and all other state roads are limited to 18,000 pounds. Weight applies to both the truck and its gross load. Very few truck have complied with the law relative to posting weights on the cab door, it was pointed out. The truck operator is required to have painted in distinctive lettering not less than 3 inches high the weight for which weight tax has been paid. He must have his truck properly licensed and the driver must have his operators license. Rigid enforcement of all the provisions of the law may be expected.

RESTRAINING ORDER ISSUED

BY BOONE CIRCUIT COURT TO PREVENT KENTON COUNTY POLICE FROM MOLESTING DIXIE TRACTION DRIVERS.

Boone Circuit Court issued a temporary restraining order, preventing Kenton County, Kentucky, police from molesting drivers for the Dixie Traction Co., as they pick up and discharge passengers at the new airport in Boone County. The order was served on Kenton County police Saturday afternoon.

This action was a result of limiting of unloading, loading and parking facilities and arrest of Dixie Traction drivers for alleged violations of the restrictions which were being enforced by Kenton County police.

The controversy resulted when the airport board sought a fee of 10 cents a passenger from the Dixie Traction Co., which operates a limosine service between the airport and Cincinnati. Efforts to settle the matter amicably failed last week, although a compromise placing the fees on a percentage basis was offered.

Friday midnight, was set by the airport board as the dead line for the controversy to be settled or for the traction company to be denied the use of field facilities. At midnight Friday, action was rapid. Promptly at 12:01 Saturday morning Police Chief Mershon with a crew of men ordered the traction company to vacate the office it occupied in the Administration Building and then moved the furniture from it.

Parking regulations which denied the traction company parking privileges at the curb alongside the building near the entrance were put into effect.

James Milliken, attorney, representing the Dixie Traction Co., appeared in Boone Circuit Court, at Burlington Saturday afternoon and obtained the restraining order which was signed by A. D. Yelton, Circuit Court Clerk, in the absence of Circuit Court Judge Ward Yager.

Sheriff Irvin Rouse, of Boone County served the restraining order papers on Kenton County Patrolmen.

PHILLIPS TO ASSIST LOCAL TAXPAYERS

IN FILING STATE INCOME TAX RETURNS—WILL BE IN BURLINGTON MARCH 10TH AND 11TH.

In order to afford assistance to individuals who are required to file state income tax returns before the April 15th deadline the Kentucky Department of Revenue has arranged to have field representatives located in all sections of the state. In addition to representatives who are available at the Frankfort, Louisville, Lexington, Covington and Paducah offices throughout the year and at temporary offices in Ashland, Owensboro and Henderson from April 1-15, other field representatives have been assigned to various locations in other parts of the state. Mr. Richard W. Phillips will be in Burlington on March 10th and 11th and will be located at the Boone County Court House where his services will be available to taxpayers in the preparation of their returns. Taxpayers are urged to take advantage of this opportunity to avoid becoming delinquent and subjected to heavy penalties applicable to late filing.

The Kentucky law provides that residents of Kentucky shall report their entire income, regardless of the source, if they come within the statutory requirements with respect to gross or net income. Likewise nonresidents are required to file, reporting all income from personal services performed within the state and from property and other sources herein.

Single individuals (including those who qualify as head of family) must file if their gross income amounts to $1500.00 or more or they have a net income of $1000.00 or more. Married individuals must file if their combined gross income is $3,000.00 or more or if they have a combined net income of $2500.00 or more. However, married individuals, if they so elect, may file separate returns.

The Kentucky law was amended at the 1946 session of the Legislature so as to permit the filing of a simplified return. Thus, for example, an individual who had income only from salary or wages and had other income from dividends and interest which did not exceed $100.00 would need to know only the amounts of such income and the amounts of federal income taxes paid by him during the year 1946. Such income is added, together, the federal tax is deducted and tax is found in the optional tax table printed on the face of the return. Against the tax so found the law provides for the deduction of tax credits for personal exemption and for dependents. The resulting figure represents the tax payable. It is expected that approximately 75 percent of the taxpayers will avail themselves of the simplified method of filing for the reason that they need not itemise allowable deductions and the tax normally will work out to their advantage. However, if their deductions amount to more than approximately 10 percent of the taxable income such deductions may be itemized and the tax actually computed at the prescribed rates.

Attention is called to the fact that it will expedite the filing of returns if taxpayers will submit a copy of their 1946 federal return to the field representative when such assistance is sought.

'CORN DERBY' TO BE RENEWED THIS YEAR

A statement from the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture and Home Economics says the "Kentucky corn derby" will be held on a county and state basis this season. The principal purpose of the contest, it is stated is to promote reduction of corn on land unsuited to row crops and to teach how high yields can be made on level land or on sloping land where erosion is controlled.

In addition to awards in the five-acre and one-acre divisions, added features this year include special awards for high yields on sloping land cultivated on the contour and on bottom land that has been tile trained. Buttons will be given all farmers producing 100 bushels or more to the acre. There also will be an ear corn contest.

State and government agencies, the Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation, the Kentucky Seed Dealers Association, fertilizer companies, local civic clubs and banks and other organizations are furnishing cash awards and otherwise cooperating in both county and state divisions. PRIZES OFFERED TO CHAMPION 4-H CLUBS

The Kentucky Utilities Company will offer awards again this year to champion 4-H clubs in each of 72 counties which it serves, and the Kentucky-West Virginia Power Company will make awards in 18 Eastern Kentucky counties where it operates, it is announced from the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture and Home Economics. Awards also will be made in eight districts, and to over-all champion clubs in three districts in Eastern Kentucky and in five districts in the Kentucky Utilities Company territory.

NITROGEN INCREASES BLUEGRASS SEED YIELD

Spring application of nitrogen tripled bluegrass seed yields in tests made by the University of Kentucky Experiment Station in central counties in the Bluegrass region last year. Where 125 pounds of ammonium nitrate were spread to the acre, seed production averaged 44.6 pounds, compared to 13.5 pounds where no nitrogen was used.

Applying nitrogen in the fall brought only 21.3 poumds of seed to the acre. Nitrogen applied in the spring also increased the amount of early grazing, and probably added to the value of the pasture after the seed was stripped.

Applications of potash and phosphate brought little increase in seed yields on typical Central Kentucky bluegrass soils.

PIGS LIKE CAFETERIAS

The Kentucky College of Agriculture and Home Economics says "pigs can balance their own ration when allowed a choice of various feeds better than any man can balance it for them. Also there are fewer runs among self-fed pigs because each pig has a better chance to get a full share of feed. Self-fed pigs usually gain faster and require less feed for 100 pounds of gain than hand-fed pigs."

REMEMBER—when you could buy a pound of creamery butter for *27¢?

BACK in 1939 you could walk into almost any grocery store and buy a pound of creamery butter for 27c. Today, for a pound of butter of similar quality, the cost is between two and three times as much. And what is true of creamery butter is true of many other things you buy. Almost everything has gone up—almost everything except electricity.

As a result of greatly increased use coupled with sound business management, electricity has stayed down in cost while other prices have been going up. Electricity is one of the few things you buy that still sells for pre-war prices or lower. Although your monthly bill may not be less, due to the fact that you're using more electricity, the cost per unit of electric service was never cheaper than it is today.

HUNT TELLS HOW TO MANAGE PLANT BEDS

Provide 35 to 75 feet of bed 12 feet wide for each acre of burley tobacco and at least 20 feet of bed 12 feet wide for each acre of dark tobacco, states Russell Hunt of the UK College of Agriculture and Home Economics in a leaflet dealing with tobacco plant-bed management. Other suggestions:

Select fertile, well-drained land for the bed, preferably with a slight southern or eastern slope, free from shade, especially in the forenoon. This helps prevent blue mold. Using a new site each year also helps prevent disease.

Before steaming or burning prepare seed bed well, so only light stirring will be needed before sowing. Deep stirring may bring weeds.

Fertilize a steamed bed with complete fertilizer at the rate of 40 pounds for each 100 feet of bed 12 feet wide and rake in lightly. A low-potash fertilizer such as 4-12-0 is preferable for a heavily burned bed.

Sow two to three level teaspoons of cleaned and tested seed to 100 feet of bed. To distribute seed evenly, mix it with screened wood ashes, fine sand or commercial fertilizer. Going over bed several times, sowing part of the seed each time, assures even distribution.

Box the bed tight, using one-by-six-inch boards. Use a good grade of tobacco cotton. Draw it over the top of the boxing boards and fasten to the sides of the boards. This will keep out flea beetles and cutworms and the tobacco cotton will last longer.

SAYS LAMBS SHOULD HAVE GRAIN AND HAY

While milk is the best feed for young lambs, they also should be fed grain and good hay until there is plenty of grass, says Richard C. Miller in UK College of Agriculture circular "Lambing Time." Creeps provide the best way to feed grain to lambs while they are running with the ewes.

"Lambs usually begin to eat grain by the time they are two weeks old," states Miller. "A mixture of equal parts of corn, oats and bran, or 2 parts of corn, 2 parts of oats, 1 part of bran and 1 part of linseed oilmeal may be used as a starter. The proportion of corn in the ration should be gradually increased.

"After the lambs are six weeks old, 6 parts of corn and 1 part of protein concentrate such as cottonseed meal or linseed oilmeal may be used, or corn alone will give good results. The grain should be ground or crushed until the lambs are about six weeks old, after which whole grain should be used. Troughs should be kept clean and the lambs fed only what they will clean up.

"Lambs make their fastest gains while young, before the coming of hot weather and stomach worms. Under Kentucky conditions, it pays to push them as rapidly as possible from birth until they are ready for market. Lambs handled in this way should reach a marketable weight of 80 to 85 pounds in 100 to 120 days."

HOMEMAKERS PRAISE NEW-FANGLED TABLE

Light-weight but sturdy home-made tables on casters, made the correct height to pull over a housewife's lap when she sits working, are praised by Grayson county homemakers, who learned to make this household aid in their club work through the cooperation of their home agent, Miss Priscilla Lytle.

Mrs. Henderson Beeler demonstrated to her club how she used her lap table to save time and energy when she cut up butchered meat for caning. Other homemakers have found that the weekly ironing can be done more quickly and with less effort when it is done on the lap table.

AN EDITORIAL

Since its organization, the Burlington Volunteer Fire Department has felt the urgent need of a community social and fellowship hour, giving all the residents of our community an opportunity to come together, shake hands and get acquainted with your neighbors and friends, with emphasis being placed on all new comers to our community

We are all living in a small rural community, the way that God intended mankind should dwell, and in order to achieve complete happiness and better living conditions, we must come together, know and be interested in the welfare of our neighbor.

The fire department, thru its thirty-six active members, is attempting just such a movement in its "Know Your Neighbor Night" at the Burlington school auditorium on Saturday night, March 15th at 7:45 p. m.

This program has a two-fold purpose: (1) It will make an all-out effort to bring our people closer together; (2) it will present the activities and progress of your fire department and outline the urgent need for a new truck to carry equipment which has already been purchased. The department at present is depending on an old worn out 1928 model truck to protect your home and property from fire. This truck was purchased during the war when it was the only thing available at that time. This machine carries a very essential part of our fire fighting equipment, and is now rapidly reaching a point where it is inadequate to do the job it must perform if you desire first class fire protection.

The goal of this meeting will be to raise sufficient funds to buy a new truck large enough to carry all equipment to your home in event it is needed. The truck will be purchased at wholesale price and the firemen will donate their time in building the body and making the truck ready for service. From all indications the people are more than interested in making this improvement and with the help of everyone in our community, the cost will be relatively small for everyone.

If you do not feel that you can give any money to the cause, the firemen want your presence at this meeting as your presence will indicate your interest in the community as a whole and they assure you a pleasant evening of entertainment.

The cause is good—the purpose is urgent! Won't you make a special effort to attend?

—The Editor.

FEED STORE RAZED BY FIRE TUESDAY

BUILDING AND CONTENTS ARE COMPLETELY DESTROYED IN HEBRON FIRE—LOSS ESTIMATED AT $5,000.

The Roberts Feed Store, located near Hebron was completely destroyed by fire Tuesday morning. It was believed that the fire started from a fuel oil burner in the office of the building.

The plant operated by Sam and Bernam Roberts was located just west of Hebron. Sam Roberts one of the owners was working on the second floor of the building when the fire was discovered. He barely escaped.

The Hebron Volunteer Fire Department was summoned, but the fire had gained such headway it was impossible to save the structure. Firemen however, were able to prevent flames from spreading to adjoining buildings.

CONSERVATION CONVERSATION

By J. C. Acree

S. C. Saunders, who now owns the R. B. Huey farm, has one of the cleanest farms in the county. He is not satisfied, however, so he has two bulldozers clearing a field of undesirable trees and is leveling up eroded areas and filling up an old pond that was built on a ridge. After these fields are shaped up, they will be terraced, cropped for a year or so, limed and phosphated and then seeded to grass.

Mr. Saunders will have eight springs developed this summer with a concrete trough below the spring for stock to drink from.

When buying a farm we figure it at so many dollars per acre. Then it appears to be good business if we pay $10,000 for a 100-acre farm to get each acre in production. If 50 acres of this 100 is productive it is good business to invest a little more and get the other 50 in production.

Many requests have come in for assistance in laying out contour lines, spring development work, and assistance in reclaiming fields.

On Friday, March 14th, the supervisors from Boone, Kenton, Campbell, Grant, Gallatin, Owen and Bracken counties will meet at Burlington to discuss soil conservation problems. Mr. M. V. Qualls, Division of Soil and Water Resources, Department of Conservation, Frankfort, Ky., will be present to discuss with the group the purchasing of equipment. The meeting is called at 1:30 p. m. Anyone interested in this work is invited to attend.

Fish: Farmers have been warned to cut holes in the ice so fish will be able to get air. It seems as long as the ice is clear and without snow on it that there is but little danger of the fish dying. However, the extra blanket of snow prevents the sun's rays from going through the ice and prevents oxidation.

It is really pleasing the way farmers are cleaning their fence rows. Some folks have commented that more fence rows are cleared to date this year than they can remember for any previous year.

Today's Thinker: Did you ever see a permanently prosperous town in a land of poor soil, small crops and poor farmers? Then it is to the interest of businessmen as well as farmers to conserve our soil resources.

Florence Minister Attending Meeting At Nashville, Tenn.

Dr. O. W. Robinson, pastor of Florence Methodist Church is attending the Convocation of the Southeastern jurisdiction of the Methodist Church, being held this week at Nashville, Tenn. This jurisdiction of the church embraces 17 states and Cuba.

Among the speakers at this great meeting will be John R. Mott, Bishop Paul Garber, Geneva Switzerland; Bishop Costen Harrell, of Birmingham, Ala.; Bishop Arthur J. Moore, of Atlanta; Bishop Ralph Magee, of St. Paul, Minn., and many other outstanding religious leaders.

The main purpose of the meeting is to give those attending a view of the present world conditions. It is most heartening to know that the great denominations are forming closer working agreements, so that the gospel of Christ may become the stabalizing element in the midst of so much indecision.

Dr. Robinson will deliver a message next Sunday morning on this meeting.

Bruce Ryle of the East Bend neighborhood was a pleasant caller at this office Monday. While here he had his subscription moved up another year.

HEBRON P.-T. A.

Regular meeting of Hebron P. T. A. will be Tuesday, March 11th. "Safety" is the topic. Movies on the subject will be shown. The fifth grade won the acquarium last time. Who will get it this time for most parents and friends present?

Hobby Fairs Open To All Boone Countians

Boone County Homemakers are sponsoring something new this year—a hobby fair, open to all. To make it easier for everyone to participate there will be several places where hobbies may be shown. These are: the Town Hall, at Florence, Lutheran Church at Hebron, school house at Constance, Petersburg and Verona, the bank at Walton, Mason's Hall at Union and at Burlington the grand jury room.

What are hobbies? We know a man who is going to exhibit an oil painting; a woman who will show her miniature hats; another woman will show a doll forty years old. Old glass, stamp collections, scrap books, handmade rugs, weaving embroidery, quilts, wood carvings are some of the hobbies to be shown.

What is your hobby? Let us see it. These fairs are open to all the community, not just Homemakers. If you are not sure what is a hobby ask Miss Mary Hood Gillaspie, H. D. A. or Mrs. V. G. Young program chairman or Mrs. Clyde Arnold, county president.

DATE OF PLAY CHANGED

"A Readymade Family," Florence P.-T. A. play scheduled for Friday, March 14th at the Florence school auditorium has been postponed to Friday, March 21, it was announced this week. The public is cordially invited to attend.

UTOPIA NOTES

Every member of the Boone County Utopia Club is urged to be present at the meeting on March 20th. This is the last meeting that Mr. Forkner will be with us, so let's don't let him down. He didn't let us down in the twenty-two years he spent with us.

Mary Rector, Reporter.

Boys and Girls FLY YOUR KITES Safely

Away from Electric Lines!

Kite flying is great fun but danger lurks when kites are flown near electric lines. Many a child has lost his life using wire for a kite string or climbing a pole to get a tangled kite. Play safe by following these rules:

1. Use only dry, cotton string to fly your kite.
2. Do not use metal kite sticks.
3. Do not climb a pole to get a tangled kite.
4. Fly your kite only in open fields away from power lines or busy highways.

If your kite becomes entangled in electric wires, don't risk injury by trying to get it down yourself. Call our office and we'll send a man to remove it for you safely.

AUTOMATIC WATER SYSTEMS

Shown above is the popular Model VS-50 Shallow Well Stay Prime Water System.
EASILY INSTALLED — because two suction openings are provided in different positions. Either may be used to suit the installation.
SIMPLE IN DESIGN — because there are no complicated parts. Model VS-50 is a centrifugal pump with built-in removable jet. The impeller is the only moving part.
CHEAP TO OPERATE — because the impeller is smoothly machined and carefully balanced for highest efficiency. Silence and freedom from vibration mean a long and trouble-free life. AND IT STAYS PRIMED.
A wide variety of centrifugal pumps are now available for farm, home and industry. Ask for information and literature.

Boone County Girl Graduates From KFOS

Miss Frances Kirkpatrick, Hebron was among those graduating from the K. F. O. S., Midway, Ky., in graduation services held in Offutt Chapel, Sunday, March 16th, 2:30 p. m.

Prof. G. C. Banks, of Morehead State Teachers College was the principal speaker.

Fruit Prospects Good For Year 1947

Fruit prospects at present are the best in years, according to reports received by growers at the meetings held in the county last Tuesday. The meetings were held at the County Agent's office in the morning and at the orchard of C. L. Hempfling near Taylorsport in the afternoon. W. D. Armstrong, Horticulturist, led the discussions in absence of W. W. Magill, who was sick.

The cold February has delayed tree and bud development which is considered by growers as desirable. Late development usually means later blooming period and less damage from late freezes.

The fruit crop, however, can easily be affected by slight changes in the weather. It is hoped that the present prospects for a good crop will continue.

Growers Assist Insectory Program

Boone County fruit growers will assist in collecting information for the 1947 Northern Kentucky Insectory News Service and field meeting, according to the County Agent's office. Growers in Boone, Kenton and Campbell county will cooperate with the State Horticultural Committee in this work.

Sterling Rouse and Dr. W. L. Schell will supply weekly weather, scab and codling moth development reports to the College of Agriculture. C. Liston Hempfling will jar for peach Curculio during the season and submit reports. The college will analyze these, and other reports, and supply growers with timely disease and insect control recommendations.

Field meetings at leading orchards will be held on April 30th, June 18th and August 6th. Results of spray materials and orchard practices will be studied at these meetings.

Mrs. Lottie N. Price

Mrs. Lottie Noe Price, a resident of Boone County for the last 20 years, died early Saturday at her home in Petersburg after a long illness. She was 76 years old.

Mrs. Price is survived by a son, Gerald, of Connersville, Ind.; three brothers, Thomas Merrill, Lancaster, Ky.; George Merrill, Petersburg and Brack Merrill, Burlington; a sister, Mrs. Lucy Bowlin, Petersburg and four grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. Monday at the Petersburg Baptist Church, with burial in the Petersburg Cemetery.

Arrangements were in charge of Chambers & Grubbs, Florence funeral directors.

Miss Estella Bemis

Funeral services for Miss Estella Bemis, 58, of Francisville, were held at the Catherman funeral home, Ludlow, at 2 p. m. Saturday. Burial was in the Francisville Cemetery.

Miss Bemis died Wednesday at her home. She leaves a sister, Mrs. Julia Blaker and a brother Ed Bemis, both of Francisville.

NEW LEGISLATION TO BE NECESSERY

FOR CONTINUANCE OF PRICE SUPPORT PROGRAM FOR BURLEY TOBACCO—EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM APPROVED.

Federal legislation to continue the support price of burley tobacco at 90 percent of parity beyond the 1948 crop was urged by directors of the Burley Tobacco Growers Cooperative Association at its regular meeting in Lexington, Ky., March 12, 1947.

Provided by a wartime measure which expires December 31, 1948, the present price support program will apply on the 1948 crop, but new legislation will be necessary for a continuation of support prices, the Burley officials pointed out.

During the past marketing season the Burley Association to date has handled 113,350,000 pounds of the 1946 crop, W. L. Staton, Secretary-Treasurer, reported to the directors.

This poundage represents approximately 24 per cent of the volume of burley sold in Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana, West Virginia and Missouri, states served by the Co-Operative.

Practically all the leaf consigned by the Association has been redried and placed in storage at 58 plants leased by the Co-Operative.

Reports from Associations serving burley growers at markets in Tennessee, North Carolina and Virginia indicate that approximately 150,000,000 pounds of the 1946 crop have been consigned under the price-support program throughout the Burley belt, Mr. Staton stated.

The Association's directors also adopted a resolution favoring stricter administration of production control through more accurate measurement of farm acreages and calling upon Congress to provide additional funds for this purpose.

Pointing out that the control program has been in effect for 10 years, he directors recommended that a smaller percentage of the total acreage allotments be set aside for adjusting farm acreages and for new growers. At present, 2 per cent is allowed for adjustment purposes.

A resolution also was adopted which called for any further acreage reductions to be shared by all growers, which would include those raising less than an acre. A cut announced for 1947 quotas applied only to growers producing one acre or more of tobacco.

A program of education to acquaint growers with better production practices as a means of increasing the percentage of smoking types of burley was approved. Practices suggested included the use of root-rot resistant seed, closer spacing in planting, higher topping and better cultivation and curing methods.

The Association voted to invite Hugh Taylor, marketing expert of the U. S. Department of Agriculture to attend its next meeting in April to discuss developments in efforts to open larger burley export markets.

New Farm Practices Are Recommended

New farm practices for more profitable agriculture were recommended by Wm. Johnstone to seventy Boone County farmers attending a County soils and crops meeting at Burlington last Wednesday. Johnstone is field agent in Agronomy from the College of Agriculture.

Corn ranks next to tobacco as an important crop in Kentucky. Corn on many farms can be grown on the same land in a two year rotation year after year, according to Johnstone. This rotation may be particularly valuable on a hill farm where the more level land can be used in a corn, wheat, sweet clover rotation with all the rolling land used in permanent pasture. Tobacco growers have found it profitable to use the same land year after year where proper cover crop and fertilizer applications are made.

Kentucky Fescue 31 gives promise of being a year round pasture crop. Ladino clover is worth trying by large numbers of farmers. Cumberland Red Clover composed of a mixture of one-third Kentucky 215, one-third Tennessee and one-third Virginia Clover is the best commercial red clover seed on the market today. New and superior varieties of Kentucky adapted red clover seed will be on the market in a few years.

Good pastures is considered Kentucky's most valuable crop. An acre of good pasture has been found to put on as much gain on livestock as 100 bushels of corn and 560 pounds of protein feed. Lime, phosphate and better seeding mixtures make for better pastures. Where a cultivated crop is grown before seeding, greater yields of all crops are secured by fertilizing ahead of the cultivated crop.

SHORTAGE IN FERTILIZER FACED

BY BOONE COUNTY FARMERS, ACCORDING TO COUNTY AGENT'S OFFICE FARMERS URGED TO CONTACT DEALERS

Farmers are facing another fertilizer shortage this year, according to dealers reports received at the County Agent's office. Super phosphate and tobacco complete fertilizer, high in sulphate of potash, are especially short.

Farmers are urged to contact dealers at the earliest possible date and to secure delivery in order to make sure their fertilizer needs will be met. Farmers would use record amounts of fertilizers if they were available in time for spring plantings.

Rock phosphate offers one possibility as a substitute for superphosphate. It is understood that rock phosphate can be secured in sufficient quantities at prices ranging from $16.00 to $18.00 per ton. The AAA will pay $9.00 per ton on rock phosphate used on soil building crops. The Bi-County Co-op. at Devon is receiving a car load of Sulpha-Mag. or Sulphate of Potash fertilizer, which is much desired by tobacco growers. One hundred to a hundred fifty pounds of sulphate greatly improves the ripening and handling quality of the leaf. Muriate of potash used in quantities, in excess of 40 pounds per acre may injure the leaf.

Boone County farmers who have not already done so are urged to order their fertilizer now.

She was born November 9, 1879, her age being 67 years, 3 months and 15 days. She was one of five children of the late Malchus and Sally Souther, two of whom survive, W. Keene of Burlington, Gordon Souther of Morning View. In October of 1901 she was united in marriage to Howard V. Tanner. To this union a daughter, Mrs. Sarah E. Markesbery was born.

The deceased was in illness as in health very patient and considerate. Previous to her marriage she taught in some of the local schools and was also prominent in church work having been a member of the Pt. Pleasant Christian Church since girlhood. The community has lost a fine neighbor and friend.

Besides two brothers she is survived by her husband, daughter, two grandchildren Billy Ray and Harold Victor Markesbery, other relatives and friends.

Funeral services were conducted Feb. 26 at the Taliaferro funeral home, Erlanger with Rev. Arthur Tipton, pastor of the Constance Christian Church officiating. Rev. Mitchell was soloist and the pallbearers were Robt. E., John W., Jas. H. and Adam Dolwick, Miles A. Smith and Francis K. Souther. The family has the sympathy of the community in this their hour of trial.

One by one they cross the silent river,
Some at morning, some at noontide others at the sunset of life,
To that fair land of Eden,
Where all is peace and joy and light. ch

PIKE STREET MERCHANTS ORGANIZE FOR "CLEANUP"

Merchants in the 100 block on Pike Street, between Washington and Russell Streets, have organized to work for an improvement of conditions in the area.

They held their first meeting Tuesday night of last week at the Desantis Restaurant, 139 Pike St. Charles Witsmyre, operator of a plumbing and electric supply store in the area, was named temporary chairman. Vince Pelstring, paint store owner, was appointed acting secretary. Election of officers will be held at the next meeting, March 18.

Members said committees will be appointed to call upon Covington officials to discuss the return of boulevard lights removed from the area some time ago. Cleaning of Pike Street at regular periods, the elimination of panhandlers, drunks and other undesirables from the area and more rigid police regulation of certain establishments along the thoroughfare.

"It seems that prospective patrons are scared of venturing into the area because of present conditions," one member stated.

It was pointed out that a number of new stores and business houses have opened in the section and that city officials should be ready to co-operate in order to expand the city's business area.

Meetings of the new organization will be held every first and third Tuesday of the month.

Any price is too high if it can be reduced — Fowler McCormick

International Harvester announces $20,000,000 price reductions

We believe there is nothing more important to this country than to lower the prices of the goods that people buy.

The American people have insisted that the government withdraw from its attempts to control prices in peacetime. That places the responsibility where it belongs—in the hands of business and industry. Not all business can reduce prices now. Not all can reduce by the same amount.

Our company has felt a duty to act as promptly as possible. In our case, the business outlook now makes it possible to move toward the goal of lower prices. The only way out of the vicious circle of higher and higher prices is to break through.

We have taken this step not because of present competitive conditions nor because of a drop in demand from customers. We have taken it because of our belief that ANY PRICE IS TOO HIGH IF IT CAN BE REDUCED.

These reductions, which will save the users of our products approximately $20,000,000 a year, will become effective before April 1, and will apply to a selected list of tractor, farm machine, motor truck, and industrial power products. Since we lose money on a few of our products, and barely break even on some others, these reductions will not apply to our entire line. Reductions will be made individually on products. Some will be cut more than others. Exact details will be announced as soon as possible.

Our ability to maintain this lower level of prices will depend in part on what happens to the prices and flow of materials that we buy from others. Because we believe price reduction is vital, we are willing to assume the risks that are involved.

IH prices had not gone up as much or as fast as many others

Here are Average Price Increases since 1941

All Manufactured Products (U. S. Government Reports)	63.7%
Metals and Metal Products (U. S. Government Reports)	41.2%
IH Motor Trucks	35%
IH Industrial Power Products	34%
IH Farm Machines	25%

These benefits to customers will depend, too, on uninterrupted production at reasonable wage levels. This is not a program that can be carried out if it is hampered by strikes or work stoppages.

Our employes have had substantial increases in pay, and wage questions are currently being discussed with many of the unions with which we deal. Stockholders have recently had an increase in dividend rate. Having considered the interests of these two groups, we are now making these price reductions for the benefit of the third group—our customers.

Business, to our way of thinking, has a social as well as an economic responsibility. This company has long followed the policy of operating in the interests of three groups—its customers, its employes and its stockholders. The duty of the management is to see that equal justice is done as between the three groups.

This price reduction program is another demonstration of our policy in action.

INTERNATIONAL HARVESTER

You'll Be All Dressed Up This EASTER

Isn't Easter wonderful! And this year we've planned to make it even more so. Come see our lovely array of Spring finery that sets every heart to flutter . . . every eye to dance . . . even to the tiniest of "Easter Bunnies"!

REMEMBER—
when a nickel cigar cost 5¢?

JUST before Pearl Harbor, many well-known brands of cigars were popularly priced at 5c each. Today these same brands retail for 9c and 10c each—an increase that is typical of the times. Almost everything you buy has gone up in price since the war—almost everything except electricity.

As a result of greatly increased use coupled with sound business management, the cost of electricity has stayed down while other prices have been going up. It is one of the few things you buy that still sells for pre-war prices or less. Although your monthly bill may not be lower, due to the fact that you're using more electricity, the cost per unit of electric service was never cheaper than it is today.

INDIANA PASSES OHIO BRIDGE BILL

SURVEYS OF OHIO BOTTOMS AND SITES FOR BRIDGE APPROACHES WILL BE MADE DURING SUMMER.

Governor Gates, of Indaina has signed the Ohio-Wabash river bridge bill H. B. 359, which was passed by both houses of the state Assembly in its closing hours, according to a news article carried in the Lawrenceburg Press, March 20.

The Press stated that surveys of the Ohio river bottoms and sites for bridge approaches between Lawrenceburg and Aurora, and in nearby Dearborn county will be made by summer, launching field work preliminary to locating a bridge over the Ohio river near Lawrenceburg.

The Indiana state bridge commission is empowered by the law to construct the bridge and to supervise their operation as toll bridges, repaying the money from revenue received.

One of the provisions of the act is that if the government and other states decide to join with Indiana in the construction of a bridge or purchase of an existing bridge, the state bridge commission is empowered to give its share from the funds appropriated, without repayment.

Wanta Be Two Inches Taller? Then Read This

A Recorder man, hearing that persons were being "made taller" at the People's Shoe Store, 814 Madison Avenue, Covington, went there recently to see what it was all about.

"I understand you can make a person two inches taller here," the R. M. said, half-jokingly to N. Tulch, foot specialist at this popular store. "How do you do it—with vitamin pills, mirrors or some kind of a gadget?"

"Nothing like that," replied Mr. Tulch, picking up a pair of nice-looking shoes. "We do it with these shoes—'Six Footers.' Realizing that many men and women would like to enjoy the advantages of being taller, we prepared to give them a very pleasant surprise. These shoes will increase one's height two inches, and a good thing about it is that no one, excepting the wearer, knows the secret. Others will only note the handsome styling of the shoes, which have comfortable cushioned lifts."

"Quite an idea, Mr. Tulch," spoke the R. M. as he started to leave, "I know being taller does often have an advantage in business and social contacts. The ladies seem to like 'em tall in the movies."

Walton Soldier Makes Constructive Suggestions

Manila, P. I.—Pvt. Edward C. Seals, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Seals, Star Route, Walton, Ky., thinks that Kentucky is the best state in the world, but believes that it could be improved by better farms and better electrification system in the rural areas.

The Southern soldier makes these remarks in a short essay as the basis of his entry in the American Red Cross "Star Your State" contest, now going on in the Far Eastern Theatre of Operations.

The contest, which grew out of the familiar G. I. greeting—"What State you from?"—has been designed to promote constructive ideas for improving one's own state.

Seals, who is attached to the 8115th Service Detachment Military Government, is stationed on Okinawa.

LAST MEETING OF DRAFT BOARD

The Boone County Board, consisting of Geo. W. Baker, R. C. Eastman and Al Stephens, are listed as the oldest draft board in the state still composed of its original members. It has been estimated that these men have given over three hundred 8-hour days to this task, all of which has been entirely without pay in any form, not even traveling expenses or car expense in connection with the work. This means that they have given approximately $7,000 each in time and money, no hope or expectation of receiving anything in return.

These men certainly deserve the recognition of outstanding public servants and have successfuly completed a very difficult task in a very efficient manner.

C. G. Kelly, clerk of the board will be held in his present capacity for one month, and then only as a part time employee until all necessary records have been closed.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

By HAROLD L. LUNDQUIST, D. D., Of The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago. Released by Western Newspaper Union.

Lesson for April 6

THE RISEN LORD AND HIS DISCIPLES

LESSON TEXT—John 20:19-23, 26-29; 21: 15-17.

MEMORY SELECTION—But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first fruits of them that slept.—I Corinthians 15:20.

Ever new and blessed in its touch upon our souls is the message of Easter. To be assured once more that the grave could not hold our blessed Lord and Saviour, and that he arose in victory over sin and death, is our delightful portion in today's lesson.

It is a very appropriate conclusion to our three month study of the Gospel of John and comes in the new quarter because of Easter Sunday.

Three helpful incidents make up our lesson.

I. A Risen Lord and Glad Disciples (20:19-23).

The appearance of our Lord to his disciples after he arose from the grave emphasizes the close relationship between the resurrection and the life and ministry of his followers.

Those who live for and serve the risen Christ have a triumphant faith, an inward peace, and an outward authority and power. Their convictions are based on the Lord's own words which came to assure the disciples as they secretly assembled for fear of the Jews.

He stood in their midst and spoke the words of peace (vv. 19-21) and authority (vv. 22, 23).

Peace of soul is absolutely essential to useful and satisfied living. Only as we are "steadfast, immovable," can we be "abounding in the work of the Lord" (I Cor. 15:58). Steady at the center, active at the circumference.

Commissioned and sent by the Son of God, clothed with Holy Spirit power, the Church of God has his authority. While some have read too much into verse 23, others have read out of it the real authority that God has given.

Little wonder that we read (v. 20), "Then were the disciples glad when they saw the Lord." They had reason for real joy!

II. A Convinced Doubter and Glad Testimony (20:26-29).

Thomas made the serious error of being absent from the gathering of the disciples when the Lord Jesus stood in their midst. Let those who commonly absent themselves from the place and hour of worship take heed lest they miss a blessing, and coming later add nothing to the spiritual life of the church, but rather become troublers and doubters.

But God graciously turns the doubt of Thomas into a means of blessing to all of us who since then have read of his experience. Thomas was an honest doubter. God is always ready to meet such with satisfactory proof. The trouble is that there are so many in the world who use professed doubts to cover a life of sin.

Doubt may come to any man. In itself it is no sin. But to cherish it and hold to it in unbelief—that is a different matter. One wise spiritual leader rightly counseled his people, "Believe your beliefs and doubt your doubts. Never make the mistake of doubting your beliefs or believing your doubts."

When doubting Thomas saw the Lord, his questions changed at once to strong convictions and assured personal testimony to his blessed Lord.

III. A Restored Disciple and Glad Service (21:15-17).

After meeting Jesus on the first Easter morning, Peter had been assured of forgiveness for his denial of the Lord and had been taken back into fellowship and service with him.

But then something seemed to have gone astray, for we find that Peter and the others had returned to their old life as fishermen. They seem to have lost their vision, or had become discouraged.

But the Lord had not forgotten them. He appeared and told them where to catch fish, and then we have the lovely scene around the fire as they breakfasted together.

There it was that the Lord met Peter, and as he had denied Christ thrice he is asked to thrice declare his devotion to him.

The man who thus declared his readiness to serve Christ to the end had many an opportunity to prove the sincerity of that profession. He met persecution and imprisonment but to every effort of man to close his mouth or to change his witness he had the simple reply of absolute obedience to the Lord.

Tradition tells us that this faithfulness finally led Peter to a martyr's death. So we see a life made over, made powerful, made glorious for God through the matchless grace of our Lord Jesus Christ. He can do it for you, too. Will you let him?

There could be no better time to meet the risen Lord face to face than on this day when we remember his resurrection. Let him come into your heart, dissolve your doubts, forgive your sins—and make you glad!

IN LOVING MEMORY

Of our dear beloved husband and dad, Lawrence C. Kerns, on our 36th anniversary, March 26, 1931, who passed away October 25, 1946.

It was bitter grief, a shock severe,
To part with one we loved so dear;
For none but those who have lost can tell
The sorrow of parting without farewell.

We are so lonely now without you,
The voice we loved is still,
And all is left in life for us,
A photograph, a memory, a grave upon a hill.

Control Wildfire And Leaf Spot In Plant Beds

Wildfire and Angular Leaf Spot are two plant bed diseases that cause considerable loss in plants in the bed and loss of leaves from growing plants in the field. These two diseases can be completely controlled in the plant bed by the use of two applications of a 3-4-50 bordeaux mixture. Make the mixture by dissolving 3 pounds of bluestone and 40 lbs of fresh air slaked lime in 50 gals water. Be sure to use only fresh air slaked lime. Do not use ground limestone.

Apply the liquid bluestone-lime mixture to the bed when the first true leaf appears and again 10 days later. It is not necessary to remove the cotton cover to make the applications, nor to wash the mixture off the plants after treating. Fifty gallons of the mixture will treat 200 square yards of bed (66 linear yds, 9 ft. wide or 50 linear yards 12 feet wide).

More detailed information on the bluestone-lime and fermate treatments can be obtained by contacting the County Agent's office.

Pennington-Houston

Wanda Lee, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pennington and Robert Harris Houston, youngest son of Mrs. James Houston, were united in marriage Saturday afternoon at the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harve Vest. The bride was lovely in aqua crepe and wore a corsage of red rose buds. Mrs. Moore wore gold crepe and a corsage of pink rosebuds. The groom wore blue and the best man grey. Each had a white carnation buttonhere.

A lovely reception was tendered the young couple that evening by her grandparents, after which the happy couple left for Cincinnati, where they occupied the bridal suite at the Hotel Sinton for several days before returning to Walton, where they have rented an apartment.

The bride is a stenographer for the Consolidated Telephone Co., and the groom, after many months spent in the European theater of war, is now employed in Cincinnati.

This young couple have a host of friends who united in wishing them a long life of success and happiness.

Inflate or Deflate?

Inflation is one of those things you talk about when you do not have it. We have a mild case of inflation now. We do not want it, but we are perhaps less scared about it now than we were before it came. Most of us do not mind adding to the spiral a little bit, though we may dislike to see other folks do so. We seem assured that there is "turn about for everybody" in the inflation spiral.

Some features of our snarled up labor-management relations, with the consequent paltry production and lower income for strikers, would represent deflation of a sort. But we must know that when we push our wages up and up, we simply must have production to justify these increased costs. If we do not, we may expect prices to follow or even shoot ahead, as the laws of economics begin to make adjustments.

Plain Economics

Higher wages without increased production create a situation that bears some resemblance to strikes without production. Either one will cripple American industry, and this is a time when labor cannot afford to contribute to industrial chaos. People the world over need goods desperately, even people with an inflation already well past our own. The only answer is production! We must produce, produce, produce.

Without production, any wage premiums which labor asks and wins represent the direct sort of inflation and public liability. We have already approached the danger point. Now, without price control, it is easier to see plain economics in operation. Labor costs represent most of the cost of our manufactured goods. Any increased costs, as well as the costs of scarcities, will be passed directly to the people.

Coal, For Example

Suppose the nation's coal supplies are shut off. Bituminous coal provides 65% of our industrial energy, 62% of our electric power, and 65% of our industrial power. No coal means no steel, and the shortage pressures then begin operating to force up prices of everything we buy. Higher prices for coal mean higher prices for steel. Steel is one of the basic ingredients of thousands of things we require daily, and soon up goes the general level of prices for consumer goods and for services as well.

Suppose the miners win wage increases. Their success is eyed by wage earners in varied other industries and crafts. Already the industrial unions have made top billing of a new drive for increased wages. Up go prices again. That's plain economics.

We like inflation for ourselves, when it is going our way, but generally we prefer to deflate the other fellow. It is time somebody thought of the Golden Rule. May I submit that production is the Golden Rule way to wheel ourselves out of this jam and to keep the traditional American freedoms we so much cherish.

Pressure Cooker Gauges Should Be Tested At Least Once A Year

Pressure cooker gauges should be tested once a year for accuracy. If gauges are tested now, necessary repairs can be made before the canning season, according to Mary Hood Gillaspie, Home Demonstration Agent.

Whenever a gauge registers five or more pounds above or below a master gauge, repairs should be made at the factory before using the pressure cooker.

A master gauge will be taken to all April Homemakers meetings. The gauge will be in the Home Agent's office on Saturdays. The gauge should be partially loosened from the top before it is brought for testing.

Wet gauges cannot be tested with the master gauge.

Silver Anniversary

A pleasant event of early Spring was the party given by Mr. and Mrs. James Bristow on Thursday evening, March 20 at their lovely home on Bristow Road, in commemoration of the 25th anniversary of their marriage.

The dining room was beautiful with its decorations of spring flowers and tall lighted tapers which was a lovely setting for the delicious buffet luncheon which consisted of baked country ham, chicken, various salads, potato chips, fruit punch, coffee, ice cream and cake. The cake, a large two-tiered creation, was white, beautifully decorated with white icing and silver leaves, and aside from the two tall candles which flanked it on either side was all that graced the dining room table.

Strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March were played on the piano during the cutting of the cake by Mr. and Mrs. Bristow. The guests departed at a late hour having enjoyed a delightful evening and wishing Mr. and Mrs. Bristow many more happy years together.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Jerald Dixon and children Norma Sue, Mary Jo, Jerry B. and Billy, Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Woodward, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Tanner, Mr. and Mrs. Ell Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Berry Rice, Mr. and Mrs. John Yelton, Stanley Rice, Mr. and Mrs Wesley Bowman, Harlan Rice, Misses Leta and Julia Rice, Jean Carpenter, Jennie Dixon, Ruth Bristow, Mrs. James Yancey and P. J. Allen and wife.

CONSTANCE HOMEMAKERS

Constance Homemakers club held their meeting March 5th at the home of Mrs. John Hempfling at Constance.

The 1947 4-H program has started.

A most interesting lesson on "Slip Covers" given by Mrs. Freda Kottmyer and Mrs. Margaret Prabel. The second lesson will be held at the Hebron school on March 20th at 10:30 a. m.

Our most important topics discussed were "Slip Covers" and the plan for "The Hobby Fair."

Constance Homemakers Club is sponsoring a "Hobby Fair" on the afternoon and night of March 29. It will be held at the Constance School. Both men, women and children of any age who have a hobby of any kind are asked to exhibit it at the fair. All exhibits must be in by 1 o'clock on Saturday, March 29th. This is asked so the judges will have enough time to get them judged and marked. This will be done by 4 o'clock. A few refreshments will be served at a small charge for the benefit of the Constance Homemakers' Club. Everyone welcome to attend and see what everyone is doing for fun or a hobby. I'm sure it will be lots of fun and very interesting too!

FLORENCE HOMEMAKERS

The Florence Homemakers held their regular meeting at the Town Hall on Friday, March 21st, and despite the inclement weather, there was a good attendance. The meeting opened with the Salute to the Flag and reading the club collect, after which routine business was taken up.

The treasurer's report showed we had cleared $68 on our Jitney Supper. In Miss Gillaspie's remarks she made an urgent plea for helpers in the 4-H club work at school and reported the district meeting at Lexington on April 19. A bus, or busses if we have enough to fill them, will be chartered and will leave Florence at 8 a. m. The round trip will cost about $2.25, we are assured it will be worth that amount to hear the principal speaker, Mrs. Labbit. Reservations will be reported to Miss Gillaspie by April 15th.

Miss Stephenson of Lexington was a most welcome visitor. After a delicious lunch a splendid lesson on "Slip Covers" was given by Mrs. Esther Gering, Mrs. Jane Stephens and Mrs. Frances Luchte.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

Don't forget dried lima beans when you plan mid-winter menus. A hearty food, lima beans make a good main-dish for supper or lunch, say home economists at the UK College of Agriculture and Home Economics.

Menu: Lima bean casserole, buttered carrots, cabbage and apple salad, cornsticks, butter and ginger bread with whipped cream.

Clothing Specialists Give Suggestions On Hem Change

Many homemakers are planning to add an inch or more to short skirts in the near future. Sometimes this is a simple chore, according to Mary Hood Gillaspie Home Demonstration Agent. Other times a home sewer strikes a problem—for example, if a facing is re-pressed or if the back of the hem is shiny from much pressing.

Clothing specialists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture offer the following suggestions for meeting a number of hemline "ifs":

If wool fabric is shiny on the underside of the hem, rip the hem and steam press on the wrong side of the fabric, provided the wool is light weight or has a raised pattern in the weave. Steam-pressing on the right side may be more effective for thick wool. To steam-press, cover the fabric with a dry wool press cloth, then with a cotton cloth dampened in farm water. Use a warm iron. Set down, then left the iron, taking care not to slide it back and forth. If shine persists, try raising the nap of the wool with a clean brush or rubber sponge—the kind used for suede shoes.

If acetate rayon is shiny, steam pressing as for wool may be effective. If shine cannot be removed, or if a dress lacks a hem, consider lengthening some other way that suits the style of the dress. For example: Contrast bands may be inserted in the skirt; a yoke may be added to the skirt, waist seams may be let up; or a belt of some other material may be set into the dress and covered with a novelty belt.

If a hem crease is conspicious, try wetting the crease line on the wrong side, then turning the goods over on the right side, and rolling the crease back and forth in the fingers to work it out. Press on the wrong side afterwards.

If a skirt hem must be let out to its full extent, seam binding or facing material, or both, are called for. If the dress fabric is heavy, the seam binding may be sewed directly to the skirt edge. Then turn the biding up so that about one-fourth inch of the dress fabric is on the underside of the skirt—that is, don't fold along the line where seam binding and dress fabric join, because this would cause the skirt edge to ripple unattractively. If the dress goods is light weight, a facing about an inch wide when finished is needed, to give body to the skirt edge.

If a skirt to be faced is circular or flared, cutting the facing on the bias is good technique. If the skirt is straight or pleated, use a straight facing—or, if this type of skirt is not made straight with the goods, a shaped facing may be best.

FINISH HOUSE THEY BEGAN 10 YEARS AGO

Mrs. John Fuller and family, of McCracken county recently had the thrill of moving into their new home, the basement of which they constructed 10 years ago, and in which they have been living.

Delayed because of the war, the new home was planned by Mrs. Fuller and built through the cooperative labor of three sons, a daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Fuller. A fourth son, John, Jr., who is with an Army unit in Japan, helped by sending money home. The Fullers estimate they saved $4,000 by doing the work themselves under the guidance of son Gene, a skilled carpenter.

Information learned by Mrs. Fuller during the 22 years she has been a member of the homemakers club has been invaluable, she told Home Agent Sadie W. Pulliam. She chose color combinations in paint and paper for the various rooms, then did all the interior decorating. She sealed cracks, stained and varnished floors, planned the kitchen cabinets to incorporate time and labor saving ideas, and made slip-covers.

On moving day, the members of the Reidland Homemakers Club assisted in moving the furniture from the basement, to the new floor, then arranged the furniture according to instructions received in their project lessons.

ARMY DAY TAKES ON STATUS OF AMERICAN FOLK EVENT

Observance of Army Day is taking on the status of an annual American Folk event, response to the War Department program indicates.

The American people—in the bustling cities, serene villages and calm countryside—is putting its heart in supporting the occasion dedicated to our veterans—in and out of uniform—those who gave their lives on the field of battle and the members of the Army that must carry on the multifold tasks devolving from the hard-won victory.

MOST BEAUTIFUL HEN MAY LIVE IN KENTUCKY

The Kentucky Poultry Improvement Association says the world's most beautiful hen may live right here in Kentucky, if the owner will enter her in the "Miss Slick Chick of 1947" contest. One purpose of the contest is to promote the consumption of poultry and eggs. Five regional winners will receive trips to a movie premiere and owner of the champion will get $500 in cash. The hen will receive a golden egg and a fur-lined nest.

Persons wishing to enter the contest should send a picture of a member of the family holding a hen, to the "Egg and I National Committee," Poultry and Egg National Board, 308 West Washington Street, Chicago. The contest will close March 10. J. W. Matthews, field manager of the Poultry Improvement Association, Lexington, is Kentucky chairman of the contest.

BORAX CONTROLS YELLOWS

Many Kentucky farmers have eliminated yellowing of alfalfa by scattering small amounts of borax, according to reports reaching the Agricultural Experiment Station at Lexington. Twenty pounds to the acre usually is sufficient to control the trouble for two or three years. This small application can be made with a hand seeder, or mixed with fertilizer. It may be applied at time of seeding, before alfalfa starts growing in the spring or after cutting.

Approximately 20 carloads of western steers have been bought by Livingston county farmers since last fall.

The Greatest Mother In The World

Mother nature gives the birds microscopic eyes to see tiny grain from a distance, and how she cares for us humans.

For instance, when we bruise our feet by wearing poorly constructed or ill fitted shoes. Nature sets up protective layers, corns, callouses and bunions, at the point where the attack is directed, and by means of pain telegraphs the brain that danger is at hand and how do we respond to nature's signal? Usually, by padding these protective layers or paring them. This of course, does relieve the pain but does NOT remove the cause of the trouble. Corns, callouses and bunions are merely symptoms telling you there is something wrong inside your feet.

Permanent relief will be obtained when you relieve pressure on delicate nerves and tissue, when you straighten up weak, inrolling feet that throw the strain of weight bearing into the outer arch. So, if you would really get at the bottom of your foot ills, by all means, see our foot comfort specialist—they will make a scientific foot analysis of your foot. Then foot comfort is absolutely assured.—Adv.

REMEMBER—when you could buy a pound of sliced bacon for *25¢?

AT the start of World War II, you could buy a pound of first quality sliced bacon at almost any butcher shop for a quarter. Today a pound of sliced bacon of the same quality costs you up to three times as much. And what is true of bacon prices is true of many other things you buy. Almost everything you buy has gone up—almost everything except electricity.

As a result of greatly increased use coupled with sound business management, the cost of electricity has stayed down while other prices have been going up. It is one of few things you buy that still sells for pre-war prices or less. Although your monthly bill may not be lower, due to the fact that you're using more electricity, the cost per unit of electric service was never cheaper than it is today!

In September 1912, together with his wife united with the Ludlow Church, where he had served as deacon and trustee and at the time of his death, had been an elder for the past nine years, and re-elected for three. He was serving as secretary and treasurer of the Sunday School.

Mr. Hafer was married to Carrie E. Clore, June 21, 1905, at Covington, Ky. To this union were born two daughter, Wanda Lee Lester, Ludlow and Ardell Piessinger of Ft. Wright, Covington.

Besides the wife and daughters he is survived by three grandchildren, Peggy Arlene, Nancy Lee and James Russell Piessinger; four sisters, Mrs. T. S. Aylor, Ludlow; Mrs. Phelps Walton, Ludlow; Mrs. Allie Walton and Mrs. Earl Aylor, both of Hebron and a number of nieces and nephews.

No eulogues need be said, no praises be sung, he lived every day as he died, following the Master.

On the afternoon and evening of Good Friday, his friends paid their respects to him, and on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock funeral services were conducted from the Catherman funeral home by Rev. F. L. Chapman, pastor, Rev. Ellis Lee Graves, a missionary from Brazil, a Ludlow young man, and Rev. Paul Rimmer, of Hebron.

How fitting for such a life to end its earthly tasks, and enter the Heavenly gates on Easter Sunday, and though he were dead, yet shall he live. Though we walk through darkness, there shall be light.

Notes and Comments

From the Editor's Desk

The Country Press

Some of the most important things in life are taken for granted and accorded scant consideration until they cease to fonuction. For instance, the occupants of a luxurious Pullman sleeper think little about the wheels on which it rolls. The most vital things are generally the least obvious. The country press goes in this category. But there would be no United States without the country press, any more than there would be a Pullman car without a wheel.

No nation in the world is so universally served with newspapers as is the United States. But the average citizen doesn't know this—he takes the newspaper for granted even in the smallest town. And yet without the newspaper, community affairs could not be conducted as they are. Try to think of your town without newspapers, even the smallest weekly. Where would you get the local news and the intimate information on births marriages, deaths and the affairs of the community that at some time or other are so important to every family's. Where would you read the proceeding of the county courts, the legal notices, the personal columns, the news about the local churches, lodges, and the advertising of the local merchants? The big city daily carry the world news, but they cannot carry the day-to-day happenings of the smaller towns and cities.

Along with the school teacher, the local editor is responsible for the education of the community. A good editor comments on activities, local, state, and national, that affect the lives of all citizens. He discusses questions from the standpoint of their bearing on community welfare. He must have a good working knowledge of government, legislation, social conditions, industries, labor, taxation, the things that affect the working man, the businessman, and the family. The local editor accepts a real responsibility in publishing even the smallest paper, for when the reader sees something in print, he thinks it is the truth.

How many people appreciate these facts that underlie the ownership and publication of the 12,000 country newspapers in the United States? Those papers are the greatest safeguard of our nation's independence. They are individually owned, and the vast majority of their editors are well grounded in the ideals of Constitutional government, and are opposed to trends toward socialism which disregard the importance of the individual. The country press reaches a majority of readers in the United States. It deserves more recognition than it receives. And in that respect it is like the wheel under a Pullman car, but with this difference: It is human and it can appreciate a word or act of encouragement while upholding the rights of others.

Johnny Neun is utilizing some new methods in the Reds' spring training activities at Tampa, Fla., this season. One very important innovation is the use of movies in the instruction of his players. The Reds have a modern sound projector and instructional films, which are being shown to the athletes at properly spaced intervals.

Veterans who brought souvenir firearms into the country must register them with the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, according to the U. S. Treasury Department. While not objecting to veterans owning trophies, the government is attempting to prevent such weapons from falling into the hands of criminals. The Treasury Department's Alcohol Tax Unit will render these weapons harmless by a welding process which in no way will impair their appearance or value as trophies.

As far as productivity is concerned the OPA is a dead duck. Anyone who has the inclination can walk into the huge office building housing the deceased price control agency and find hundreds of employees wandering around the corridors, sipping cokes or hot coffee, chatting about this and that.

Ask the average American and he will tell you that the OPA is finished, non-existent. It is unfortunate that every taxpayer in the United States cannot have a free ride out at taxpayers' expense to Washington, D. C., to learn the facts of life as they relate to Federal bureaucracy.

The regular meeting of the W. M. S. was held at the church on Thursday afternoon. The subject of the program was Europeans, their religions and our spiritual responsibility toward them as Christian neighbors.

Mrs. Willard Ryle offered prayer that the people of Europe may find true christianity. Then followed a discussion on conditions in Europe, their religions and what Baptists are doing as missionaries there, by Mrs. Wm. Rogers, Mrs. Edward Rogers and Mrs. Robt. Hensley.

Others taking part on the program were Miss Anna Cason, Mrs. Christina Kirtley, Mrs. Laura Clore, Mrs. Mary Sandford, Mrs. Russell Louden, Mrs. Ernest McNeeley and Mrs. Willard Ryle.

Twelve members answered roll call and Mrs. Ott Rogers was gladly enrolled as a new member.

LIVINGSTON PUSHES CONSERVATION WORK

A soil-management and postwar soils committee of Livingston county announces that its cooperative quarry, owned by the farmers of the county, will have a production capacity of 40,000 to 50,000 tons of agricultural limestone this year.

Along with the extensive use of limestone, the committee's program includes the conservation and use of farm manure, seeding of grass mixtures, terracing, contour cultivation, diversion ditching and open-ditch drainage. There are several thousand acres of fertile bottom land in the county that needs drainage.

A total of 8,400 pines and 8,900 black locust have been ordered from the TVA for setting for erosion control. Marvin Smith is cooperating with County Agent Robert L. Rudolph and District Forester John Rodey in an acre forestry demonstration.

Kobe lespedeza is replacing the Korean variety on approximately a third of the farms in Edmonson county.

Poultrymen from Crittenden, Henderson, Webster and Union counties have formed a poultry-egg cooperative.

Farmers in Elliott county have pooled their orders for about 30,000 feet of tile.

LOOKING AHEAD

By GEORGE S. BENSON

President—Harding College
Searcy, Arkansas

It's Tit for Tat

The definite, dynamic relationship which prices bear to wages and wages to prices has been dramatized effectively in recent weeks. To the average American housewife, however, who counts out carefully and apportions out even more carefully her husband's weekly pay, the relationship has been real enough all along.

To Mrs. Pennythrift, the housewife, taking her change out of the crockery pot in the cupboard to exchange it for basic family needs, the fact that prices "down" represents a real "raise" in wages is well understood. With her the basic problem is: How far will the money go? When she has to take out less change to buy a loaf of bread or bottle of milk, that's as good to her as a pay boost for her husband. And cause for jubilation.

The Mass Production Way

Henry Ford II, whose grandfather practiced so well the mechanics of good economy and who dealt fairly and well with the mass output system, recently started what may become a trend in the automobile industry. In making the first postwar price reduction on cars, Mr. Ford actually gave the equivalent of a wage boost to all Americans who buy Fords, and if other car manufacturers follow, it will mean a boost to all who buy automobiles. And as mass production of automobiles comes to peak, still lower prices will surely follow.

While labor leaders thought this a step in the right direction, some of them quickly stated that "price cutting" would have no effect upon their plans for wage drives. Neither industry nor labor look forward to extensive price cutting, particularly without greater production, nor should either expect to gain from continued wage drives—without better production. The key to the wage-price balance is: more output.

Bigger Pie

One manufacturer has advertised this balance thus: "If we want a bigger cut out of the income pie either as management or labor, the best way for all concerned is to bake a bigger pie." He continued, "You can't cut bigger pieces out of a smaller pie. You can't continue to raise wages, anywhere, out of shrinking production." That is right.

In an industrial democracy like ours, we have a high standard of living largely because our production of goods has been brought into line with the lowest possible consumer prices. Volume production, every time, means greater value to the consumer at lower prices. It also means more to those who invested the capital that bought the tools. And it means more to labor that builds the product.

Keep a Balance

These thoughts may explain why not all of labor has been willing to get behind the banner that "industry can afford a 25% general wage increase without raising prices." The American Federation of Labor has reported its findings that in 1946 an 18½c wage increase brought increases in living costs of equal amount. The balance of wages and prices is just that close in our economic structure.

Now is the time for each American to understand, along with Mrs. Pennythrift the housewife, that all of us must cooperate in order to use these fundamental economic facts to the advantage of the whole nation. We cannot hope to maintain for long this free America which we love, unless we seek long range cooperation and understanding, rather than short-sighted group advantages which in the end are destructive to all.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

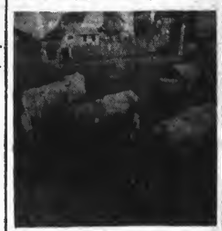
LARGEE FLOCKS SEEN IN TURKEY RAISING

While 15 percent fewer turkeys were raised in Kentucky last year than in 1945, there is evidence that producing the big birds has become a profitable farm enterprise, says the UK College of Agriculture and Home Economics.

Flocks are tending to become larger, with many of them ranging from 200 to 500 birds. One grower last year produced 18,000 turkeys and another 7,500 while there were many flocks of 500 to 1,000 birds in Clark, Fayette, Harrison, Pendleton, Madison, Daviess, Hancock and McLean counties.

Farmers who produced approved hatching eggs made good profits. Jacob Woods of Warren county made $2,000, or 32 cents an egg, on hatching eggs during 11 weeks beginning April 13, 1946.

Pasture Improvement Yields More, Better Feed for Livestock



CHICAGO — Emphasizing that "grass is the cheapest feed for dairy cows or beef animals," the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee recommended a 6-point pasture improvement program for providing plenty of hay and pasture for livestock.

Liming heads the list of the committee's suggestions.

"Apply what lime your soil needs," says a statement issued by the committee. "The local county agent or agronomists at state agricultural colleges can provide you with necessary information. Don't waste seed and fertilizer on highly acid soils. Liming before seeding and fertilizing is the best policy."

Item Number 2 on the program is adequate fertilization.

"An investment in mixed fertilizer both at seeding time and afterwards will pay dividends," the statement continues. "The use of nitrogen is important in keeping grasses productive. Lime, phosphorus and potash are vital in obtaining good stands and high yields of legumes."

Good Soil Management Vital in Getting Good Legume Stands.

As a third step, the committee suggests that clover and alfalfa and other legumes be included in all hay and pasture mixtures.

If in providing this all-season program it is also planned to give not less than one acre of improved pasture for each cow or steer, you have accomplished the fourth step, while early application of nitrogen topdressings on grass pastures makes a fifth step. Then the development of aftermath grazing in summer following the first hay cutting is listed as the sixth step.

INCOME FROM FISH BAIT BEATS TEACHING SCHOOL

Mrs. James Overbey, president of the Calloway County Homemakers Club, recently admitted that she made more money selling fish bait last year than she had previously made teaching school. Her marketing adventures started two years ago when she sold watermelons. Last year she added fishing bait and rabbits. With part of her profits she purchased a deep-freeze unit and will sell frozen rabbit meat this year.

An Easter specialty which Mrs. Overbey added this spring included downy chicks, goslings and rabbits.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

One way to make a small amount of chicken serve a number of people was demonstrated when the Eastland Homemakers Club, Graves county, served lunch to the county presidents of homemakers clubs in the Purchase district, and others. The use of chicken broth in the recipe adds to its delicious flavor.

Chicken Gelatine Salad

Two tablespoons gelatine, one-fourth cup cold water, 1½ cups chicken broth, 2 pimentos, 1 tablespoon minced onion, ½ cup diced celery, 1 cup diced chicken, ½ cup salad dressing.

Soften the gelatine in cold water and dissolve in hot chicken broth. Chill. Add the cut-up pimentos, minced onion, diced celery and chicken. Allow to congeal slightly, then fold in the salad dressing. Serve on lettuce leaf. Serves six to eight.

Luncheon menu: Chicken salad, buttered broccoli, celery stuffed with cottage cheese, rolls, butter and gingerbread topped with apple sauce.

STATION RECOMMENDS CYANAMID FERTILIZER

Calcium cyanamide (cyanamid) is a satisfactory nitrogen fertilizer, says the Kentucky Experiment Station, in reply to inquries. For row crops it is recommended that it be applied broadcast and disked in about two weeks ahead of setting or planting. It also can be broadcast before plowing and turned under.

At the Experiment Station farm at Lexington cyanamid has been applied without injury to burley plants at the rate of about 250 pounds to the acre. Application was made in bands on each side of the row at the time the plants were set, most of the fertilizer being placed about 3 inches deep and 5 inches from the plants. It probably should not be placed closer than 12 inches to the plants.

Cyanamid is considered good top-dressing for pastures and small grains at a rate of 200 to 300 pounds or less an acre. There is less danger of injury from the granulated form.

TESTS POINT WAY TO HIGHER YIELDS

Land treated with manure, limestone and rock phosphate made the highest yield of corn, 77½ bushels, last year on five test fields which the Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station maintains over the state. This soil treatment produced 16.3 bushels of wheat and 5,370 pounds of hay to the acre.

Land treated with manure, limestone, superphosphate and potash produced 70.8 bushels of corn to the acre, 16.4 bushels of wheat and 5,417 pounds of hay.

The fields are at Berea, Fariston, Greenville, Mayfield and Campbellsville. The soils are deficient in phosphorous and too acid to grow clover and alfalfa. Liming these soils and the regular use of phosphate fertilizer have increased crop yields where a good cropping system was used, including the growing of legumes.

HENS PROFITS $4.40 WHERE RECORDS KEPT

Where flock records were kept in 28 Kentucky counties last year, hens returned an average of $4.49 above cash expenses, according to a summary of records issued by the State College of Agriculture and Home Economics.

The best month was May, when profits averaged nearly 59 cents. The average profit in April was more than 50 cents a hen, and in March a little over 45 cents.

Average egg production per hen, for the 12 months, was 196. Gross income average $8.69, and feed and other expenses average $4.20.

NOTED SPEAKERS FOR UK RURAL INSTITUTE

Two more nationally known men have been added to the list of speakers at the 10th annual Rural Leadership Institute to be held at the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture and Home Economics at Lexington April 22-24.

They are Dr. J. Douglas Ensminger, rural sociologist in the U. S. Department of Agriculture at Washington, and Dr. T. S. Buie, regional conservator of the Soil Conservation Service at Spartanburg, S. C. Other noted speakers are the Rev. James W. Sells of Atlanta, Ga., religious editor of The Progressive Farmer magazine, and the Rev. Edwin L. Becker of Indianapolis, Ind., chairman of the Committee on Town and Country Church of the Home Missions Council of the Federal Council of Churches.

A large number of Kentucky pastors, educators and rural leaders will speak. The Kentucky Rural Church Fellowship is cooperating with the university in arranging the program.

WOMEN FIX UP ROOM FOR CLUB MEETINGS

Through the cooperation of the Webster County Fiscal Court with the county homemakers clubs, whose members were not afraid of hard work, the 11 clubs in the county now have clean, attractive rooms in which to hold their training schools and other meetings, according to Home Agent Mary Jordan Morris.

When the homemakers were granted permission to use the rooms formerly used by the WPA, each club sent a committee to do a special job in putting the rooms in good condition, such as painting the walls, woodwork, floors and furniture, and washing windows. Other clubs hung curtains and contributed dish towels and [illegible] for the kitchen, which is one of their two rooms.

The purchase of kitchen wall cabinets, coal range, utensils, dishes, folding chairs and tables was made possible through the addition of $200 to their treasury when Mrs. Alva Wood, a homemakers club member, won that amount in a state-wide home improvement contest.

Pike county reports having 3,431 4-H club members in 83 clubs.

THE GARDEN
White Potatoes
By John S. Gardner, Kentucky College of Agriculture and Home Economics

The earlier potatoes are planted the better, as the object is to enable the potatoes "making themselves" while there is still plenty of soil moisture.

For most of Kentucky, Irish Cobbler is the best variety, but in eastern counties, where the spring rains continue longer, Green Mountain and Sequoia succeed admirably. To hasten the harvest, Bliss Triumph is sometimes used, but this variety is so susceptible to blight that its yield is uncertain.

Certified seed should be used to escape losses through running out diseases. But even certified seed should be treated against scab and scurf caused by germs that may be in the soil clinging to the seed potatoes. A convenient material is Semesan Bel, now handled by seedsmen and druggists.

Land should be broken deep, to hold all possible moisture, as potatoes are over 90 percent water. Deep breaking makes deep planting possible, to place the potatoes' roots in the coolest possible surroundings; potatoes are a "cool" crop. Further to draw the roots deep, the fertilizer should be put in the furrow below the seed pieces.

A seed piece should have at least one good eye, but more important than the number of eyes is the size of the piece planted, for on this depends the vigor of the sprout. Experiments have established that an adequate weight is 1½ ounces, with the eye located at the far edge from the stem of the seed potato. So situated, the eye can best draw all the driving power the seed piece contains.

Cultivation should be complete enough to uproot all the weeds, but not deep enough ever to reach the roots. The soil's surface should be kept level. Hilling, "laying-by" is quite unnecessary, except possibly to close soil cracks the tubers may make. Worse, it may be decidedly harmful, as rides dry out more rapidly than level soil. At be st, it is labor wasted.

More information on growing potatoes will be found in Kentucky circular 307, which may be had at offices of county agents or home demonstration agents, or from the Experiment Station at Lexington.

SHIFTS HELP WOMEN GIVE BUREAU DINNER

Despite the high cost of food, the Ballard County Homemakers Clubs demonstrated that they can still add to their treasury by serving a dollar dinner. Such was the case at the annual Farm Bureau dinner, when nine clubs, with a membership of 195 homemakers, served 750 guests. They cleared $438.45. All food was purchased by the women with the exception of potatoes.

Taking their cause from industry, the day's work of preparation was divided in shifts, a group of women relieving another to carry out the well-laid plans of Mrs. Carl Evans, county president, and Home Agent Angie McNutt. Arranged in cafeteria style with four serving centers in the Barlow high school gymnasium, the dinner was served and 750 guests seated in 22 minutes.

The money earned will be added to a fund for a homemakers club kitchen, Mrs. Evans said.

More than 100 homemakers in Union county are making braided or hooked rugs, following instructions given in their homemakers clubs.

Charlie and Madison Ferrell in Menifee county are building two brooder houses according to UK experiment Station plans, in preparation for 800 chicks.

FERTILIZERS NEEDED FOR BURLEY TOBACCO

Most land needs liberal applications of fertilizer to produce big yields of good tobacco, according to a leaflet of the Kentucky College of Agriculture and Home Economics, called "Fertilizing Burley Tobacco."

Outside the Bluegrass region nearly all land needs a fertilizer containing phosphorus. Most fertile land that has been heavily manured grows good tobacco without use of potash, anywhere in the state. Most other land needs potash in some form.

Where a fertile field of sod is turned for tobacco, or where legumes have grown, or where 10 tons or more of manure have been applied to the acre, it is probable that no additional nitrogen is needed. Less fertile land needs nitrogen.

On moderately productive soil at the Experiment Station at Lexington, nitrogen applications increased the yield of burley six pounds for each pound of nitrogen used. Fifty pounds added 300 lbs. of tobacco.

Where nitrogen, phosphorus and potassium are all needed, use of a high grade mixed fertilizer is advised in the leaflet. The tag on the bag shows the plant food in the fertilizer.

Farmers are warned to be sure fertilizer does not come in contact with tobacco plant roots, when applying it along rows. They also are warned not to over-lime land to be used for burley tobacco.

Copies of the leaflet may be had at offices of county agents, or by writing to the college at Lexington.

FARMERS SHOULD OBTAIN BALE TIES EARLY FOR 1947

Farmers who will need bale ties for harvesting the 1947 hay crop should place their orders early and accept delivery when the ties are available in order to assure an ample supply, M. D. Royse, State Director of the Production and Marketing Administration, said.

If sufficient bale ties are to be available, manufacturers must produce at capacity, throughout the year, he pointed out. Farmers can help keep up steady production by ordering and accepting delivery of bale ties early in the year.

Trade practices alone govern bale tie production and delivery this year, with no government direction and allocation. Present indications are that demand will be at a record high this year.

INSTALLS SYSTEM FOR WATERING MILK COWS

The first watering system for a dairy herd in Trimble county has been installed on the farm of Gary Ginn in the Palmyra community. Mr. Ginn pumps the water from a good pond and, during cold weather, warms it by electricity before running it into a tank in the cowshed. He milks his cows in a milking shed, then turns them into a well-bedded shed at night. Ginn told J. G. Dye, farm agent, that he expects his watering system to pay for itself with higher milk production during the winter months.

Demand for Fertilizer Tops Supply Despite Big Increase in Output, U. S. Report Shows

Fertilizer Use Has Been Greatly Expanded in Midwestern States.

CHICAGO — How farm demand for fertilizer has far outstripped the supply in spite of tremendous increases in production, was disclosed in a recent report of a special subcommittee of the U. S. House of Representatives' committee on agriculture.

The report, issued in Washington, was received here by the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee. It covers a preliminary survey of the 1947 fertilizer supply situation.

"It is obvious," says the report, "that the basic difficulty facing farmers this spring is not (with the exception of Chilean nitrate of soda) an actual deficiency of supply, but rather an unprecedented demand.

"Fertilizer consumption has increased at the rate of about a million tons a year during the war, reaching a peak of 14,000,000 tons in 1946 compared to an average of 7,300,000 tons in the years 1935-39.

"Significant in the pattern of increased demand is the greatly expanded use of fertilizer in the Midwestern states, where previously little fertilizer was used." The most important factor in the changing pattern of fertilizer use, the report continues, is that "fertilizer plants have naturally been built primarily in areas of greatest use — in the Southeast and along the Atlantic seaboard."

But most new fertilizer plants now being constructed are located to serve the Midwest area. The Civilian Production Administration reports that 65 new plants and 44 major plant expansions have gone into operation in the past year and others are being constructed as fast as materials become available.

White Explains Policies Of Kentucky Guernsey Breeders Association

Glenn D. White of Nashville, Tenn., Field Reporter of the American Cattle Club with headquarters in New Hampshire, appeared before a meeting of the nine county agriculture agents in the northern tier of counties to explain the policies of the Kentucky Guernsey Breeders Association as well as the American Guernsey Cattle Club in connection with the promotional sales to be held in Cynthiana on April 15, 1947.

Mr. White outlined the manner in which entires are obtained for these promotional sales. He stated that the selection committee is appointed by the Board of Directors. These men then go into the outstanding herds of Kentucky and surrounding states and select specimen of promising type. The owner is then invited to enter these animals selected in the sale. This is from an individual standpoint, strictly a non-profit affair. The men on the committee who serve to promote the sales receive absolutely nothing for their work except the satisfaction of making animals from fine herds available to local dairymen and farmers as well as the buyers from other states.

Mr. White further stated that these sales at this time have a particularly beneficial effect on the dairy business in the Northern part of the State, since the introduction of artificial insemination. It is now possible for a farmer to buy only one or two fine female specimens for the foundation of the herd because he can through the artificial insimination from registered Guernsey bulls now instud in Louisville produce calves which may be registered, and in that manner build a herd from some of the finest blood that the outstanding Guernsey breeders have to offer. This therefore becomes a fine opportunity for members of the 4-H Clubs, Future Farmer Chapter and Veterans Agriculture on the job trainees to obtain a start in the breeding of purebreds.

The selection committee which choose the animals for these two sales were Louis Hollenbach of Louisville, president of the Kentucky Breeders Association; Ed Pruett of Red Cross Farm, Winchester, Ky., official Guernsey judge and a director of the Guernsey Breeders Association and John Evans outstanding Kentucky Breeder and owner of Hickory Hill farm, Ashland, Ky., and Earl F. Metcalfe owner of Morning View Farm, Morning View, Ky., and a director on the Board of Guernsey Breeders Association.

Mr. White addressed a group in the office of the Kenton County Agent, Covington, March 28 at 4:00 p. m.

Kenneth Hutchinson of Wayne county is installing a broiler and two-inch pipe to use in curing tobacco.

At least 100,000 strawberry plants will be transplanted in Knox county this spring, many farmers starting commercial crops.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

THE KINGDOM ESTABLISHED

LESSON TEXT—I Samuel 9:1, 2; 11:12, 13; 15:1, 22-26, 34, 35.
MEMORY SELECTION—Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord.—Psalm 33:12.

A major crisis had come in the history of Israel when we left them in our study of January-March, 1946. They were ready to change their form of government. They no longer wanted God to rule them directly through his representatives, but wanted a king like other nations round about them.

God acceded to their request and instructed his servant Samuel to anoint Saul as king, and they began that period in their history which led to their ultimate captivity and disgrace. We shall study together during the next three months the facts and factors involved in the rise and fall of the nation of Israel.

Our lesson concerns their first king, Saul, the son of Kish, who promised to be a great and good king, but who failed through disobedience.

I. Saul—a Choice Man and God-Chosen King (9:1, 2; 15:1).

To begin well is to be far on the road to success. Here was a man of excellent quality, "a choice young man and a goodly"—in fact, there was not among his people one who surpassed him. What a splendid recommendation for the prospective ruler!

His physical appearance was also attractive. That is not as great a factor in success as some think, but it does have a bearing on a man's influence over others.

Most important of all, this man Saul was the one whom not only the people but also the Lord had chosen. The Lord sent Samuel (15:1) to anoint Saul as king, and to give him the key to success as ruler—obedience to the voice of God.

II. Saul—an Obedient and God-Blessed King (11:12, 13).

The attitude of a man toward his enemies is often the test of his character. Bitterness, hatred, revenge, or veiled hostility with a purpose of ultimate destruction—these are the common reactions of men toward them who oppose them.

Saul, who was not essentially different in his own spirit (as we shall see later), was a man after God's own heart in his early reign, for he was obedient to the Lord.

Some "worthless fellows" despised Saul and refused to recognize him as king. The urge of the flesh to destroy them was aggravated by their own unworthiness. Some wanted to put them to death for their disloyalty to the king, but Saul in true kingly spirit, and recognizing that he reigned by the good grace of the Lord, decreed that there was to be no revenge, but rejoicing.

The story which we touch on so briefly here is one that teaches the eternal truth that the way of blessing and power is the way of obedience to the laws and the will of God.

Saul began well, but before long his pride and self-will began to assert itself and he thus brought to ruin and personal disaster that which had begun with such promise and blessing. There were many such incidents, but we consider only one.

III. Saul—a Disobedient and God-Rejected King (15:22-26, 34, 35).

God had commanded that there must be utter destruction of the Amalekites and their possessions—something like the burning of a disease-infested house—a wiping out of a king and people who were condemned of God. We may not fully understand this act of God, but if we know him we will not doubt that it was in accordance with his infinite wisdom and love.

Saul chose to disobey, later contending that it was done because of the people, that sheep and oxen had been spared for a sacrifice to the Lord. Samuel cut through his hypocrisy and declared that God wants obedience rather than sacrifice. This is a lesson that many who profess to follow the Lord have not learned.

The church or the individual who denies or disregards the teaching of God's Word and attempts to make up for it by sacrifices and ceremonies declares to the world that there has been a departure from true faith in God. Obedience is a virtue all too rare.

Too late! What sad words—and never sadder than when they speak of spiritual failure. Saul talked of repentance and prayer, but the Lord had already rejected him as king.

There comes a time when God's patience with man's disobedience is exhausted, and the door to further service is closed. It is a long, long way to the boundary line of God's patience; but mark it well, there is a boundary line!

Just Let Me Tell You A Few Facts About Walking, So You'll Realize Just How Much It Can Do For You

N. TULCH
Foot Comfort Specialist at—
PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE
PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE
814-816 Madison, Covington

The normal heart, you know, beats about seventy-two times a minute and pumps about six ounces of blood with each beat. Now, in fast walking, or at the rate of four miles an hour—(which is how fast you should walk to do you some good)—you'll find the normal heart will INCREASE its beat ten times to the minute, pumping six ounces of blood at each beat, gives sixty ounces per minute or 3600 an hour, which is 225 pounds. You can easily see that 225 ADDITIONAL pounds of blood pumped DAILY through your veins means just that much more life to your whole body.

There's no use of my telling you to get out and walk if you are having trouble with your feet, because I know you won't do it. BUT—if I tell you how to get rid of those aching, paining feet, first—then there's nothing to keep you from walking every day and benefitting your health by this wonderful exercise.

It has also been found that millions suffer without knowing the reason why—those headaches, those leg pains, and even sleepless nights may be caused by the shoes you are wearing.—Adv.

Announces Details of $20,000,000 Price Reductions

Details of the recently announced International Harvester policy of making price reductions to save users of our products approximately $20,000,000 a year have now been worked out.

We have reduced prices on 163 models. These cover 12 basic models of farm tractors, 123 basic models of farm machines, 16 basic models of industrial tractors and engines, and 12 models of motor trucks, as well as certain motor truck attachments. The new lower prices are effective as of March 10, 1947.

These reductions were made not because of any decline in demand, but because we believe nothing is more important to this country than to lower the prices of the goods people buy.

While prices have not been changed on all products, we have made reductions wherever possible, in the amounts possible. Prices of many of our most popular products have been substantially lowered.

Altogether, more than half of the company's customers will be benefited by the reductions, which range from 1% to 23.8% and from $2.50 to $300 per item, based on list prices, F.O.B. Chicago.

Since the people have demanded that the government withdraw from price control in peacetime, the responsibility to keep prices in check is back where it should be—in the hands of business and industry. The business outlook makes it possible for us to move toward the goal of lower prices, and we have felt a duty to act as promptly as possible.

Our ability to maintain these lower prices will depend on the supply and price of materials we buy from others and on uninterrupted production at reasonable wage levels.

The prices listed here carry out our announced policy that "Any price is too high if it can be reduced."

CONSTANCE HOMEMAKERS

The meeting of the Constance Homemakers Club was held at the home of Mrs. Elmer Peeno, of Erlanger, Ky., on April 2nd. A very nice time was had by all.

Mrs. Orion Erbaugn, a member who has been unable to attend our past meetings was present. The club was glad to see her. The visitors who attended our meeting were Mrs. Black, Mrs. Fritz and Mrs. Moore our former Home Demonstration Agent.

Our very interesting subject was a continuation of Slip Cover designing, given by Mrs. Freda Kottmyer and Mrs. Margaret Prabel.

Seven Hobby Fairs were held in the county the last week-end of March. A quick check shows that approximately 360 exhibits were made at the seven fairs. About 925 persons viewed the exhibits. Thanks to those who worked toward its success.

Mary Frances Matheny is to be our new Assistant Home Demonstration Agent for Boone County. Her work started April 1st.

The next meeting of May 7th will be held at the home of Mrs. Thos. Kenyon.

Corn Crop Is Big 'Eater' of Nitrogen, Ohio Study Reveals

CORN'S need for liberal quantities of nitrogen in order to produce high yields was indicated by recent research work by Drs. J. D. Sayre and R. E. Yoder, agronomists at the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station, which showed that under average conditions, corn plants must take up nearly 1½ pounds of nitrogen from the soil for each bushel of grain produced.

While most Corn Belt farmers rely on good legume sods, manure and decomposing soil organic matter for a large part of the nitrogen required for the corn crop, they are to an increasing extent using extra quantities of nitrogen fertilizers to supplement regular row fertilization of corn on fields where the nitrogen supply is inadequate for high yields.

In the research work conducted by Drs. Sayre and Yoder, plant samples taken at weekly intervals throughout a favorable growing season were subjected to chemical analysis to study the time and rate of nitrogen uptake and its translocation within the corn plant. The crop under study yielded slightly over 100 bushels of shelled corn per acre, and required a total of 142 pounds of nitrogen per acre.

Less than 5 per cent of the total nitrogen was taken up by the corn plants during their first month of growth. During each of the next two months, July and August, 68 pounds of nitrogen per month was required to make the high yielding crop. The daily rate of nitrogen uptake was nearly 2½ pounds per acre per day during the fast midsummer growth period.

To make their spring sewing easier, the Owenton Homemakers Club members, Owen county, are making dress form.

"A REAL LEADER"

Jesse K. Lewis, whose friends are convinced he is the man to lead the Democratic party out of the political "Wilderness."

IS HONEST GOVERNMENT WORTH ANYTHING TO YOU?

Wouldn't you like to know that the Government at Frankfort is being operated for ALL the people ALL the time—24 hours out of every day—for at least one four-year administration?

Wouldn't you like to know that the Democratic nominee, would, if elected, surround himself with efficient, conscientious employes chosen for what they could do FOR you rather than TO you?

Wouldn't you like to have a lot fewer campaign promises and high-sounding pre-election oratory, yet have the assurance that those promises should be on the things the state actually needs and wants and would be honestly carried out to the letter?

Wouldn't you like to see an administration to which you could point with pride—one that would enhance the prestige of the state and elevate Kentucky to the position of leadership in the educational and industrial world to which she is entitled?

THEN

If these things mean anything to you and are worth fighting for in the Democratic primary next August, many prominent Democrats are confident that there can be but one answer. As phrased by Judge Howard Ellis, judge of the Owen County Court for the past 27 years:

"Mr. Jesse K. Lewis, former assistant attorney general and now Democratic member of the Kentucky Public Service Commission, is the 'Moses' who can lead our great party out of the 'Wilderness of political bossism.'

If you want a Governor who is honest, capable, energetic, fearless and who owes allegiance to no one but YOU, the PEOPLE of Kentucky—a man in whom your faith will be justified—I am convinced that he is that man. And many other Kentucky Democrats whom I have contacted are similarly impressed by Mr. Lewis."

(This advertisement paid for by friends of Jesse K. Lewis who are convinced that he should be induced to make the race for Governor)

600 FARMERS TO GROW KY. 31 FESCUE SEED

More than 600 farmers will produce seed of the much-talked-about Ky. 31 fescue grass this year, according to an announcement of the Kentucky Seed Improvement Association at Lexington. The association issued the following warning about farmers accepting other grasses as substitutes for fescue 31:

"Ky. 31 fescue has no substitute. It has been reported to this office by county agents and farmers that seed of Alta fescue is in Kentucky and being offered for sale to Kentucky farmers as a substitute for Ky. 31 fescue. County agents and farmers should bear in mind that there is no substitute for Ky. 31 fescue. Dr. E. N. Fergus advised us that Ky. 31 fescue has produced more herbage than Alta fescue in two trials where the two were compared in Kentucky. He thinks Ky. 31 fescue is possibly more palatable than Alta fescue since it has been reported that some of the northern states that Alta fescue was not so palatable. Dr. Fergus also states that there is a difference in the looks of the two strains in the spring of the year while they are similar in appearance at some other times of the year.

"Ky. 31 fescue has proved its worth in numerous trials under a great variation of conditions throughout the state of Kentucky while Alta fescue has not been extensively tested throughout the state. Ky. 31 fescue is the only variety or strain of fescue that is eligible for certification in Kentucky. There are a lot of other fescues but there fescue cannot be certified if grown within 10 rods of Alta fescue or any other strain of tall fescue."

DR. MIDDLETON WILL BE HEARD NEXT SUNDAY

Using as his subject next Sunday, "You Must Reckon With God," Dr. J. W. Middleton of Atlanta, Ga., will give his second message of the current Baptist Hour series on the general subject, "Christ the Answer," as announced by the Radio Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention, S. F. Lowe, Director, Atlanta.

The Atlanta announcement further states that in harmony with a territory-wide emphasis on soul winning, the Baptist Hour is promoting a movement to form a prayer league of One Million Christians who will pray daily for the spiritual awakening America must have to fill her place in bringing in the Kingdom of God.

The Baptist Hour speaker for the two Sundays, April 20 and 27 will be Dr. C. E. Matthews of Dallas, Texas, on the subjects, "God's Unfound Treasure" and "Man's Greatest Need."

The Baptist Hour may be heard in Kentucky over radio station WHAS, Louisville at 7:30 CST Sunday morning.

CONSERVATION CONVERSATION

By J. C. Acree

Plowing on the Contour. Even the business men are interested in how the farmer plows. A monthly builder's magazine gives some very interesting results where contours have plowed with the lay of the land. For more information or assistance in laying out contour lines, get in touch with the local Soil Conservation office.

Mr. A. C. Saunders, who now owns the R. B. Huey farm, has one of the cleanest farms in the county. He is not satisfied, however, so he has two bulldozers clearing a field of undesirable brush and trees and has level over the gullied area. This field will be terraced, cropped for a year and then seeded down to grass. Three tons of lime and 500 pounds of 20 percent phosphate per acre will be spread on this area.

Several large reservoirs have been built and are under construction. A well planned reservoir is being completed on the Tom Felice farm at Walton on the Verona road. Also, the reconstruction of a reservoir on the Hamilton farm near Verona is being started. In rebuilding this reservoir, extreme care will be taken in coreing the dam and a natural spillway will be used instead of a masonary spillway.

Several farmers have purchased power saws for clearing land. They are time savers and we have much land that needs clearing; however, we should think twice before cutting everything as we come to it. A large area of Boone County land should be left in timber, and if we cut up this wooded covering and put nothing back, we are going to have severe erosion. In clearing up brush pastures, it is a good practice to leave some of the hardwood trees or good clear locust to shade or protect the land until a sod is established.

Today's Thinker. Did you ever see a permanent, prosperous town in a land of poor soil, small crops and poor farmers? Then it is to the interest of business men as well as farmers to conserve our soil resources.

Twenty-seven farmers in Campbell county received fish from the state hatchery for stocking farm reservoirs.

Eleven farmers in Fleming county are growing Ky. 31 fescue grass, two of them producing seed.

Notes and Comments

From the Editor's Desk

"Let the Buyer Have Confidence"

"High prices" and "low prices" are loosely used terms. To compare, for instance, the price structure of 1935, when the national debt was small and when wages and the national income were relatively low, with the price structure of 1947, a $280,000,000,000 debt, record wages, and an enormous national income, just doesn't make sense. Prices are sensitive to all the economic influences of the time.

The sensible thing to talk about is a "fair price." That, to define it briefly, is the lowest price at which any given commodity may be sold in the light of today's wages, debt, taxes, rents, material costs and everything else. And that kind of price is rapidly being established in all fields.

Increased production in manufacturing has injected new blood into the American competitive spirit—and that always helps to hold prices down as well as to force quality up. Consumer resistance against the shoddy and the over-priced article has been another salutory factor. Finally, on the retail level, the American distribution machine is again proving its metal.

No merchant who wants to stay in business will deliberatly exploit the consumer. "Let the buyer beware" is the exact reverse of American retailing principles. "Let the buyer have confidence" is, in essence, the motto of modern retailers—and that goes for the small independent as well as the big chain or department store. The merchant's principal asset is consumer friendship and faith—and he stocks his shelves and prices his goods accordingly.

Americans Demand Freedom To Work

Passage of bans on the closed shop by twelve state legislatures has brought into bright focus the fact that the average American still loves his independence as much as his forefathers did when they declared it in 1776, and then fought a war to defend it.

Back of the legislative action was a tide of public sentiment so strong, and so forcefully expressed, that all the lobbying of the political professions of closed shop unions could not prevent it. Here in each case, on a state scale, was the same type and intensity of sentiment which last November swept into office Congressmen pledged to restore and protect traditional liberties.

Congressional hearing of the past few weeks have served to put into the public record a mass of information regarding the effect of closed shop practices upon the independence and freedom of U. S. workmen. While inequities such as the calling of strikes without the consent of employes had been much publicized during the coal strike, a large percentage of the public had not realised that dictators of national labor unions had established their own system of government, making their own laws, levying taxes or tribute without representation, extending or denying to individual craftsmen the right to work, and punishing without trial any employe who incurred their displeasure.

Other congressional testimony reemphasized the fact that under closed shop practices a farm youth or other non-industrial worker may be prohibited from holding a factory job, or even a beginner's job in certain skilled trades, unless strangers controling union contracts give their consent. Such consent may be withheld entirely as a means of assuring more work for present union members, or it may be withheld until the new workman has paid whatever fees the union decides upon, and agrees to regular deduction of union dues and assessments from his pay check. Fees, as in the case of one glass workers, union, were shown to run as high as $1500 as the price of obtaining the right to work as a glazier.

With one-fourth of the states already pledged to guarantee that any citizen may work at any job which is available and which he is qualified to hold, the next move is expected to come from Washington, where action either permitting or banning the closed shop is certain to be taken in the early future. Which it shall be is not up to Congress alone, but is dependent upon the sentiment of the general public.

New Home For Florence Fire Department Proposed

Building To House Fire Equipment and Community Center for Town of Florence—Campaign Under Way to Raise Funds For Project

The Florence Volunteer Fire Department needs a home. For years it has been housed in temporary and entirely inadequate quarters. Florence is the only city in Northern Kentucky that does not have a Fire Hall.

When the Florence Volunteer Fire Department was first organized the Kentucky Inspection Bureau and other state authorities recognized the need for a period of growth before permanent quarters could be provided.

Upon organization of the Florence Volunteer Fire Department the insurance premiums were materially reduced because of the fire protection afforded. Some of the residents of the city will remember the old rates. Many who have moved into Florence since then have not realised that they are enjoying this benefit.

So far the state authorities have not made a direct expression of their intention to change fire insurance rates in Florence. They have, however, stated their opinion that adequate housing should be made available in the very near future. They can decide that present arrangements are unsatisfactory and raise rates to be increased.

Last fall the Board of Trustees of the city of Florence appointed a committee to consider plans for a Fire Hall and Community Center. This committee was composed of representatives from the Fire Department, the Rotary Club, the Florence Bank, the Florence Building and Loan Association, and the Board of Trustees. After thorough discussion a Building Committee was appointed to carry out plans for the construction of the Fire Hall.

The City owned a lot on the corner of Shelby and Center streets. This lot was not considered a good location for a Fire Hall. It was sold and the proceeds of the sale applied to the purchase of a lot at the junction of Ripley and Main Street. A contribution from the treasury of the Florence Volunteer Fire Department finished paying for the lot. An architect was employed. A preliminary sketch was prepared and copies of it have been on display in store windows for several weeks. Detailed plans and specifications are now being prepared.

It is proposed to erect a one-story brick building of sufficient size to house three pieces of fire fighting equipment. The Fire Department now owns two trucks but cannot use one of them because of unsuitable quarters.

The basement is designed for use as a meeting place for local organizations. It could be used for dinners, entertainments, exhibitions, or picture show.

Each property owner has enjoyed a great savings because of the protection afforded by the members of the Florence Volunteer Fire Department. These men give their time and risk injury whenever a fire threatens to destroy property. Their volunteer and unselfish service saves thousands of dollars for the property owners of Florence.

It has been estimated that the proposed Fire Hall and Community Center will cost about $23,000.00. Each property owner is being asked to consider his present fire insurance premiums, then figure what they would be if there was no fire protection. The difference represents a savings. He is being asked to invest that savings to guarantee the continuation of fire protection and the present low fire insurance rates.

Suppose he has a frame house and there was no fire protection. His rate would be 74c. If he carries $4000.00 on the house his premium would be $29.60.

The Florence rate, with fire protection, on a frame house is 22c. On the $4000.00 his premium is $8.80. His annual saving is $20.80. He is being asked to invest, and give his savings for a period of three years. This may be paid in cash or payments may be made annually, semi-annually, or quarterly. Co-operation will provide a building of which the city of Florence will be justly proud.

Within the next week or ten days members of the committee will visit every property owner and ask that he share in this worthwhile movement, according to M. G. Martin, chairman.

Mrs. William Jarrell entertained a group of friends at her home Friday evening. The guests were Mrs. R. A. Hodder, Jr., Mrs. Ernest Rupport, Mrs. Luther Smith, Mrs. Raymond Combs, Mrs. Franklin Maurer, Mrs. Robert Maurer and Mrs. Pete Stephens.

BARN DESTROYED BY FIRE TUESDAY

LOSS IS ESTIMAED AT $5,000.00—HEBRON FIRE DEPARTMENT UNABLE TO SAVE STRUCTURE BUT SAVE MILK PARLOR.

Lightning struck a barn owned by R. B. Branham, of near Bullittsville early Tuesday night, destroying the entire structure before aid could be summoned.

The Hebron Fire Department was summoned and arrived on the scene within a very few minutes, but the entire building was ablaze and well out of control upon their arrival. The department was successful in saving a milking parlor situated near the barn.

Although a complete report was not available at this writing, the estimated loss was set at $5,000.00. The barn contained a small amount of hay, one calf and probably one cow. It was stated that the barn was insured for $3500.00.

DDT NOT RECOMMENDED AS PEACH-TREE SPRAY

Circular 427 of the Kentucky College of Agriculture makes the following statement about DDT:

It has been found in Kentucky and elsewhere that DDT is very effective in reducing peach losses from cat-facing and oriental fruit moth injury. However, because of the possible effects of DDT on bees and parasites, and because of the later build-up of leaf mites where DDT is substituted for the materials commonly used, the use of DDT on peaches is not recommended, except in special cases.

"DDT is not effective against curculio and has no place in curculio sprays."

Circulars 427 and 428, published by the college, deal with peach spray and dust programs and apple spray program for Kentucky fruit growers. Both may be had from county agents or by writing to the college at Lexington.

Farmers who saw the Williams cane demonstration on the farm of Jess Bullock in Pulaski county, are asking for seed of that variety.

Rototiller in Operation

The new Rototiller farm machine, produced by Graham-Paige Motors in the giant Willow Run plant, prepares soil for planting in a single operation, making unnecessary the three operations of plow, disk and harrow. The five-horsepower tillage unit, which churns and crumbles the soil to a depth of nine inches, has attachments which adapt it to a score of other farm tasks such as bulldozing, seeding, mowing, snowplowing and other operations.

EGGS A DOLLAR A DOZEN?

LAGGING CHICKS SALES POINT TO SHORTAGE OF EGGS AND POULTRY BY FALL AS EXPECTED SURPLUSES FAIL TO DEVELOP.

How much money could you make next fall if eggs were selling for a dollar a dozen? It could happen. In fact, in New York last week, the President of the Butter and Egg Merchants' Association said it may happen.

It May Happen! Why?

Because every sign today points to a shortage of eggs and poultry next fall.

Two months ago—even 30 days ago—nobody would have believed such a prediction. Folks were talking of an egg surplus. The Government said it would support the price of eggs. But what has happened—?

There is no surplus. Eggs are disappearing as fast as they are being laid. And far too few baby chicks are being started to meet the demand for poultry and eggs next fall.

Poultry experts don't need a crystal ball to predict this coming shortage and high egg and poultry prices. They just look at these cold facts of the U. S. Department of Agriculture which tell the story:

These Facts Point to High Egg and Poultry Prices

1. At the season when eggs would normally be moving into storage in great volume, stocks of shell eggs are dwindling.

In February this reduction amounted to 70,000 cases. On March 1 there was only about half an egg in storage for every American. A year ago there were 1½ million cases—about 7 times as many.

2. Frozen eggs in storage decreased by 7 million pounds in February as compared to an increase of 6 million pounds in February a year ago.

3. Egg production in February was 4 percent below a year ago due to 6 percent fewer layers.

4. Americans are eating eggs at a record rate because of high purchasing power and high meat prices.

5. There were 55 million fewer chickens on farms January 1 than there were a year ago.

6. Virtually all signs point to an excellent grain producing season in 1947 which normally means lower feed prices. A record wheat crop and another 3 billion bushel corn crop are forecast.

It's A Good Year To Start Chicks

Yes eggs may sell for a dollar a dozen next fall, but you'll have to start chicks this spring to cash in on this golden opportunity.

Our advice is to buy good chicks and start them right. Feed them Purina Chick Startena to get them off to a flying start. It's America's Favorite Chick Starter for Life and Growth and this year it's the best Purina ever made. We have a good supply in stock. Come in and see us for chicks and all your chick raising needs.

CONSERVATION CONVERSATION

By J. C. Acree

Wednesday afternoon, April 9, the Supervisors of the Boone County District held their regular monthly meeting. Those present were C. L. Hempfling, H. E. White, Joe Heizer, Jr., and W. H. Presser. The supervisors are planning on procuring a tractor and tractor disc plows to be used for terrace construction.

Anyone doubting the value of terraces should drive along the Youell Road and note the difference in the amount of soil deposited in the road ditch at the Robert Youell farm. Two fields, side by side, were cultivated last year; one was terraced, the other was not. This was the second year of plowing for the terraced field, but the erosion was nothing compared to the other field.

John Burns, of the Petersburg community, has purchased the Bird McCord farm. He has asked the Soil Conservation Service to assist him in planning the farm. Mr. Burns had a farm plan on his other farm.

Farm plans were developed on the following ten farms last month: H. H. Penick farm and Thomas G. Feline farm at Walton, Emil Hilenbrand, Orville Brown, Melvin Kelly, Ernest Brown Sr., J. C. Hopkins, Carpenter & Martin, C. G. Jones, Arthur Jones farms, Burlington, Ky.

Contour guide lines were laid out for John Berkshire on the Charles Koch farm. Also on the Stanley Ashcraft farm at Verona.

Today's Thinker: The well-rounded farmer is not a wage-slave but a creative worker; a good farmer who loves his soil, and realizes its powerful meaning to humanity; takes pride at the end of the year in having him farm a little more productive, the home a little more beautiful than the year before. Within this ideal lies the possibility of permanent soil fertility.—"The Furrow and U. S.," by Walter Thomas Jack.

Why Suffer With Your Feet?

N. TULCH

Foot Comfort Specialist at—

PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE

PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE

814-816 Madison, Covington

Our years of research have proven that foot comfort depends on foot balance.

For years men have been guessing about foot balance, putting steel supports under feet and elastic bands around feet, all sizes and shapes corn pads, plasters, callous plasters, etc. Yet people continue to suffer with their feet, legs, back and with various other aches and pains, resulting from feet in numerous cases, because they have never had their body weight propery balanced on their feet with shoes.

Your feet may look regular to you, but, naturally you cannot detect weakness or have any way of testing for unbalance. But remember: "Fat on the ribs" is by no means an adequate criterion of physical well being.

Don't take chances. If you are suffering with leg pains, knee pains, stiffness, backaches or severe headaches, or sleep poorly and are always tired, your feet may be the cause.—Adv.

WE'LL BE READY FOR HOT WEATHER WHEN IT COMES

WE'RE INSTALLING

Attic Ventilation NOW!

YOU, too, will have reason to rejoice this summer if you install an attic fan now.

When the first hot, sultry nights arrive, you can enjoy cool comfort at the snap of a switch. An attic fan draws in refreshing outside air through the windows . . . blows out accumulated daytime heat through the attic vents. It provides a constant, stimulating air movement that makes your entire house as cool as a breeze-swept open porch.

By ordering your attic fan now, you can be assured of prompt installation . . . and cool-as-a-cucumber sleeping all summer long!

Your attic is a heat trap without ventilation. Diagram shows how an attic fan expels hot, stale air . . . brings in cooling breezes.

Mrs. Jo Ellen Cason Bruce celebrated her 92nd birthday Tuesday, April 1st, receiving many beautiful cards, gifts of flowers, candy, and money.

The following information is given concerning cancer:

Cancer is—
